Credo III

Presider Credo in unum Deum,

Schola Patrem omnipotentem factorem cæli et terræ, visibilium omnium et invisibilium.

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,

Schola Et ex Patre natum ante omnia sæcula.

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,

Schola Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri:
per quem omnia facta sunt.

begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All bow at the words of incarnation, sung by the Schola:

Schola Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et homo factus est.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

Schola Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas.

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

ALL

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

Schola

Et iterum venturus est cum gloria, judicare vivos et mortuos, cuius regni non erit finis.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

ALL

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

Schola

Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur:
qui locutus est per prophetas.

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

ALL

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

Schola

Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

ALL

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND THE GIFTS

(10:00)

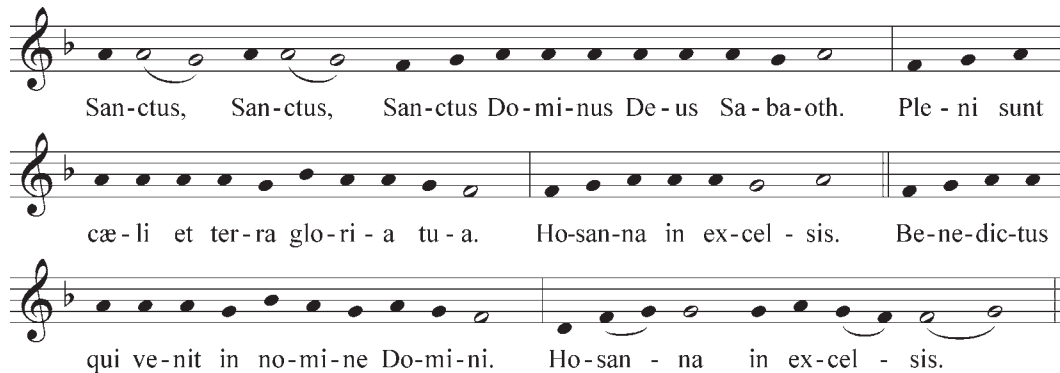

E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come

Manz

Peace be to you and grace from Him Who freed us from our sins,
Who loved us all and shed His blood That we might saved be.
Sing Holy, Holy to our Lord, The Lord Almighty God,
Who was and is and is to come; Sing Holy, Holy, Lord!
Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell therein, Rejoice on earth, ye saints below,
For Christ is coming, is coming soon!
E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come, And night shall be no more;
They need no light nor lamp nor sun, For Christ will be their All!

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Cathedral Christmas cards are now in stock, including some beautiful new designs! Also, Sunday Missals for 2013 are in, as well as some wonderful new prayer books for young children. And Cathedral Music CDs make great Christmas gifts! Share your Cathedral with family and friends.

DEDICATION OF THE CATHEDRAL On Friday, December 21 at the 5:30pm Mass, we will celebrate our annual solemnity marking the anniversary of dedication of this Cathedral church. St. James was dedicated on December 22, 1907 by Bishop Edward O'Dea, and rededicated on December 22, 1994 by Archbishop Thomas J. Murphy. The Mass will begin with a procession through the Cathedral for the lighting of the dedication candles. All are welcome to participate as we celebrate this beautiful house of prayer.

NO TAIZE PRAYER FRIDAY 12/21 On Friday, December 21, in order to prepare the Cathedral for Christmas services, we are not able to have our usual Taizé Prayer service. Taizé Prayer will resume on Friday, December 28 at 6:30pm.

COMMUNAL RECONCILIATION SERVICES will be held on Monday, December 17 at 7:30pm (not 4:00pm as printed in the monthly calendar) and Saturday, December 22 at 4:00pm. During these beautiful services of readings, reflection and song, we will open ourselves to experience the gift of God's gracious and loving forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance. It has long been a tradition in the church to confess one's sins before celebrating the great feast of Christmas. These will be ideal times to do so.

CHRISTMAS MASSES Christmas at the Cathedral begins at 5:30pm on Monday, December 24 with the Vigil Mass of Christmas, and continues with the Midnight Mass, and the Masses of Christmas Day—8:00am, 10:00am, and 12:00 Noon. Solemn Vespers of Christmas will be at 4:00pm on Christmas Day. (There is no 5:30pm Mass on Christmas Day.) View the complete schedule of Christmas Masses at St. James Cathedral at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Seattle and St. Mary of Guadalupe in Ridgefield.

HAVE YOU BEEN CONFIRMED? Adults and youth aged 16 and older are invited to complete their Christian initiation beginning in early 2013. Confirmation classes start Thursday evening January 17 and continue weekly through April 11. The Rite of Confirmation will be celebrated in the context of the 5:30pm Mass, Saturday, April 13. Information, Brenda Bellamy at 206-274-3108 or bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

SACRIFICIAL SUNDAY GIVING We are four weeks into our annual Sacrificial Giving campaign. We have heard from more than 700 parishioners—which is great news! But that leaves 1,900 who have not yet completed a pledge card for 2013. Please complete and turn in a card even if you are unable to commit to a specific amount in 2013. This will save you from receiving follow up letters and e-mails. If you are able to give, please turn in your pledge today or go online to make a pledge—www.stjames-cathedral.org. Thank you!

