WELCOME SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is delighted to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today.

FLOWERS in the Cathedral are from the Saturday wedding of Connie Le and Larry Gallwas.

SUMMER CHOIR Make a joyful noise with other parishioners young and old at the 12:00 Noon Sunday Mass. This is a great way to meet others, to support our community and to participate in a very active way in the Cathedral's liturgies. Rehearsals in Cathedral Place, up the stairs on Terry Avenue, Sundays 11:15 am. Information, 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org

SOUND SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS You may have noticed some changes in the sound system in the last couple of weeks. We are in the process of a major re-tuning and re-equalizing of the sound system in the Cathedral. As many of you know, it is an amazing complex system for the very complex and challenging acoustics of this wonderful building. As this work involves a bit of "trial and error" with the building full and under actual Mass conditions, please bear with us if there are some glitches along the way. We are confident that the end result will be worth the inconvenience required to get our system to operate at its full potential.

IN YOUR MIDST Our parish journal is being mailed this week to all registered parishioners. This issue focuses on the "Journey of Faith," with meditations by Cathedral parishioners. Other features include a recap of Jean Vanier's June visit, the recent "Youth Migrant Project" in Lynden, and an album of our Parish Picnic and celebration of St. James. You can also read the new issue online at www.stjames-cathedral.org. If you would like additional copies to share with friends, contact Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or e-mail mllaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

SUMMER GUITAR CONCERT Cathedral Guitarist Mark Hilliard-Wilson presents the annual summer classical guitar concert in the intimate acoustics of the Cathedral Chapel. Friday, August 22, 7:45 pm. Suggested donation $15, students and seniors pay as able. Information, 206-382-4874.

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Elena Rojas.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Queen of Heaven, Tacoma, Queen of Angels, Port Angeles; and Mary, Queen of Peace, Sammamish.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

CATHEDRAL CHOIR AUDITIONS We have openings for Soprano I and Bass II singers with excellent sight-reading skills. Sopranos should be able to sing with a clear, straight tone. Information, Stacey Sunde 206-941-9450, ssunde@stjames-cathedral.org

HELP CREATE A COMMUNITY OF COMPASSION Are you interested in joining other St. James parishioners to provide companionship and assistance to a person living with HIV/AIDS? To get involved, join Multifaith Works (115 16th Ave, Seattle) for a one hour volunteer orientation on Wednesday, August 13, 6:30-7:30 pm or Saturday, September 6, 1:30-2:30 pm. Then, on Saturday October 4, plan on attending the volunteer training day that will be held here at St. James from 8:45-4:45 pm in Cathedral Hall. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE DEVIL'S HIGHWAY The August book club selection is by award-winning author Luis Alberto Urrea. It is a powerful and moving account of 26 Mexicans who braved crossing the desert in southern Arizona, seeking a better life. Join us for a discussion on Tuesday, August 26 at 7:00 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. This tragic and graphic story, full of courage and betrayal, is not for the squeamish. Available now in the Cathedral Bookstore. Information, Christopher J. Koehler 206-382-4511 or cjoehler@stjames-cathedral.org

WOULD YOU CONSIDER BEING A RCIA SPONSOR? We continue to have many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable-a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

CABRINI MINISTRY TRAINING PROGRAM Cabrini Ministry Training invites you to consider its program of lay ministry training and outreach. This is a unique opportunity to learn pastoral care skills and enjoy continued support in a faith-filled community while providing lay ministry in or near your parish. If you feel that God is calling you to a new ministry and you want to explore that call, please direct any inquiries to Tom Curran at 206-760-0583 Ext 4 or tomcurran@cabriniministry.org. THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Each week during the coming Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

- ◆ In today's second reading St. Paul says, "the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable" (Romans 11: 29). What do you feel are your gifts? What is your calling? Has your understanding of your gifts and your vocation changed over time?
- ◆ Scripture scholar Nicholas King of South Africa writes of this passage: "God gives his gift out of love for us, not out of admiration for our achievements. It follows that any complacent smirking on our part is a huge misunderstanding, not to say perversion, of God's offer of salvation. We are all on the same footing. Do you find yourself thinking 'I'm better than those others'? Do you think that Paul would allow that?"

Illuminating the Word: The Saint John's Bible

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 2008 AT 11:00AM
TACOMA ART MUSEUM

You are invited to a guided tour of a stunning exhibit of the Saint John's Bible at the Tacoma Art Museum, 1701 Pacific Avenue, Tacoma.

Illuminating the Word: The Saint John's Bible presents the only handwritten and illuminated Bible commissioned since the advent of the printing press more than 500 years ago. The Saint John's Bible is a contemporary work created in the tradition of handwritten medieval manuscripts. The artistic director of the project, Donald Jackson, calligrapher to Queen Elizabeth II, is one of the world's foremost calligraphers. He worked with scribes and artists to write and illuminate The Saint John's Bible using quills and paints hand-ground from precious minerals and stones, as did scribes during medieval times. Because the project is an interfaith undertaking, Jackson has incorporated imagery from Eastern and Western religious traditions, as well as influences from Native American cultures.

Registration is required, and admission is $6.50 per person; space is limited to forty. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514 or e-mail hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.
