ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

April 24, 2016

Dear Friends,

I long ago became convinced that there are no blessings in life that are not mixed. Even the most wonderful blessings invariably involve a shadow or a sadness. The blessing I am speaking about here is a new staff member who is joining us this month. His name is Patrick Barredo and, come summer, he will be taking over Patty Bowman's responsibilities in social outreach and advocacy. Patrick is definitely a blessing, but losing Patty creates, without doubt, a serious shadow and a sadness for all of us.

During her 16 years with us, Patty Bowman has put Catholic social teaching at the very heart of our mission here at St. James Cathedral. With more volunteers than I could ever count, she has tirelessly worked to build up our many outreach ministries to the poor and needy while at the same time building programs and committees to advocate on behalf of the poor and to work for a more just social order. Patty took what I can only call a fledgling effort in the areas of social outreach and advocacy and created something we can all be proud of and something that Seattle's church and civic community are well aware of.

Patty has decided that it is time for her to take a break (a well-deserved one!) before deciding what's next for her. I fully support her decision although it's not easy to think of going on without her. I know that any of you who have been privileged to get to know her and to work with her over the years will feel the same. Happily, she will continue to be a member of the parish so there's no need to say good-bye - only a very big and heartfelt 'thank you.' And we will find an appropriate way to do that before Patty steps down at the end of June.

As she prepares to leave, I feel very blessed indeed to welcome to the Cathedral pastoral team, Patrick Barredo, who has served in a similar position for nearly 15 years at Holy Rosary Parish in West Seattle. Patrick is excited about ministering at St. James and I'm quite sure you will share that excitement when you have the opportunity to meet him and work with him. Without relating his entire history, I would just mention that he is married to Christina and is the proud father of Joseph, Alex, and Ella. Patrick did both his undergraduate and graduate studies at Notre Dame University which, I'm sure you will agree, gives him an impeccable Catholic pedigree! He has deep, strong and proven commitments to serving the poor and to advocating on their behalf.

More to follow. For the present, I would simply ask you to join me in praying for Patty Bowman as she prepares to transition out of her position, and to join me in welcoming Patrick Barredo as he joins the St. James Cathedral team.

Father Ryan

Annual CATHOLIC Appeal

Once again, it's time for the Annual Catholic Appeal. This important Appeal gives us the opportunity to support the work of the wider church in Western Washington—the work of Catholic Community Services, the education of seminarians, support of retired priests and women religious, the work of Catholic Community Services and our network of Catholic Schools, and so much more.

And there's an added reason to be generous. Every dollar that comes in over and above the $352,297 goal set for us by the Archbishop will come back to the parish in the form of a rebate. And we need the rebate! This year, the rebate will help support our ministries for young people—Youth Ministry, Youth Music, and Children's Faith Formation.

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

A communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place at St. James Cathedral on Saturday, April 30, 2016, at a special 10:30am Mass. Father Ryan will preside. All are welcome to attend the Mass.

What is the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church. Like the sacrament of reconciliation (confession), it is a sacrament of healing. Our understanding of this sacrament has changed with time. In the early Church it was seen as a sacrament of healing, but later it came to be known as “Extreme Unction” – literally, “last anointing” – and was not administered until death was imminent. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has returned to the more ancient practice with regard to this sacrament.

Who can receive this sacrament?

Catholics, both children and adults, who are seriously ill, facing surgery, or experiencing the weakness that comes with old age should seek this sacrament. Those with serious, chronic mental or physical illness may also receive the anointing of the sick.

What happens during the Rite of Anointing?

The Rite of Anointing will be celebrated in the context of a special Mass on Saturday, April 30, at 10:30am.

After the homily, the Liturgy of Anointing begins. The priest leads a litany in which all pray for the healing and forgiveness of the sick person, as well as for doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Then, in silence, the priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person, an ancient gesture of prayer that is used in connection with many of the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Orders.

After the laying on of hands, each sick person is anointed with the Oil of the Sick (pure olive oil, blessed each year by the Archbishop at the Chrism Mass). The sick person is anointed on the forehead and then on the hands, and simple words accompany the anointing: “Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up.” A concluding prayer follows, and if the sacrament takes place in the context of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues as usual.