DO YOU SHOP AT BARTELL'S? If you shop at Bartell's, every purchase you make can benefit St. James Cathedral if you register for their "B" Caring program. Ask at Bartell's for details. If you're already signed up, be sure to use your "B" Caring card when you check out.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!), are regular recipients of the Cathedral's quarterly journal In Your Midst, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. If you are not sure whether or not you're registered, call the Parish Office, 206-622-3559.

CATHEDRAL KIDS EPIPHANY PARTY Saturday, January 5, 11:30am—2:00pm, Cathedral Hall. This year, our wonderful holiday party for kids and their families will come a bit later in the Christmas season, so mark your calendar! There will be a piñata, lots of games, food and fun. (And a visit from some special guests!) RSVP to Theresa Van De Ven, 206-219-5822, or e-mail tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org to help us with planning.

Sacred Steps

Sacramental Celebrations at St. James

CONGRATULATIONS to the following young children, baptized at the 5:30pm Mass on Saturday, December 1: Ne'Lynn Marcia Asphy, Henry William Chapman, Arya Xuan Le, Camila Jade Perez, and Theodore Angelo Vals. We welcome with joy these newest members of the family of faith.

I am in your midst.... OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

"WARM HEARTS AND SOLES" Every Sunday in Advent young adults from the parish will be present at coffee hours to collect your donation of new socks. We hope to collect 2,013 socks to be distributed to those persons experiencing homelessness in our city. Drop off your donations at Coffee Hour or at the Parish Office during the week. Information, Caitlin Lanigan 206-382-4235.

CATHEDRAL FLORAL WORKSHOP, Saturday, January 19, 9:00 am-12:00 Noon. Cathedral Florist, Debe Meder, will share her techniques and creative ideas with parishioners interested in assisting in the preparation of floral offerings. Information, or to enroll, call the Music Office, 206-382-4874

MEET OTHER PARISHIONERS Join with hundreds of parishioners in our parish's upcoming production of Great Music for Great Cathedrals. We need folks who can volunteer a couple of hours or a couple of weeks and everything in between. We need costume sewers, stage crew, lighting assistants, office support, etc. This is a great way to get to know other parishioners and make new friendships. Information, musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874.

TOILETRY DONATIONS We are collecting donations of toiletries for our Winter Shelter and for the Solanus Casey Center. Please bring in donations of shaving cream, razors, soaps, lotions, etc. Drop them off at Coffee Hour after masses or at the parish office Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

GIVE YOURSELF THE GIFT OF SOME PEACE amidst the chaos of the season with Advent meditation. Our Advent Meditation Group meets on Tuesdays in Advent, 10:30am-noon, 2nd floor Cathedral Place or Thursdays in Advent, 7:00-8:30pm, 4th floor Cathedral Place – same session offered twice each week for participant convenience. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018.

Getting to know Good Pope John

Be sure to stop by our new shrine in honor of Blessed John XXIII to offer a prayer to this great saint of modern times.

As he was dying, John said to his secretary, Msgr. Capovilla: "We've worked together and served the Church without stopping to pick up and throw back the stones that have sometimes blocked our path. You've put up with my defects, and I've put up with yours. We'll always be friends... when all this is over, get some rest and go see your mother."

WE'RE LISTENING!

EVALUATING THE CATHEDRAL'S SOUND SYSTEM

ABOUT THE SURVEY

On one Sunday this past summer, all parishioners were invited to participate in a simple survey to evaluate the effectiveness of the Cathedral's sound system. They were asked to indicate how easy it was to understand the various parts of the liturgy on a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 being "difficult" and 5 "easy" to hear. Each survey was coded by seating area as well. In this way, we hoped to identify problem areas for speaking as well as problem areas for hearing.

RESULTS

The results were quite positive, with most areas of the Cathedral averaging between 3-4 (with 3 being average). However, some problem areas were identified. The spoken word from the ambo—Scripture readings, Gospel, and homily—scored significantly lower than the prayers at the presider's chair and at the altar. In addition, the back of the west nave and the front of the east nave, south side, appear to be the places where it is most difficult to hear. Many submitted written comments as well:

