WELCOME: If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are in memory of Ruth Marianne Greenbaum, on the 39th anniversary of her death, from her daughter Marianne Maxin and family.

SPIRITUALITY IN LATER LIFE Father Ron Rolheiser, OMI, will speak this Sunday in the Cathedral at 2:30 pm. This event, sponsored by the Legacy Society of Catholic Community Services is open to all.

TESTAMENTS This Sunday, October 26, 1:30-5:30 pm at St. Peter's Parish Hall, Beacon Hill (Co-sponsored by St. James). Come explore the Catholic understanding of Scripture and Tradition. Participants will be able identify the Books of the Bible and understand their variety of literary forms, genres and key themes. They will discuss the process of arriving at the Canon of Scripture and understand why we have more books than other Christian denominations. They will also learn about the role of the Magisterium, in Biblical interpretation. The cost is $5 per person/for parishioners.

IN THE BOOKSTORE New Vatican Library items for your Christmas shopping. Celebrate the Year of St. Paul with one of the books from our St. Paul display. And look for our best-selling authors, Ronald Rolheiser, OMI, Kathleen Norris, Marilynn Robinson and Sister Helen Prejean who have been in Seattle recently or are on the way.

KEEP ST. MARTIN DE PORRES SHELTER AND

LAZARUS DAY CENTER OPEN Two of the Archdiocesan Housing Authority's programs, the Lazarus Day Center and St. Martin's Shelter, are in danger of having to close their doors two days a week due to budget short falls. They are asking the City of Seattle for $85,000 to help keep their doors open. Without this funding, hundreds of elderly homeless people will be at risk. Please stop by coffee hour after Mass during this weekend to sign letters to the City Council. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of All Saints, Puyallup; St. Charles Borromeo, Tacoma and Burlington; and the mission church of Our Lady of the Olympics. Quinault.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Each week during this Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

- St. Paul gives high praise to the Thessalonians in today's second reading: "in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything." Can that be said of our own Christian community? What can we do so that our faith in God can "go forth"?
- St. Paul describes the conversion of the Thessalonians: "receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit." Does this ring true of your own conversion experience (or your experience of being a follower of Christ)? When have you experienced this mixture of "affliction" and "joy"?

MASS IN MEMORY OF THE DECEASED HOMELESS

On Monday, November 3, 2008, at 5:30pm, all are invited to gather at St. James Cathedral for a special Mass in memory of the men and women who died on the streets of King County during the past year.

This year, we gather on the Church's feast in honor of St. Martin de Porres. St. Martin (1579-1639) was the son of a freed slave and a Spanish nobleman. Martin dedicated himself to the service of the poorest of the poor in Lima, Peru. He is the patron saint of race relations and of all who work for social justice. The Mass will include a blessing for all those involved in our outreach ministries.

MINISTRIES FAIR

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2008 after the Morning Masses

"Nothing is more practical than finding God, that is, falling in love in a quite absolute, final way. What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you will do with your evenings, how you will spend your weekends, what you read, who you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything."

—Pedro Arrupe, SJ

On Sunday, November 9, we will have our annual MINISTRIES FAIR after the morning Masses. This is our chance to "fall in love" with one of the many different opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. More than 1,100 people volunteer in 40+ different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate what your generous support of the Cathedral parish makes possible and find out how you can become a part of it!
