HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CAMINO SEATTLE WALK AFTER 10AM MASS Join us for a Catholic History walk through First Hill and Central District today, Sunday, July 3 at 11:15am. Starting from St. James Cathedral's front steps, our walk will take us past some of the Catholic institutions that have made their mark on our city, including schools, parishes, hospitals, the Archbishop's residence, and one important parish that's not there anymore. We will take a few very short breaks for history tidbits along the way. The walk will be about three miles and will last an hour. All are welcome!

INDEPENDENCE DAY On Monday, July 4, there will be just one Mass in the Cathedral at 9:00am. After Mass, the Cathedral will close for the day. The regular schedule will resume on Tuesday, July 5. Please note that the parish office will also be closed on July 4.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Most people call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) because they need monetary help to pay rent or electricity bills or to buy food, clothes or other necessities. But often when we visit, we learn they are very lonely. Recently, we visited a disabled woman who was standing in her doorway, leaning on her walker as we got off the elevator and headed down the hallway toward her apartment. As soon as she saw us, she called out a hearty hello and then said in a loud voice, "I am so happy to see you because I never have visitors!" It is such a joy and privilege to meet these people where they live and spend a bit of time getting to know them. Would you like to be a home visitor? Information, Christine Henderson, 253-973-1441 or christinehsvdp@gmail.com.

Priority application deadline: August 15. Information, 206-305-8911, email JVESeattle@jvcnorthwest.org, or visit <http://jvencorps.org> to apply.

Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives
long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 4-week grief support group
facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, & Rosanne Michaels

Remembering Auschwitz

Monday, July 11, 2016 | 7:00pm-8:30pm | Cathedral Hall
St. James Cathedral, 804 Ninth Avenue, Seattle

At World Youth Day this summer, Seattle WYD pilgrims will have the opportunity to visit and pray at Auschwitz, where one million European Jews and more than 100,000 others were systematically murdered between 1940 and 1945. Pope Francis will visit Auschwitz on July 29.

In preparation for that journey, all are invited to a special presentation from JACK SCHALOU. Mr. Schaloum's mother Magda was born in 1922 in Gyor, Hungary. Following the German occupation of Hungary on March 19, 1944, the Nazis forced Magda and her family to leave their home and deported them to Auschwitz. "When we heard about groups that denied the Holocaust, we decided that we had to speak out," Magda once said. "If you hear somebody deny the Holocaust, you can say, 'I have seen and heard a survivor.'"

This is the story of Magda's experience of the Holocaust and how she survived to live a long and full life until her death in June 2015 at 93. Her son Jack is a member of the Holocaust Center's Speakers Bureau and is carrying on his mother's legacy by sharing her story. Now more than ever, we must never forget! All are welcome.