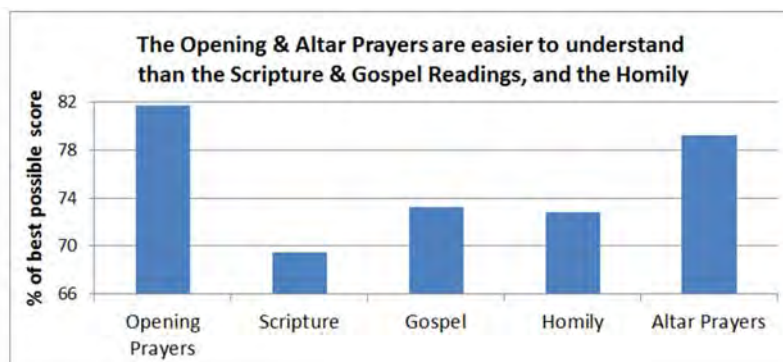

- "I read the selections at home so I don't totally miss them, but I would like to hear them at Mass."
- "Echo at times makes it difficult to understand."
- "The sound could be a little more crisper and louder."
- "Last week it was hard to hear, and hard to concentrate."
- "Sound from celebrant's chair is excellent. The readings are hard to hear at times."
- "I really like how the cantors' voices sound in the Cathedral."

SUMMARY

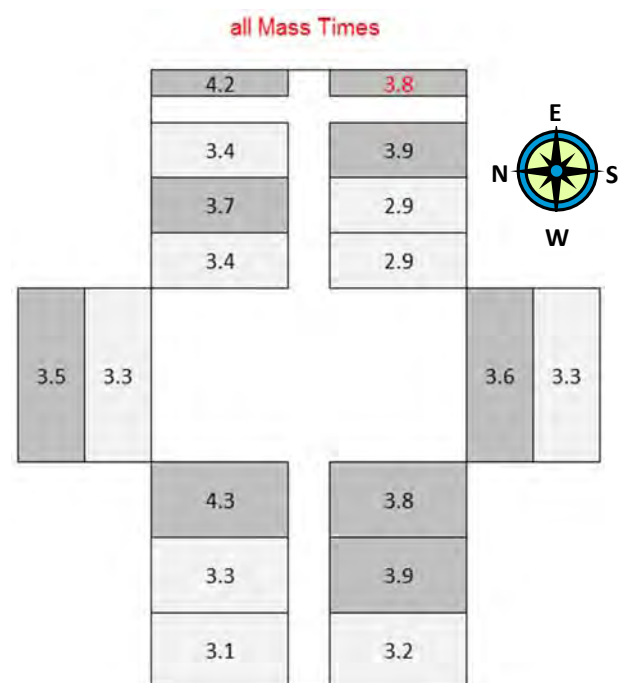

- ♦ The scriptures, Gospel readings and the Homily seem harder to understand than the Opening Prayers and Altar Prayers.
- ♦ The sound quality was rated higher for the 10:00 am, 12:00 Noon and the Sunday 5:30pm Masses, and somewhat lower for the Saturday 5:30pm and Sunday 8:00 am Masses.
- ♦ The data is variable, but the 'best places' to sit seem to be the south transept, whereas the other areas seem to be a little harder to hear.

ACTION STEPS

In response to your feedback, we have tested a different microphone in the ambo on two different occasions. Last Sunday, a sound technician from Morgan Sound attended two liturgies to evaluate and make recommendations. We are in the process of reviewing those recommendations and expect to make improvements in the next few weeks. Thank you for your patience with this ongoing effort to make God's word audible in the Cathedral! Special thanks to Christina Smith for entering the data and to Dr. Julia Richardt for analyzing it!

The highest scoring microphone was the presider's microphone, with a "B" (81% out of 100). The lowest was the ambo, at 69% (a C minus).

The "score" (on a scale of 1-5, with 5 being "easy to hear") of each of the seating areas in the Cathedral perfect chaos

a reading and discussion about living with mental illness

Tuesday, January 15, 2013 | 7:00 pm

Cathedral Place, Second Floor

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

Linea Johnson

Cinda Johnson

Perfect Chaos is a memoir about Linea and Cinda Johnson's head-on battle with mental illness. Their ultimately inspiring journey breaks through the stigma of what it means to have bipolar disorder, but more importantly, what it takes to live with it. As this mother, daughter and close-knit family take down wall upon wall and face their greatest fears, we witness the human struggle against a debilitating illness and watch as their story reaches beyond the personal to the universal state of mental health today and the foibles of our healthcare system.

We'll have the opportunity to hear from Linea and Cinda themselves, and to ask questions and join in a general discussion about living with mental illness. Copies of the memoir are available in the Cathedral Bookstore. All are welcome.

RSVP to John Simpson, 206-274-3173 or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

"Perfect Chaos is an open-eyed, sometimes raw, always astoundingly honest account of a family's unanticipated battle with mental illness. Cinda and Linea's awe-inspiring resilience and the sheer courage of their emotional transparency moved me to my core and deepened my empathy for all those touched by mental illness, including beloved members of my own family. It is about the fierce, transformative love between a mother and daughter and how they both learn to share their truths."

—Glenn Close, Award-Winning Actress and Co-founder, Bring Change 2 Mind

"Perfect Chaos is a memoir of a daughter and mother working together to overcome the daily challenges of living with a mental illness. Through their trials and triumphs, their story provides encouragement and hope for individuals and their families affected by these illnesses."

—Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter
