PROFESSION OF FAITH chanted on one tone

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Do you know anyone who has a room, Mother-in-Law apartment, sublet, or Airbnb they would agree to temporarily rent to survivors of domestic violence and/or human trafficking? On Earth Day (Sunday, April 22), St Vincent de Paul will make it easy for you to follow that good advice. Bring your donations of gently used clothes, shoes, kitchen and other household goods, books, DVDs, CDs, sports equipment and other re-sellable items to the SVdP truck that will be in the O'Dea parking lot from 8am to 2:30pm. Your gifts will find new homes through our local SVdP clothing bank and thrift stores, and sale proceeds will benefit our neighbors in need. A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

"Disinterested concern for others, and the rejection of every form of self-centeredness and self-absorption, are essential if we truly wish to care for our brothers and sisters and for the natural environment. These attitudes also attune us to the moral imperative of assessing the impact of our every action and personal decision on the world around us." Laudato Si'

THE ART OF FAITH WORKSHOP FOR TEENS This year we have been commissioned to make processional banners for use in the Mass of the Feast of St James. To that end, we will experience how banners are used in various settings, be inspired by the Cathedral's banner collection and learn about liturgical colors and symbols. The workshop is from July 16 to July 20 from 9am to 4pm. In addition, teens are encouraged to attend the 10am or Noon Mass on July 22 in order to carry the banners they have created. As in years past, the cost is $100, which covers snacks and all materials. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-274-3108.

American Spiritual Voices: Nathaniel Hawthorne & Emily Dickinson

Mondays, April 23 and April 30 | 7:00pm-8:30pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

In this series, we'll read 19th century spiritual writings from this side of the Atlantic by Nathaniel Hawthorne (1804-1864) and Emily Dickinson (1830-1886). Corinna Laughlin (Cathedral liturgy director and PhD in English Literature) will offer a close look at the works, which will be read by Cathedral reader Scott Webster. All are welcome!

April 23 | Hawthorne's "Young Goodman Brown"

We'll read and explore Hawthorne's iconic tale "Young Goodman Brown," first published in 1846. This short story is a powerful meditation on faith, doubt, sin, and community.

April 30 | Dickinson: Death and Eternity

In her 1,775 poems, Emily Dickinson wrote famously of hummingbirds, flowers, seasons, and the world around her. She also wrote poems that plumb the depths of suffering, doubt and faith. We'll explore some of her poems on death and eternity in this introduction to one of the greatest imaginations of the 19th century.

Note: Inexpensive editions of works by Dickinson and Hawthorne are available in the Cathedral Bookstore if you would like to prepare in advance. But you need not have read the works ahead of time to participate in this series! Information, Corinna Laughlin, claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-264-2086.

There Really is a Difference

Are You Considering Cremation?

For Catholics cremation is simply an alternative method of preparing the remains of the human person for Christian burial. This decision and other important burial and placement decisions should be made with as much information as possible and with your family in mind.

Prepare NOW for them...

While You Are Healthy

This is a special decision you don't want to make when laid up in the hospital. You'll want to be in the comfort of your own home, with your loved ones, while you are in good health.

While You Are Living

You have no control of the decision-making process when you are no longer present to your family. You are only able to contribute to this special decision while you are alive and well.

While You Have Financing Options

If you leave this decision for someone else to make after you've died, then your family will have to pay for your burial costs immediately. Where will they get the money? Plan now, while you may select small monthly payments, interest-free, that fit your budget and protect your family.

While You Can Take Advantage of This Special Offer

We are currently offering a ten percent discount off any pre-need purchase of a niche, crypt, or grave at our Catholic Cemeteries.

Catholic Funeral Planning Guide

Yours for the Asking

For those who are considering cremation, this information is of particular importance.

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of Seattle have designed a "Catholic Funeral Planning Guide" free for the asking. Discover the tremendous support offered to your loved ones through the ministry of the Catholic Cemeteries, your parish community, and the Catholic Funeral Rites.

Throughout the ages and in every culture, people have relied on the comforting rituals of a funeral. If you've chosen cremation, your family will benefit enormously from the meaningful ceremonies designed to bring family and friends together. A funeral gives the community a chance to offer its support and to share the sorrow of the immediate family of the deceased.

As you will notice in our "Catholic Funeral Planning Guide", the Church's funeral rites are adaptable, providing for the needs of the mourners while recognizing the wishes of the dearly departed.

The Rite of Committal, celebrated at the cemetery, brings the community together for prayer as an expression of the communion that exists between the Church on earth and the Church in heaven.

Pre-Arrangement just makes sense. The Catholic Church's pre-arrangement service allows you to make the best choices for you and your family.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
