

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 26, 2010

Dear Friends,

I'm happy to be able to report to you that the 14th annual Archbishop Hunthausen Golf Tournament at Inglewood Country Club was a great success. More than 110 golfers participated this year and had a terrific time. The weather could have cooperated a bit more but this is Seattle, after all! The dinner after the tournament – which has become a wonderful social event for a lot of parishioners – drew more than 180 people. Heartfelt thanks to Maria Laughlin and Jeff Meder who worked so hard to make it a great event. The funds raised that day will help support the Cathedral Kitchen which, as you must know, is in greater demand than ever during these days of slow economic recovery.

It is a pleasure to be able to welcome Suzanne Lee to our Cathedral staff. Suzanne joined us late in August and is working closely with Patty Bowman in our social outreach ministries. She and her husband Brian Lynch have been parishioners here for several years and, while relatively new to ministry here at the Cathedral, she is anything but new to church ministry. For four years Suzanne served as a pastoral minister at Our Lady of Fatima parish in Magnolia and, before that, she served on the staff of Catholic Community Services as Director of Advocacy. When you have had an opportunity to meet her and work with her you will know why I am delighted that she has joined our ministerial team. Welcome, Suzanne!

The other day, Patty Bowman and I received a very nice letter from some 15 people of the SHARE Safe Haven Shelter who have been using the Cathedral Hall for overnight shelter all summer long. Since you are really the ones who have offered hospitality to them, I thought I would quote their letter in part: "The first and most important thing that we, the residents of the Safe Haven Shelter can say is Thank You. We greatly appreciate the time that we stayed in the Cathedral Hall. If not for your kindness, we would have had to sleep outside. Not only did we feel safe and secure, but you made us feel welcome in a very large way with just your acceptance of us in the first place. From leaving us doughnuts, to learning our names, the people at St. James made us feel welcome. We are grateful."

Lastly, in case you notice that I'm not here the next couple of Sundays it's only because it's time for some vacation. I'll be traveling in France with my sisters and brother-in-law, celebrating my sister Judy's 50th jubilee as a Sister of the Holy Names. Should be fun. Au revoir!

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

NEW ON THE WEBSITE Visit www.stjames-cathedral.org to read Father Ryan's homily of last Sunday online. You can also view an album of the Mass on Thursday, September 16, welcoming our new Archbishop-Elect, J. Peter Sartain. Read a short biography of Archbishop Sartain, and link to a video greeting from our new Archbishop. Also: view an album of Monday's Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament!

CATHEDRAL "VISION" SURVEY This past week we sent out a short "20 Questions" survey to 1,000 parish households. If you received one, please do consider taking just a few moments to fill it out and return it. Your input is important! The results of the survey will help our Pastoral Vision Council to create a new vision statement for the parish.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is up and running! Your friendly Cathedral baristas will be serving espresso drinks after the 10:00 Mass. During the month of October, all proceeds will benefit the Children's Religious Education Program. If you are interested in becoming a Cathedral barista, please call Sean and Katherine Berry at 206-571-6868. Training is provided!

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION (CFF) sessions begin this Sunday, September 26, 11:00–11:50, and will continue every Sunday thereafter. We welcome families to this new CFF school year! Our CFF theme this year is Jesus in our hearts; our hearts with Jesus! We request parents to bring their children a few minutes before 11:00 to help your children find their classrooms. Please come with your children into Cathedral Place, 2nd floor, corner of Terry and Columbia. (Children may not be dropped off on the street.) Staff will accompany 5th to 12th grade youth to their classrooms.

THE YOUTH MUSIC PROGRAM is now registering students for the fall semester. Students in grade 1-4 may participate at any time, without audition, in one of our two training choirs which rehearse from 4:30-6:00 pm every Thursday. Exceptionally talented young singers may audition for the advanced Schola Cantorum which rehearses Thursdays from 4:30-6:30. Scholarships are available. Information 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Michael in Olympia and Snohomish, St. Gabriel in Port Orchard, St. Jerome in Ocean Shores, St. Therese in Seattle, and St. Theresa in Federal Way.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. It is not too late to join our new inquiry session on Wednesday evenings. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

STOP BY THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE after Mass today for a wide selection of spiritual reading, as well as our own Cathedral items—terrific CDs from our music program, postcards, note cards, and more!

THE ARCHBISHOP THOMAS J. MURPHY MILLENNIUM ORGAN turns ten! St. James Cathedral celebrates the 10th anniversary of the Rosales east apse pipe organ with a year-long series of programs featuring our two Cathedral organists and special guests. The first program on October 15, at 8:00 pm, features Thomas Joyce, newly-appointed Assistant Organist at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco. Dr. Joyce was assistant organist at St. Mark's Cathedral in Seattle for the past seven years. His program will feature works for cello and organ, organ duet, and the premiere of his Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis with Seattle Pro Musica, a Cathedral Resident Ensemble. Suggested donation is $15, students and seniors pay as able. Information 206-382-4874 or www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

DO YOU HAVE A CHILD WHO FITS INTO THE FOLLOWING... At least 7 years old seeking Baptism in the Catholic Church? At least 7 years old baptized in another Christian tradition seeking full communion in the Catholic Church? At least 9 years old, baptized Catholic and needs to prepare for First Holy Communion? Inquiry classes for RCIA Adapted for Older Children are starting on October 3. Please call for information about attending these classes designed to teach children about our Catholic faith. For Registration and information TerryAnn Bowen tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

"There can be no compromise with the standard Jesus set and continually calls us to: the measure of love is to love without measure."
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

October is Respect Life Month. Each year, the Church asks us to pray for a greater respect for human life, from conception to natural death, during the month of October. We begin our observance on Friday, October 1, with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the 8:15am Mass and a Holy Hour for Life at 12:00 Noon. Each Thursday during the month of October, we'll pray a special Rosary for Life following the 5:30pm evening Mass. All are welcome!

