

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 19, 2016

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

June 12, 2016

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!
St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the South transept stained-glass windows.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Last week, we had visitors from Houston, TX; Hona, HI; Guam and New Zealand. The winner of our drawing was from Maysville, KY. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

RESURRECTION WINDOWS (1917-1919)

The Cathedral's stained glass windows are almost all the work of Charles Connick and his Boston studio. They were installed between 1917 and 1919, as part of the redesign and redecoration of the Cathedral following the catastrophe of the dome collapse on February 2, 1916. (The only windows not by Connick are the East Apse windows, which date from 1994 and are the work of renowned German artist Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen – though even these windows make use of some Connick glass.)

The Cathedral's windows are among the most notable examples in the country of Connick's early work. In their use of decorative borders and roundels they recall the French Gothic windows Connick studied and borrowed from throughout his career. Perhaps the most ambitious windows in the collection are the three windows in each of the transepts. Those on the north side form a triptych of the Nativity of the Lord – the Holy Family flanked by shepherds (left) and wise men (right). The three windows on the south tell the story of Easter morning. In the center we see the risen Christ, rising from the tomb. A dawn sky brightens behind him, while angels with wonderful pink wings bow their heads in adoration on either side. In the left-hand window, we see Mary Magdalene and the other Mary coming sadly to the tomb, carrying the ointment with which they intend to anoint the dead body of Jesus. On the right, Peter and John follow the women to the tomb. At the top of each window are small roundels with brilliantly-colored symbols of Resurrection: a rainbow, a phoenix, and a pot of blooming Easter lilies.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you.

COVER ART Christ carries his cross. East Apse stained-glass window, St. James Cathedral. Charles Connick, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are from Jeff and Melissa Williams to commemorate their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Flowers are also from the Saturday wedding of Emilie Ross and Mark Gilcreest.

GUEST CHOIR SUNDAY 5:30PM Spectrum Choral Academy Youth Chorus, Stephanie Charbonneau, artistic director.

DAILY MASS THIS WEEK During the coming week, the priests of the Archdiocese will have their annual gathering at Ocean Shores. Because of the limited availability of priests during this time, there will be some changes to our regular Mass schedule. The 8:15am Mass will take place daily as usual. However, there will be no 5:30pm Mass on Monday, Tuesday, or Friday next week. Instead, we will offer the Liturgy of the Hours at these times. Thank you for your understanding.

YEAR OF MERCY We welcome all pilgrims to St. James Cathedral during this Year of Mercy. Whether you are a visitor or a regular at St. James, you can walk through the Holy Doors of Mercy, the four bronze doors at the Cathedral's west entrance. The center doors are opened before and after each Mass. A self-guided pilgrimage of prayer, The Way of Mercy, is available as well—pick up a flyer just inside the Holy Doors.

NEW! A VISUAL ARTS DAY CAMP FOR YOUTH ENTERING GRADES 7 THROUGH 12 As a participant in the Art of Faith camp you will: learn about the history, science and making of stained glass; study the stained glass of the Cathedral; visit several stained glass installations; and make your own small stained glass piece. Information, Brenda Bellamy, 206-274-3108 or bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH MUSIC CHOIR CAMP – AUGUST 8-14 St. James Cathedral presents its annual youth music choir camp where children—ages 6-14—have opportunities to sing, laugh, and play in a beautiful and welcoming environment. Each day, choristers will learn beautiful music both modern and ancient, enter into prayerful reflection in the service of morning praise, and share fellowship with fellow students in a variety of activities. More information and a video at www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Aloysius in Buckley and St. Thomas More in Lynnwood.

POWERFUL TOOLS FOR CAREGIVERS Wednesdays, July 6–August 10, 1–2:30pm in the Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center. How do you find the time and energy for self-care when you are supporting a loved one? In these free classes, you will learn key skills that will improve your confidence and ability to take care of yourself throughout the caregiving journey. Learn how to reduce stress, communicate in challenging situations, master caregiving decisions. To register, contact Mari Becker at UW Memory & Brain Wellness Center, 206-744-2017 or mbecker1@uw.edu.

HEALING THE WOUNDS OF VETERANS Warriors Healing Retreats offer a proven process to heal the wounds of active military and veterans, including those experiencing post-traumatic stress and moral injury. The retreats are founded on Scripture and are based on the Catholic healing tradition. Spouses are welcome. The next retreat will be held Saturday, July 16 from 9:00am to 6:00pm at America Lake VA Hospital, Bldg 111, 9600 Veterans Drive SW, Lakewood, WA. Presenters include Deacons Roy Harrinton and Carl Chilo Cynde Bosshart, Kay Sprung, Br. Cyril Drnjevic OSB, and Fr. Charles Barnes, SJ. Information, Chaplain Charles Barnes 206-764-2033 or charles.barnes2@va.gov.

Opportunities to Serve

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED The Cathedral Kitchen needs a few more substitute gleaners to help when our other gleaners are away. Gleaners go out in the morning, once a week, usually as partners, to four local supermarkets and collect food (fruits, vegetables, milk, deli items, etc.) These items may be used for our daily meals or passed on to St. Mary's Food Bank. It's a fun and rewarding outreach! Information, Teddi Callahan at tcallahan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-264-2091.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE OPENINGS We currently need volunteers one weekend a month following the Saturday evening Mass, and one weekend a month following the 8:00am Mass. If you love books and enjoy the opportunity to meet Cathedral visitors and regulars, the Bookstore might be a good fit for you! Some computer skills required. All training provided! Information, Maria Laughlin, mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

NOON MASS: HELPING HANDS NEEDED AT COFFEE HOUR Do you have a passion for hospitality? If so, St. James is looking for more Coffee Hour volunteers! We need helping hands to help serve muffins and coffee after the Sunday noon Mass, 1pm-2:30pm. Information, Tom Frasene, tfrasene@stjames-cathedral.org.

