The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

July, 2016

Dear Friends,

I am happy to be able to share with you some good news for the future of our parish. With the enthusiastic approval of our Parish Finance Council and of Archbishop Sartain, we have entered, along with the Archdiocese, into a long-term lease arrangement with a local developer for the half-block of property south of the Cathedral on Terry Avenue between Cherry and James Streets. The parish holds title to the major part of that property; the remainder of it belongs to the Archdiocese.

The parish's portion of the property was acquired over the last twenty-five years. The purchase price of the parcel at the corner of Terry Avenue and James Street that houses the Solanus Casey Center was partly donated by a generous friend of the Cathedral in 2005; the purchase of the large duplex just north of that was made possible in part by a parishioner's generous bequest some years ago.

But there has been a down side to owning these properties – the monthly mortgage payments! The long term lease we are now negotiating will not only eliminate the mortgage payments, but also provide an income stream well into the future – funds that will function something like a modest endowment, helping us bridge the budget deficit we have been carrying for many years, and providing for the preservation of the Cathedral and the support – and perhaps even expansion – of our many ministries.

One of our priorities in entering into the lease will be to find suitable alternate locations for both the Solanus Casey Center and the Cathedral Kitchen Garden, both of which are housed on that half-block. We have several possibilities we are actively exploring. Happily, we have ample time to plan for these moves.

There will be a definite advantage to the Cathedral and to the community at large in the use to which the property will be put. The developers are Columbia Pacific, LLC, a local firm and a highly respected one. Their plan is to build senior housing on the property. We are happy about this because this is a project that is highly compatible with the Cathedral's mission and will be a real benefit to the neighborhood and to the parish. Construction is likely to begin in mid-2017.

There is one more advantage: because we are choosing to enter into a long-term lease arrangement with the developers, rather than selling the property outright, the Cathedral will retain ownership of the property. Decades from now, when the lease expires, the Cathedral will be blessed to still have this asset at its disposal. Given the shifting needs of the Church and the evolving nature of our city, I am sure you can see the wisdom of this arrangement.

At moments like this I can't but be reminded that each time we walk through the doors of St. James Cathedral, we are the beneficiaries of the foresight and generosity of the generations of parishioners that have gone before us. As pastor, I am particularly aware of their legacy. It's a legacy that is embodied in everything we do here—our worship, our witness, our outreach—and, of course, in the beautiful Cathedral itself and in the wonderful parish facilities that we enjoy today. We should feel very blessed, then, at this new and promising development in the life of our parish. Like those who have gone before us, we get to hand on our own legacy to generations yet to come!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

CELEBRATING THE APOSTLE TO THE APOSTLES

Each year on July 22, the Church honors St. Mary Magdalene—the first witness to the Resurrection of Christ. Pope Francis recently announced that the Memorial of this great saint will now be observed throughout the Church as a Feast, raising the observance of “the apostle to the Apostles” to the same rank as that of the male Apostles. Pope Francis’ intent is to heighten awareness of the key role of women in the handing on of the Christian mystery. Next Friday, July 22, will be the first observance of the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, and we will celebrate the Feast in a special way at the 5:30pm Mass with music. Father Ryan will preside.

REGISTRATION FOR THE 2016-2017 CHILDREN'S

FAITH FORMATION session is open. Register online through the Cathedral website. Click on the Kids' Page tab and then click on the Register Now! button. Or, register in person during the Parish Picnic on July 24. Information, Brenda Bellamy, 206-274-3108.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU We visited an elderly woman who lived in the same Capitol Hill apartment over 20 years, loved it and wanted to stay there the rest of her life. Unfortunately, the building owner hired a new property manager who imposed large rent increases on most tenants. This poor woman's monthly rent was increased 30%, making her apartment too expensive to keep. We could not remove the grief and anger she felt over losing her beloved home. But, with your help, we paid part of her rent so she could avoid eviction while she searched for an affordable apartment – thank you! Information, Christine Henderson, christinehsvdp@gmail.com.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!
St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci in the Cathedral Chapel.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today. Last week, we had visitors from Downers Grove, IL; Powhatan, VA; and Emmitsburg, MD. The winner of our drawing was from Seal Beach, CA.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

VIRGIN AND CHILD WITH SIX SAINTS

The Cathedral Chapel is home to an extraordinary 1456 altarpiece by Florentine artist Neri di Bicci, whose work can be seen in several museums in the United States, and in many churches in his native Florence. This large work, painted in egg tempera on panel, depicts Mary enthroned, holding the child Jesus on her lap. They are flanked by six saints – from the left, Luke, Bartholomew, Lawrence, John the Baptist, Martin of Tours, and Sebastian. Each saint holds an object which identifies them. Thus Luke, the evangelist, is shown writing in a book, while at his feet is an ox – his symbol. Bartholomew, Lawrence, and Sebastian, all martyrs, hold the instrument of their martyrdom – a knife, a gridiron, an arrow. Martin wears the miter and holds the crosier of a bishop. And John the Baptist holds a scroll reading Ecce Agnus Dei, “Behold the Lamb of God.”

The figures of Mary and Jesus are drawn with exquisite delicacy – a diaphanous cloth surrounds the child, who reaches for his mother. The haloes are rendered by stippling detailed patterns in the gold leaf of the background.

The painting was restored by the Seattle Art Museum in 2005, thanks to the generosity of friends of the Cathedral.

SCHOLA CANTORUM CHOIR CAMP 2016

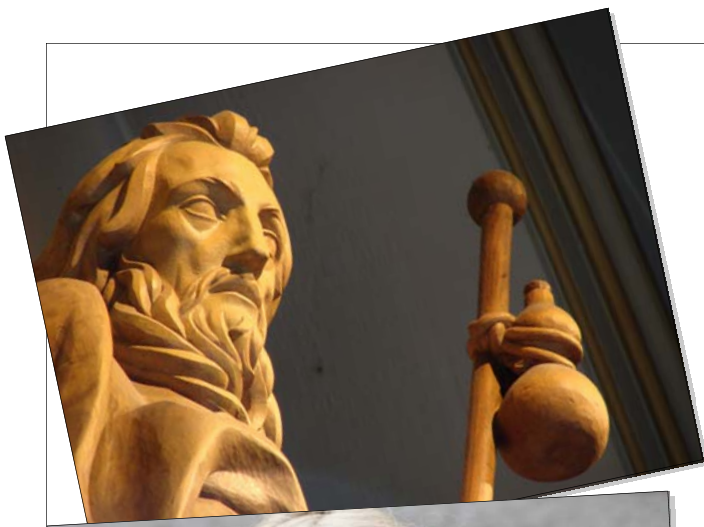

Each summer our Schola Cantorum comes together to learn about and celebrate great sacred music. Over five days, campers (ages 5-14) will learn a variety of pieces from the span of the church's history, from antiquity to today, and will share the fruits of their labor with special concerts at the end of the week, followed by a festive mass on Sunday morning. In addition to learning all kinds of exciting music, choristers learn about a variety of topics in the life of the Church. Last year we celebrated Pope Francis' call to serve the environment and all our fellow creatures of God by exploring ways in which we can better serve the environment and our neighbors. Each day we begin with morning prayer led by our talented instructors. Over the course of the week, senior choristers have a chance to take over and get a taste of what it is to be a leader of the liturgy. Rehearsal and prayer is punctuated with opportunities to have fun with fellow campers outside on the beautiful Cathedral grounds and in activities led by the diverse staff of St. James. Tuition for the week is $80.