For more information on the Church's teaching on the "seamless garment" of life issues, visit www.stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHEDRAL BLOOD DRIVE, sponsored by our Health and Healing Ministry, will be held at the Pastoral Outreach Center, on Wednesday, October 6, from 12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00-3:45pm). Please consider signing up to donate blood TODAY at Coffee Hour after the morning Masses. You could save a life! Information, John Simpson, 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS AT THE ALTAR Floral offerings are a venerable custom in the Church, and a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for an answered prayer. Information Peggy Behnken, 206-654-4650, pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org.

NEED PASTORAL CARE? The Cathedral provides a variety of such ministries. Whether you are sick or homebound and in need of communion, whether you would like a CD of Sunday's Mass, or if you need the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, we can help! Information John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZÉ Each Friday at 6:30 pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week.

ARCHBISHOP HUNTHAUSEN LIBRARY Visit your friendly and accessible Archbishop Hunthausen Library in Cathedral Hall during the Sunday coffee hours. We have a good selection of old favorites and recent releases.

Praying at Home

October 2010

October is Respect Life Month. During this month, the Church throughout the world prays for a greater respect for human life, from conception to natural death. Mary is the Mother of Jesus, the very source of life. October is especially dedicated to Mary as Our Lady of the Rosary. It's the perfect time to learn—or relearn—the rosary.

Prayer for Life

Pope John Paul II's encyclical Evangelium Vitae concludes with this amazing prayer to Mary, Mother of the living.

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life
Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Blessed John Henry Newman

On Sunday, September 19, Pope Benedict XVI beatified the great 19th-century convert to Catholicism. This is an act of faith that Newman often prayed.

O my Lord Jesus,
low as I am in Your all-holy sight,
I am strong in You,
strong through Your Immaculate Mother,
through Your saints
and thus I can do much for the Church, for the world, for all I love.

Aspirations for October

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us!
O Mary, Virgin Mother of God, pray to Jesus for me.
O Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus, make us saints.

Praying the Rosary

The rosary has been called a “compendium of the Gospel” (Pope John Paul II). It is one of the most beloved prayers of the Church. Praying the Rosary is simple. It is really a practice of meditation on “mysteries,” key moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary in the Gospels.

Introductory Prayers. Start with the Sign of the Cross. Recite the Creed. Then, on the first four beads of the rosary, recite the Our Father, Three Hail Marys, and the Glory be to the Father.

Announce the Mystery. Take a moment to reflect on the mystery you are praying, letting the scene come to life in your imagination. When you are ready, begin the prayers of the decade: one Our Father, ten Hail Marys, and concluding with a Glory be to the Father. Five mysteries make a complete rosary. If you don't have time to do all five, you might space them out through the day, whenever you can catch a few minutes for prayer. It's traditional to pray different mysteries each day of the week: the Glorious Mysteries on Sundays and Wednesdays, the Joyful Mysteries on Mondays and Saturdays, the Sorrowful Mysteries on Tuesdays and Fridays, and the Luminous Mysteries on Thursdays.

Concluding Prayers of the Rosary. It's traditional to conclude the rosary with the “Hail, Holy Queen,” and the following prayer attributed to Leo XIII:

O God, whose only begotten Son,
by his life, death, and Resurrection,
has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life,
grant, we beseech you,
that, meditating upon these mysteries of the most holy rosary
of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise.
Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy Father's Intentions for October

GENERAL INTENTION: That Catholic Universities may be places where it is possible to experience the harmonious unity that exists between faith and reason in the light of the Gospel.

MISSION INTENTION: That World Mission Day may be an occasion for understanding that the task of proclaiming Christ is an essential service to which the Church is called for the benefit of humanity.

Foundations of our Catholic Faith

An Adult Faith Formation Program

What does the Catholic Church believe and what difference does it make in my life?

Sunday afternoons, 1:30-5:30 pm

October 10, October 17, October 24, January 23, January 30, March 13, and March 20
at St. Peter's Parish Hall, Beacon Hill

Using the Bible, The Catechism of the Catholic Church, and Church documents, this adult enrichment program will explore the Catholic interpretation of scripture, key theological concepts, and the history of the Church. This is a wonderful opportunity for an in-depth look at Catholic teaching and its implications for our everyday lives.

YEAR 3 CLASSES ♦ Continuing the Faith Journey ♦ Prayer/Mary and the Saints ♦ Catholic Social Teaching ♦ Letters of Paul ♦ Trinity ♦ History of the Church in the USA ♦ Creed

This three-year course is sponsored by the Office of Catholic Faith Formation of the Archdiocese of Seattle. Registration is required and the cost is $5 per person/class for parishioners in the South Seattle Deanery.