GENTLE CHAIR YOGA Join a relaxing, restorative practice on Thursdays, 6:30 – 7:30 pm, beginning June 23rd. Classes will be held in the Pastoral Outreach Center, Holy Names Room. Information, Nancy Granger, 206-382-4369

CATHEDRAL MOTHERS GROUP Becoming a parent brings big changes to every facet of a woman's life. This is a time when women need the support of the whole community, yet many young mothers live far away from their extended families and wise elders. Our Cathedral Mothers Group, facilitated by child and family counselor, Ansebe Bicoff-Smit, MA, LMHCA, meets every Monday from 10:30 to Noon in the Mother Cabrini Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Bring your young children and check it out. Information, Suzanne Lee, slee@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4640.

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD'S BLESSINGS to the following children, baptized in the Cathedral last Sunday at the 10 o'clock Mass: Elliott Joel Gordon-MacLean, Maximus Marjanovic, Braiden Matthew Skinner, and Cecilia Rose Thibodeau. We welcome with joy these newest members of the family of faith!

Camino Seattle

Camino Seattle is a four-week walking/hiking and prayer event for St. James Cathedral Parish, beginning June 26, 2016 and concluding July 24, 2016, the Feast of St. James.

Set your walking/hiking goal!

Pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela come by many routes and from many different places. For Camino Seattle, we will each determine our own mileage goal, based on our time and physical ability. The main point is to set a goal to challenge yourself a bit during these four weeks. We suggest a goal of 60 miles or more—the minimum to receive a compostela in Spain.

Set your prayer goal

Because the Camino to Santiago de Compostela in Spain is both a physical and a spiritual journey, you're also encouraged to set a prayer goal. During this Year of Mercy, your goal might be the gift of prayer for those in need, or performing a work of mercy during the week.

Community walks and events

The Camino de Santiago is a community event: a place where people get to know each other make new friends. Each week during the Camino, there will be hosted walks across the city as well as educational opportunities at the Cathedral. Keep an eye on the weekly bulletin for a schedule of these fun special summer events.

Collecting your stamps

Each week, you will want to collect stamps to indicate your progress.

Getting a stamp at each stage of the journey is an important part of the journey for pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela. Cathedral pilgrims can collect their prayer and walking stamps each week at coffee hour, or at the parish office during the week. In addition, you can get a bonus "community" stamp each week by participating in a hosted walk or other group event.

Conclusion

The Camino Seattle will conclude on the Feast of St. James, July 24, 2016.

Find out more

Visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/camino to find out more about special Camino events, to sign up for hosted walks, and to learn more about St. James and the Camino!

THE WORKS OF MERCY

In the coming weeks, as part of the Year of Mercy, we will explore the Corporal Works of Mercy in a series of essays by Cathedral parishioner Lisa Casterella. The traditional Corporal Works of Mercy are: to feed the hungry; to give drink to the thirsty; to clothe the naked; to harbor the harborless; to visit the sick; to ransom the captive; to bury the dead. What are some of the ways we are living out these works of mercy at St. James Cathedral?

CLOTHE THE NAKED

On a recent weekend, a big red St Vincent de Paul truck sat in the O'Dea parking lot, where our Cathedral Vincentians accepted donations of gently worn clothing and other items—enough to “stuff the truck.” The truck was then driven to one of five local SVdP thrift stores, where items could be sold to support SVdP activities throughout King County. But the story doesn't end there.

Part of the SVdP mission is to “clothe the naked.” Every week, residents of St James parish call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) because they and their children need clothes and other forms of material help. Their requests are forwarded to our Cathedral Vincentians, who then visit in teams of two.

Besides people needing clothes, “we see everything from a mother of three who has just lost her job, to an elderly man with no heat in his apartment, to a veteran who has lost both legs and is sleeping on the floor without a bed,” says Christine Henderson, president of the St James Cathedral-BI Rosalie Rendu Conference of SVdP, a 100% volunteer conference funded mainly by the special collection at the end of mass on the third weekend of the month.

“Every dollar helps,” Christine says. The money is converted by SVdP into vouchers (for example, vouchers that can be redeemed at local SVdP thrift stores for clothing) and gift cards that our Vincentians give to low-income residents during home visits made in the afternoon or evening on any day of the week, depending on volunteer availability.

“We meet people where they are, in their own place [and we] often feel the presence of God in these encounters,” says Christine with enthusiasm. Beyond helping with the most urgent financial needs, Vincentians simply listen to and have friendly chats with those they visit, who are often lonely and longing for words of encouragement and prayer.

As Jesus said, “The poor you will always have with you,” so the work of our Cathedral Vincentians will never be finished. Would you like to explore volunteering with St Vincent de Paul? Please contact Christine Henderson at 253-973-1441 or christinehsvdp@gmail.com.

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 4-week grief support group

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL AND PAGLIACCI PIZZA PRESENT THE 20TH ANNUAL
ARCHBISHOP RAYMOND G. HUNTHAUSEN
Charity Golf Tournament & Benefit Dinner

Since 1997, the Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars to support the neediest of our community. This year the event will be held at the Glendale Country Club in Bellevue.

And the need is greater than ever before. This important event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving 150+ hot, nutritious meals every weeknight, all year round, to homeless and low-income men, women, and children in the downtown area. The tournament also supports other important Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

Every dollar given to the Kitchen makes a huge difference. Look at it this way:

Serve one guest for a month	$75
Keep the kitchen open one day	$665
Keep the kitchen open a week.....	$3,325

On behalf of Archbishop Hunthausen and the countless people who are helped through the programs of St. James Cathedral, thank you for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner.
