Batastini

SECOND READING

Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Brothers and sisters: I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress. My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
All BOW
 and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All STAND UPRIGHT
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son
 is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU We visited a woman who recently had back surgery after suffering from back pain for many years. While she was in the hospital, a friend living in the same building entered her apartment daily to care for her tiny dog. On the night the woman returned home from the hospital, she woke up because multiple bed bugs were biting her. She then learned that other parts of the building were having a major bed bug infestation, and the friend had unknowingly brought bugs into her apartment. She had to throw out the futon she had been sleeping on. The good news is that your financial support bought her a new bed (after the bugs were cleared out), which is making her recovery from surgery much more comfortable – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

CARE FOR CREATION SITE VISIT On the morning of November 15, the St. James Care for Creation committee invites you to a tour of the South Seattle Transfer Station to learn how more than 320,000 tons of garbage, recycling and yard waste are processed each year. We will be in the Viewing Room that overlooks the tipping floor so visitors can see the station's daily operations. In addition, educational displays and videos explain Seattle's solid waste system, including recycling and waste reduction. The Viewing Room is open during station hours. However, the viewing room is not staffed by employees, and no staff-led tours are provided. The room is ADA-accessible. No food or beverages are allowed in the Viewing Room. Information and passes at www.byrdensemble.com.

ALUMNI MEMORIAL MASS On Saturday, November 4, 11:00am, O'Dea High School will celebrate its annual Alumni Memorial Mass in St. James Cathedral to honor their deceased graduates. Father Michael G. # Protecting Children, Born and Unborn

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

No. 3 of 5

October is Respect Life Month. Each week this month, a page in the bulletin will explore different aspects of Church teaching on a variety of life issues: abortion, human trafficking, war, and euthanasia. This week, we look at the Church's teaching on abortion.

The present situation

Abortion has been legal in the United States since 1973. Since 1973, more than 58 million unborn children have lost their lives through legal abortion in the United States. Unfortunately, large numbers of women and men know all too well the anguish and grief that can follow an abortion decision.

What does the Church say about abortion?

The Second Vatican Council defines abortion, together with infanticide, as an "unspeakable crime." But today, in many people's consciences, the perception of its gravity has become progressively obscured. The acceptance of abortion in the popular mind, in behavior and even in law itself, is a telling sign of an extremely dangerous crisis of the moral sense, which is becoming more and more incapable of distinguishing between good and evil, even when the fundamental right to life is at stake.

Pope John Paul II, The Gospel of Life, 58

Reflections

All life has inestimable value even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

Pope Francis, Message to Catholics taking part in annual Day for Life in Britain and Ireland July 28, 2013

If one contends, as we do, that the right of every fetus to be born should be protected by civil law and supported by civil consensus, then our moral, political, and economic responsibilities do not stop at the moment of birth. Those who defend the right to life of the weakest among us must be equally visible in support of the quality of life of the powerless among us: the old and the young, the hungry and the homeless, the undocumented immigrant and the unemployed worker.

Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, A Consistent Ethic of Life

Every child brings us God's smile

Healing and reconciliation

The Catholic Church, while never minimizing the grave evil that is abortion, has been at the forefront in offering hope for healing and reconciliation from the pain of an abortion experience.

I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors that may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. Try rather to understand what happened and face it honestly. If you have not already done so, give yourselves over with humility and trust to repentance. The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You will come to understand that nothing is definitively lost and you will also be able to ask forgiveness from your child, who is now living in the Lord. Through your commitment to life, whether by accepting the birth of other children or by welcoming and caring for those most in need of someone to be close to them, you will become promoters of a new way of looking at human life.

Pope John Paul II, The Gospel of Life

One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism

Solemn Vespers
on the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation

Sunday, October 29, 2017
3:00pm

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther placed 95 theses or propositions questioning the Church's use of indulgences on the door of a church in Wittenberg, Germany. That act is considered the "flash point" for the Protestant Reformation. The 500th anniversary observance is an opportunity for Christians of many denominations to pray for each other; to heal old wounds; and to continue along the path of encounter and dialogue.

During this commemoration, ARCHBISHOP J. PETER SARTAIN, Archbishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle, will be joined by BISHOP KIRBY UNTI, leader of the Northwest Washington Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

St. James Cathedral is located at 9th & Marion on First Hill, downtown Seattle.

All are welcome.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.
