GLORIA

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Each week during this Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

- ♦ All of Paul's letters are about unity in one way or another. In today's reading from the letter to the Philippians, he pleads with them to "complete my joy" by being united in heart, love, mind, and thought. Why is unity so important in the Christian community? What does St. Paul see as the threats to unity?
- ♦ Paul says, "humbly regard others as more important than yourselves." Scripture scholar Vincent Smiles has said of this passage, "being humble has nothing to do with being a doormat. The humility Paul describes is self-sacrifice for others born out of unity in Christ." Have you known people who are truly humble—in Paul's sense of the word?

Sacred Steps

Please continue to pray for our catechumens and candidates.

THE SCHOLA CANTORUM (boys and girls ages 10-14) has several openings for new singers. A brief and simple audition is required to test pitch matching skills. Students participate in Cathedral Parish and Archepiscopal liturgies and concerts throughout the year. This is a great way for children to learn more about and participate more fully in the Mass. Weekly rehearsals are on Thursdays from 4:30-6:30. Information, musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or call 206-382-4874.

WOULD YOU CONSIDER BEING A RCIA SPONSOR?

We continue to have many new inquirers coming to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable—a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

SOLEMN MASS OF ALL SOULS WITH MOZART'S

REQUIEM Saturday, November 1, 2008, at 7:30 pm. # ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 28, 2008

Dear Friends,

It is always a privilege to be able to welcome new members into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. This weekend's group is a small one but no less significant for that. At the Sunday evening Mass, Jenohn Thogerson and Adrienne Krieger will make their Profession of Faith with all of you and then receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. Please join me in praying for them and in welcoming them to the Church and to our parish.

We are well aware that our St. James Cathedral Lecture with Sister Helen Prejean, scheduled for this coming Thursday evening at 7:30pm, is on the same night as the Vice-Presidential Debate. As I mentioned a couple of weeks ago, we chose the date long before the political parties settled on the same one. But we've come up with a good plan to resolve the conflict. The debate begins at 6:00pm and we will be able to watch it together in the Pastoral Outreach Center, Community Room. Feel free to bring a brown bag lunch if you like. In some ways, that should be more interesting than watching it home alone! Following the debate, Sister Helen will present her lecture in Cathedral Hall.

After nearly 30 weddings since the first of June, and many more funerals than we usually have during the summer months, I'm ready for some vacation! Among other things, I'm looking forward to spending some days with good friends in Italy and to baptizing their new daughter. I'll be remembering you in prayer from afar and will look forward to seeing you in a couple of weeks.

Father Michael G. Ryan

Reach out to Those Suffering from Illness or Addiction

Isolated and alone - Who will listen?

Overcoming illness and addiction is about more than an excellent doctor. Multifaith Works unites compassionate volunteers with people who are isolated and alone to help them through difficult times. Currently, over 450 Multifaith Works volunteers (including 6 from St. James) provide nonjudgmental listening and practical assistance to people living with HIV/AIDS or MS, inmates in local prisons and jails, people in recovery from chemical addiction, and family members grieving the loss of a loved one.

Through the CareTeam program, volunteers work in groups of 4-7 individuals to assist with transportation, plan gatherings, and build a safety net of trust and care. By building these relationships, volunteers offer connection and inclusion to people who are otherwise cut off from community. Trainings happen only three times a year and the next one is fast approaching. The CareTeam training will be taking place on Saturday, October 4 from 8:45am-4:45pm here at St. James in Cathedral Hall.

DIES CHRISTI: DAY OF CHRIST

2 in a series of 4

September 28, 2008

Recently, Father Ryan sent a letter to all parishioners about the importance of participating in the Eucharist, Sunday after Sunday. A special series of inserts in the bulletin helps us to rediscover what Sunday means in our Catholic lives. The first insert explored Sunday, the Day of the Lord. This week, we focus on Sunday, the Day of Christ.

A SACRAMENT OF EASTER

For Christians, Sunday – the first day of the week – transcends the ancient sabbath, the seventh day. That is because Sunday is the day on which Jesus rose from the dead.

“We celebrate Sunday because of the venerable Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we do so not only at Easter but also at each turning of the week,” wrote Pope Innocent I in the early fifth century. Pope John Paul II echoed those words in his apostolic letter on Sunday, Dies Domini: “It is Easter which returns week by week, celebrating Christ’s victory over sin and death, the fulfillment in him of the first creation and the dawn of the new creation.”

Sunday is the original feast day. Even before Easter was celebrated annually, it was celebrated weekly, as believers gathered Sunday after Sunday to recall the resurrection of the Lord and to receive the body and blood of the risen Christ in the Eucharist. It was at such a gathering that the Holy Spirit came upon the disciples on Pentecost (see Acts 2:1-11), breathing divine life into the Christian community like wind and fire. Sunday, St. Augustine wrote, is “a sacrament of Easter,” because Sunday is not just a remembrance of the Lord’s resurrection; Sunday makes the resurrection of the Lord present for us.

We are sharers in the resurrection of Jesus by our baptism, and the Sunday liturgy is full of reminders of our baptism. We say the Creed – a renewal of the profession of faith we made at baptism. Sometimes we are even sprinkled with baptismal water, to make that connection still more powerful. And it is for this reason that the sacrament of baptism is celebrated in the context of Sunday Mass.

The earliest Christians could not have found it easy to gather on Sunday, and not just because of the persecution they encountered. Sunday was the first day of the week, after all, and therefore a working day at least until the fourth century (the concept of the “weekend” is quite recent). Keeping Sunday can be challenging for contemporary Christians as well, especially in our culture where more and more people must work on Sunday. But, writes Pope John Paul II,

My Sunday, my peace, my always of light!
Olivier Messiaen

“even in our own difficult times, the identity of this day must be protected and above all must be lived in all its depth.... Sunday remains... an indispensable element of our Christian identity” (Dies Domini 30).

AN ORDINARY SUNDAY MASS

Each Sunday as we gather for Mass, there are many who wish to be present but cannot because of illness. They understand better than anyone the meaning of Sunday morning! Our parishioner Nancy Flohr, who died in May, 2008, wrote last summer about the experience of coming back to St. James after a long absence due to illness.

Our family has celebrated many momentous events at the Cathedral, from weddings, to baptisms, to funerals, but the moment that most evokes the spirit of the Cathedral for me was an ordinary Sunday Mass last summer. Because of illness, I was unable to attend Mass from mid-June until about mid-August. The Cathedral kept in touch with me, but I couldn't participate. The day I was able to rejoin the celebration was a nice summer day, but the minute the congregation began to sing the entrance hymn, it became glorious. It seemed as if the whole community was welcoming me back (it wasn't even our “regular” Mass), and it was difficult to hold back tears of joy and relief. It struck me forcefully that day just what it means to belong to the community of faith we call St. James Cathedral.—Nancy Flohr, July 2007
