

St. James Cathedral's Ninth Annual

HEALTH & ENVIRONMENT FAIR

Nurture Nature; Nurture Health

Sunday, April 6, 2014
After the 10am and Noon Masses
Cathedral Hall

Our health and the health of our environment are intimately connected. This year's Health Fair continues our focus on how, by being responsible stewards of one, we can also be caring and effective stewards of both.

More than twenty local health, environmental and government organizations will be on hand to demonstrate and speak to you about our health and the health of our environment, and show how those areas are connected. Join us in Cathedral Hall for a chance to collect valuable information and ask questions. This year, we will offer diabetes and cholesterol screenings in addition to blood pressure screenings. Bring family and friends!

Our exhibitors include:

Cathedral Kitchen Garden • American Lung Association • Washington Poison Center • Food Safety • Massage • Chiropractic • Dental Health • Seattle Tilth • Earth Ministry • and many more!

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

GUEST CHOIR SATURDAY, 5:30PM MASS We welcome the Gonzaga University Schola Cantorum, conducted by Dr. Timothy Westerhaus. The 25-member ensemble will be performing the sublime 17th century Officium Defunctorum of Tomas Luis de Victoria as a meditative Lenten postlude following Mass.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is open! Please come by after the 10:00 and Noon Masses. All proceeds for the month of April benefit the RCIA.

IN THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Now in stock: Jesus: A Pilgrimage, a new book by Father James Martin, SJ. Also, a new book by our own Archbishop Sartain: A Journey to the Heart of Jesus. And don't miss Journey of Faith, a brand-new retelling of the history of the Church in Western Washington, from the days when native peoples called this place holy ground, right up to the present day. This short history (told in "comic book" or graphic novel format) includes key moments in the life of our Cathedral.

Dear Friends,

It's wonderful to be able to share with you that you were your usual generous selves in responding to the collection last weekend in support of the victims of the terrible landslide in Snohomish County. To date, you have contributed $14,010! I know this will make a big difference for the people up there. We have sent a check in that amount to Father Tim Sauer, the pastor of Immaculate Conception parish in Arlington. Anyone who would still like to make a donation can do so by dropping a check in the collection basket, made out to St. James Cathedral with "Oso" on the memo line. Thank you!

Summoned to a Revolution of Tenderness

Saturday, April 12, 2014 | 9am-11am, Cathedral Hall

Where would Pope Francis' vision lead us if we were to take it to heart?
to our homes, to our streets ?

You are invited to a morning of reflection with parishioner Patty Repikoff to prepare us for Triduum and Easter Season. During our time together we will ponder Pope Francis' invitation to Encounter, Companionship, Mission with the Risen Jesus. How does it touch our own lives and that of our Church? What is the grace we need to allow the Easter revolution of joy and tenderness to take place in us?

This retreat marks the conclusion of our Lenten series Joy of the Gospel, but you don't need to have participated in the Joy of the Gospel groups to participate in this morning of prayer. All are welcome!

PATRICIA (PATTY) REPIKOFF is a daughter of the Pacific Northwest, growing up in Vancouver, formed by the Sisters of Providence, the Holy Names and the Jesuits. She has served as a Lay Ecclesial Minister for 42 years. Recently, she took a new role with Catholic Community Services as Pastoral Advocate for Mission. She is also Adjunct Faculty at Seattle University School of Theology and Ministry for their new Doctorate of Ministry Program. Patty is a proud member of St. James Cathedral Parish, and a member of the Cathedral's Life, Peace, and Justice Committee.
