

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 14, 2016

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

August 14, 2016

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the image of Our Lady in the Cathedral Courtyard.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Last week, we had visitors from Montreal; Hanover, PA; Mesa, AZ; and Kerry, NC. The winner of our drawing was from Marietta, GA. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

SEDES SAPIENTIAE, SEAT OF WISDOM

At the center of the Archbishop Murphy Courtyard on the south side of the Cathedral is the statue of Sedes Sapientiae – Mary, Seat of Wisdom. Mary has many titles – here, she is called “seat” or “throne” of wisdom because she holds Jesus, the Word made flesh, in her arms. For many years, this beloved image of Mary and her Son stood on the grounds of the Archdiocesan Seminary, St. Edward's in Kenmore, on the shores of Lake Washington. Every May, the seminarians would gather in front of this statue at the end of the day to sing a hymn in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To the intercession of Mary, cradling God's own divine Wisdom, they entrusted the hopes and struggles of their day.

After St. Edward's Seminary closed in 1977, the statue was brought to St. James Cathedral. In 2006, the creation of the Archbishop Thomas J. Murphy Courtyard provided a beautiful setting for the well-loved image. Water flows from a hand-hewn source stone on the south side of the Cathedral, and gathers in a pool at Mary's feet. In the evening, the statue is gently illuminated, a reminder that Christ is the light of the world and the living water who alone can quench our thirst.

maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

Since 1997, the Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars to support the neediest of our community. This year the event will be held at the Glendale Country Club in Bellevue.

T. S. Eliot's

Four Quartets

Exploring a modern spiritual classic

Tuesdays, September 6, 13, 20, & 27, 2016 | 7:00pm-8:30pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.
--T. S. Eliot, Four Quartets

T. S. Eliot is one of the great poets of the 20th century – the author of The Waste Land and Murder in the Cathedral, as well as Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats, which was later transformed into the musical Cats. Eliot himself considered Four Quartets (1943) to be his finest work. The four great poems that make up Four Quartets are the culminating expression of Eliot's profoundly Christian spiritual vision. This four-week series will be led by Corinna Laughlin (Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and PhD in English Literature). Cathedral reader Scott Webster will read each of the poems. All are welcome! It is recommended, but not required, that participants read the designated poem in advance of each session.

September 6 – “Burnt Norton”
September 20 – “The Dry Salvages”

September 13 – “East Coker”
September 27 – “Little Gidding”

Information, Corinna Laughlin, claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-264-2086

With all the choirs of angels

Be a part of the musical life of St. James!

The Cathedral's choirs are holding auditions during the month of August for membership in ensembles during the 2016-2017 season.

THE SCHOLA CANTORUM of St. James Cathedral's Youth Music Program is accepting young singers grades 3-8 from all over the region. It is a fun and exciting opportunity for boys and girls to learn to sing a wide variety of high level repertoire with emphasis placed on teaching outstanding age appropriate vocal technique and excellent musicianship skills (and having fun!). The choir rehearses on Thursdays from 4:45-6:45 pm and sings the 1st Sunday of the month at the 12:00 First Youth Sunday Celebration Mass. A brief (and painless!) interview is needed to determine readiness for this choir. Please contact the Youth Music Director, Ms. Stacey Sunde, at 206-941-9450 or ssunde@stjames-cathedral.org for more information.

JUBILATE! is the St. James Youth Music Program's advanced ensemble for young women ages 13-18. These amazing singers come from all over the region on Mondays from 4:30-6:30 to rehearse some of the Church's finest repertoire at an elite level. They sing the 3rd Sunday of the month at the 12:00 Mass, and also are highlighted at several of the Cathedral's prominent liturgies and special events throughout the year. This year, the choir plans to tour and share their stunningly beautiful music both in our region and beyond. The girls receive on-site private vocal training and further their development of music skills and music reading in the context of their rehearsals. Please contact the Youth Music Director, Ms. Stacey Sunde, at 206-941-9450 or ssunde@stjames-cathedral.org for more information.
