The Quality of Mercy

Exploring Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice

Mondays, April 4, 11, and 18, 2016 | 7:00pm-8:30pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

The Merchant of Venice contains some of the most beautiful poetry in the language, including the famous speech "The quality of mercy is not strained." The play also confronts difficult themes of religious and racial prejudice, and mercy given and withheld. In this series, we'll explore the play and discover what it has to teach us about "the quality of mercy" in this Year of Mercy. The three sessions will be led by CORINNA LAUGHLIN (Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and PhD in English Literature). Cathedral reader SCOTT WEBSTER will perform key speeches from the play. All are welcome! It is recommended, but not required, that participants read or watch the designated scenes in advance of each session.

THE WORKS OF MERCY

In the coming weeks, as part of the Year of Mercy, we will explore the Corporal Works of Mercy in a series of essays by Cathedral parishioner Lisa Casterella. The traditional Corporal Works of Mercy are: to feed the hungry; to give drink to the thirsty; to clothe the naked; to harbor the harborless; to visit the sick; to ransom the captive; to bury the dead. What are some of the ways we are living out these works of mercy at St. James Cathedral?

HARBOR THE HARBORLESS

On the third floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center, two rooms are lined with books. Black History studies, classics such as The Red Badge of Courage, a Chinese dictionary and pamphlets on citizenship are just a small sampling. This resource center is part of St James Immigration Assistance Ministry. Founded in 1975, with one tutor and one Vietnamese client, this ministry has grown to over 67 volunteers and 6 staff members. 320 clients speaking 32 different languages received support last year alone.

"The work here is constant. We provide services to an often vulnerable and isolated population," states Director Chris Koehler. Chris describes an East African man who was blinded in a childhood accident and found "hope for the first time in his life," through the help of bi-weekly visits with his English tutor. An aerospace professional from the Middle East learned interviewing skills and was able to find gainful employment after 6 months with his tutor. A refugee from Russia received help explaining an eye condition to her physician.

In addition to learning English, clients acquire life skills, a sense of belonging and being part of the community. Many have fled violence and poverty. "Volunteerism is not universal. People giving of their time to help an individual means a great deal."

In addition to tutoring, Immigration Assistance provides application and interview preparation for citizenship through the help of parish sponsors at a cost of $100. Would you like to learn more? Information sessions take place monthly. Please contact Chris Koehler, 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

About the Pilgrimage

A group of eight from St. James Cathedral will join a larger archdiocesan delegation and travel to Krakow, Poland for a life-changing encounter with Pope Francis and over two million fellow Catholic youth. The pilgrimage will occur between July 22–August 2, 2016. The goals of World Youth Day are: (1) A moving and sanctifying pilgrimage in faith. (2) An experience of the power of the Holy Spirit to strengthen the faith of our young people. (3) Rediscover the centrality of the Word and Sacrament. (4) Enable pilgrims to be witnesses to Christ. (5) Provide an encounter with Jesus Christ, His Spirit, and His Church.

Krakow, Poland offers a powerhouse of pilgrimage sites and saints, such as St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Faustina, and Pope John Paul II. This particular World Youth Day is the 30th anniversary of this extraordinary global event and will focus on Divine Mercy. The pilgrimage will include stops in Prague to visit the famous "Infant of Prague," a replica of which sits in our own cathedral sanctuary, and Auschwitz Concentration Camp where we will pray for those who perished in the Holocaust.

And – of course – we will share Mass with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, alongside over two million Catholic pilgrims from around the world.

Welcome Back

A CATHEDRAL PROGRAM FOR NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

*Come back to the Lord with all your heart!
God is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in faithful love. Joel 2*

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers “Welcome Back,” a 10-week parish program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It’s a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we’ll help you return to the sacraments, and to becoming an active part of the faith community.

The spring program begins Monday, April 11, and continues Mondays through mid-June. Sessions are held 7:00 – 9:00 pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.
