

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 17, 2019

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

This letter was in last Sunday's bulletin, but I thought it was important to include it this week since so many of you were unable to be here last weekend.

February 10, 2019

Dear Friends,

You will no doubt notice that the cross hanging near the altar of the Cathedral is not the one you are used to. It saddens me to have to tell you that our beautiful crucifix was severely damaged some days ago when a deranged person managed to get behind it and send it crashing to the floor. We have been told by a skilled art conservator that she will be able to restore it but that it will most likely take many months to do so. I find this reassuring because the crucifix is beloved of many and has been in the Cathedral for 70 years. Since the renovation of 1994 it has not only stood near the altar but has led many a procession into the Cathedral on great feasts and solemnities.

The beautiful icon cross that now hangs in its place is the work of our Cathedral iconographer, Joan Brand-Landkamer, whose icons regularly grace our liturgical celebrations. Over the years, Joan has written upwards of 40 icons for the Cathedral.

A mindless act of destruction is heart-breaking and difficult to understand. I am hoping in this case that it will prompt you to pray for the person responsible and to pray for all people who live with the awful scourge of mental illness.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Michael G. Ryan

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

A communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place at St. James Cathedral on Saturday, February 23, 2019 at a special Noon Mass. Father Ryan will preside. All are welcome to attend the Mass.

What is the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church. Like the sacrament of reconciliation (confession), it is a sacrament of healing. Our understanding of this sacrament has changed with time. In the early Church it was seen as a sacrament of healing, but later it came to be known as "Extreme Unction" – literally, "last anointing" – and was not administered until death was imminent. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has returned to the more ancient practice with regard to this sacrament.

Who can receive this sacrament?

Catholics, both children and adults, who are seriously ill, facing surgery, or experiencing the weakness that comes with old age should seek this sacrament. Those with serious, chronic mental or physical illness may also receive the anointing of the sick.

What happens during the Rite of Anointing?

The Rite of Anointing will be celebrated in the context of a special Mass on Saturday, February 23 at Noon.

After the homily, the Liturgy of Anointing begins. The priest leads a litany in which all pray for the healing and forgiveness of the sick person, as well as for doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Then, in silence, the priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person, an ancient gesture of prayer that is used in connection with many of the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Orders.

After the laying on of hands, each sick person is anointed with the Oil of the Sick (pure olive oil, blessed each year by the Archbishop at the Chrism Mass). The sick person is anointed on the forehead and then on the hands, and simple words accompany the anointing: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up." A concluding prayer follows, and if the sacrament takes place in the context of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues as usual.

No RSVP is required. Information, Corinna Laughlin, 206-264-2086, or e-mail claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

2019 Marriage Enrichment Dinners

Food for the Soul for Married Couples

Did you know the Catholic Church really cares about your marriage and wants it to succeed? And did you know that St. James is committed to helping married couples live out their vocation? Good marriages can always be made better! Pope Francis described marriage as “a project to be worked on together” and a “process of growth” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 218, 221).

We also know that many of our couples do not have the support of extended family because they are transplants to the Seattle area. All the more reason for our parish to offer opportunities for married couples to connect with others who are in the same boat and to build community in the process!
Married couples of any age are welcome.

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

A campaign for our priests, sisters and family of faith.

I've been privileged to spend thirty-six of my sixty-seven years in religious life in the Archdiocese of Seattle, thirty of them at St. James Cathedral. All through these years, it's the generosity and goodness of the people that has brought joy to my life. God has spoken to me through each one of you. You have been so good to me over the years. Thank you for stepping forward to support the needs of sisters and priests.

Sister Anne Herkenrath, snjm

It's probably obvious why this campaign means a lot to me! Not that I'm thinking about retirement, but at some point it will become a reality for me, and I know I will be grateful to all those whose generous support will make that possible. I'm especially happy that this campaign includes the sisters, because they have been our partners in ministry each step of the way. Even though the goal of the campaign seems incredibly large, I'm confident that you, the generous people of our parish, will respond as you always do.

Father Michael G. Ryan

During all the many years I served the seniors of this Cathedral parish, I became more and more aware of how important it is for people to have adequate support in their old age. It's the same for the sisters! Like all of you, our needs tend to increase, not diminish, as we grow older. I thank you for any support you can give to this campaign. It's very important to me and to the sisters in my community.

Sister Claudette Conrad, snjm
