

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

February 7, 2010

Dear Friends,

Two weeks ago I shared with you that you spontaneously contributed some $30,000 on the Sunday following the devastating earthquake in Haiti. Today, I'm happy to be able to tell you that the amount has now risen to $44,000! What a testimonial that is to your amazing generosity and care for those in need. I've checked and there's not another parish in the archdiocese that has even come close to this. In fact, the next highest amount raised in a parish was $17,000. And I should add that our monthly St. Vincent de Paul collection was only a little shy of its usual total. That, too, says a lot about you!

Great Music for Great Cathedrals is on the Cathedral's menu this week. If you have never seen this production (or even if you've seen it often), I hope you'll decide to take it in this year because rumor has it that this will be its last run. This Thursday is "parish night" at Great Music. All you need to do is come. If you'd like to make a donation, fine, but none is expected. Only you are expected...!

Lent, of course, is just around the corner. Next Sunday's bulletin will have extensive material about this holy season and the many liturgies, prayers, educational and service opportunities that the parish will be offering. Stay tuned.

Father Michael G. Ryan

To learn more visit the cathedral website at http://www.stjames-cathedral.org/esl/immigration_issues.html. Information, Christopher Koehler at 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org

WHAT Join us on Tuesday, March 23 for a discussion of What is the What by Dave Eggers. Valentino Achak Deng, real-life hero of this engrossing epic, was a refugee from the Sudanese civil war. Separated from his family when Arab militia destroy his village, Valentino joins thousands of other "Lost Boys" on their march to squalid refugee camps in Ethiopia and Kenya. He eventually reaches America, but finds his quest for safety, community and fulfillment in many ways even more difficult. Eggers gives Valentino an unaffected, compelling voice and makes his narrative by turns harrowing, funny, bleak and lyrical. Available in the Cathedral Bookstore. Information, Chris Koehler 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org
