The Challenge of Peace

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH | No. 3 of 5

October 11, 2009

October is Respect Life Month! Each week during the month of October, a page in the bulletin will explore different aspects of Church teaching on the full spectrum of life issues: abortion, war, the death penalty, and euthanasia. This week, we look at the Church's teaching on peace.

In keeping with our consistent ethic of life, the Church sees war as a grave violation of the dignity of the human person. Peace, wrote Blessed John XXIII, is a gift from God, to be sought, treasured, and safeguarded. While the Church does acknowledge that there are times when a use of force may be justified to correct a manifest injustice, these "just-war conditions" are quite limited (see the Catechism, 2309). "The best way to avoid war is to safeguard peace by letting go of the anger and hatred that breed war and by eliminating the poverty, injustice, and deprivation of human rights that lead to war" (The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, p. 395).

What does the Church say about peace?

Peace is not just the absence of war. It involves mutual respect and confidence between peoples and nations. It involves collaboration and binding agreements. Like a cathedral, peace has to be constructed, patiently and with unshakeable faith.

Wherever the strong exploit the weak; wherever the rich take advantage of the poor; wherever great powers seek to dominate and to impose ideologies, there the work of making peace is undone; there the cathedral of peace is again destroyed. Today, the scale and the horror of modern warfare—whether nuclear or not—makes it totally unacceptable as a means of settling differences between nations. War should belong to the tragic past, to history; it should find no place on humanity's agenda for the future.

Pope John Paul II at Coventry, England, May 30, 1982

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!
Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen, 1994

Peace is a life issue

No society can live in peace with itself, or with the world, without a full awareness of the worth and dignity of every human person, and of the sacredness of all human life (Jas. 4:1-2). When we accept violence in any form as commonplace, our sensitivities become dulled. When we accept violence, war itself can be taken for granted. Violence has many faces: oppression of the poor, deprivation of basic human rights, economic exploitation, sexual exploitation and pornography, neglect or abuse of the aged and the helpless, and innumerable other acts of inhumanity. Abortion in particular blunts a sense of the sacredness of human life. In a society where the innocent unborn are killed wantonly, how can we expect people to feel righteous revulsion at the act or threat of killing noncombatants in war?

The United States Bishops, The Challenge of Peace, 1982

Archbishop Hunthausen on peace

Nonviolence requires at least as much of our lives as war does. The truth is found in Jesus' nonviolent teaching of the cross: to lay down our lives out of love, not while taking the lives of others but by revering them more deeply... I am challenged increasingly by the nonviolent truth of the cross, by the calling of the God of Love to lose our lives for peace. What further steps that will mean in my life, I hope to leave to God's will, as that will is revealed in response to prayer.

Archbishop Raymond G. Hunthausen, October 24, 1981

A prayer for peace

Don't stop after beating the swords
Into ploughshares, don't stop! Go on beating
And make musical instruments out of them.
Whoever wants to make war again
Will have to turn them into ploughshares first.

Wills & Estate Planning Seminar

St. James Cathedral, Pastoral Outreach Center

Thursday, November 5, 2009 at 2:00pm & 7:00pm

Did you know that an estimated 60% of adult Americans do not have a valid will? Many think that only wealthy people need an estate plan. But this simply isn't true! Even those with no dependents need an estate plan if they have any property at all and want to decide who receives it. A will can cut delays and probate costs, waive expenses, and help reduce taxes.

The Cathedral parish will provide a free seminar on Wills and Estate Planning on Thursday, November 5 from 2:00pm until 4:00pm, and again from 7:00pm until 9:00pm. JoAnne Strom, Archdiocesan Director of Planned Giving, and Celeste McDonell, Cathedral parishioner and estate planning attorney, will offer their broad knowledge and expertise. You'll have a chance to ask questions and get good advice on what to do next. The whole session is short, simple, and to the point!

All are welcome. This session will benefit people of all ages and is offered with no strings attached. Please sign up by detaching the form below and dropping it in the offering basket or returning it to the parish office. For more information, contact Maria Laughlin, Director of Stewardship and Development, 206-382-4284.

This is a FREE, no-strings-attached presentation which includes

- An attorney, available to answer your questions
- Assurance that "putting your affairs in order" is easier than you think!
- Information on distributing your estate
- Methods of increasing your retirement income
- Information on how to prepare your will
- Information on guardianship issues
- Estate gifting techniques and information on tax advantages
