CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Praise

Dyson

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The heavens are not too high, God's praise may thither fly;
the earth is not too low, God's praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The church with psalms must shout: no door can keep them out.
But, more than all, the heart must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

A Consistent Ethic of Life

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

No. 1 of 5

October is Respect Life Month. Each week this month, we have been exploring various aspects of Church teaching on a range of life issues: abortion, war and violence, human trafficking, and end of life ethics. Each of these issues is linked by a common theme: respect for the life and dignity of the human person. We end this series with a look at the interconnection of these issues in the Church's teaching on the consistent ethic of life.

What does the Church say about the consistent ethic of life?

Whatever is opposed to life itself, such as any type of murder, genocide, abortion, euthanasia or willful self-destruction, whatever violates the integrity of the human person, such as mutilation, tortures inflicted on body or mind, attempts to coerce the will itself; whatever insults human dignity, such as subhuman living conditions, arbitrary imprisonment, deportation, slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children; as well as disgraceful working conditions, where men are treated as mere tools for profit, rather than as free and responsible persons; all these things and others of their like are infamies indeed. They poison human society, but they do more harm to those who practice them than those who suffer from the injury. Moreover, they are supreme dishonor to the Creator.

Gaudium et Spes 27 | The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World of the Second Vatican Council

Reflection

The pro-life position of the Church must be developed in terms of a comprehensive and consistent ethic of life.... rooted in a religious vision. But the citizenry of the United States is radically pluralistic in moral and religious conviction. So we face the challenge of stating our case, which is shaped in terms of our faith and our religious convictions, in non-religious terms which others of different faith convictions might find morally persuasive... We should... clearly articulate our religious convictions but also maintain our civil courtesy. We should be vigorous in stating a case and attentive in hearing another's case; we should test everyone's logic but not his or her motives.

Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, A Consistent Ethic of Life: An American Catholic Dialogue, 1983

MARY, MOTHER OF THE LIVING, PRAY FOR US!

The Seattle Madonna, Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen, 1994

For Further Thought:

All life has inestimable value, even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

Welcome Back

A CATHEDRAL PROGRAM FOR NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

*Come back to the Lord with all your heart!
God is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in faithful love. Joel 2*

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers “Welcome Back,” a nine-week parish program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It’s a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we’ll help you return to the sacraments, and to becoming an active part of the faith community.

The fall program begins Monday, September 25, 2017, and continues Mondays through November. Sessions are held 7:00–9:00pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.

For more information, without any obligation, contact Rosanne Michaels at 206-654-4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

Grief Support Group

Wednesday evenings, October 4 - November 8, 2017
7:00pm-8:30pm, Holy Names Room,
Pastoral Outreach Center

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels

Pope Francis Launches a Global Campaign in Support of Migrants and Refugees

Pope Francis is being joined by bishops across the U.S. and around the world in launching a global campaign to support our brothers and sisters who have fled their homes seeking a decent and safe life for their families. Participating organizations include the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Charities USA, and the Church's global charitable network, Caritas Internationalis. Through prayers and acts of compassion and support, we will shape conversations and actions to answer the Gospel call to love our neighbors.

Pope Francis invites us all to use social media to share the journey of millions of migrant and refugee families -- and to see them as God's children who are seeking safety and a decent life. We invite you to Love Your Neighbor by joining this historic global movement to show support for migrants and refugees. Social media is an easy, effective way to share the journey you are taking with migrants and refugees. And inspire others to do the same. Here's how.

Simply post a photo of yourself and/or your family and friends Facebook, Twitter or Instagram, reaching out to migrants and refugees (see example to the right) with the hashtag #ShareJourney. Change your Facebook profile picture to show your support for migrants and refugees.

One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism

Solemn Vespers
on the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation

Sunday, October 29, 2017
3:00pm

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther placed 95 theses or propositions questioning the Church's use of indulgences on the door of a church in Wittenberg, Germany. That act is considered the "flash point" for the Protestant Reformation. The 500th anniversary observance is an opportunity for Christians of many denominations to pray for each other; to heal old wounds; and to continue along the path of encounter and dialogue.

During this commemoration, ARCHBISHOP J. PETER SARTAIN, Archbishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle, will be joined by BISHOP KIRBY UNTI, leader of the Northwest Washington Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

St. James Cathedral is located at 9th & Marion on First Hill, downtown Seattle.

All are welcome.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
