CREED (except at Noon)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Faire is the heaven
Harris

Faire is the heaven, where happy soules have place
In full enjoyment of felicitie,
Whence they doe still behold the glorious face
Of the Divine Eternall Majestic;
Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins,
Which all with golden wings are overdight,
And those eternall burning Seraphins,
Which from their faces dart out fiery light;
Yet fairer than they both, and much more bright,
Be th' Angels and Archangels, which attend
On God's owne Person, without rest or end.

These then in faire each other farre excelling,
As to the Highest they approach more neare,
Yet is the Highest farre beyond all telling,
Fairer than all the rest which there appear,
Though all their beauties joynd together were;
How then can mortall tongue hope to expresse
The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

Stories of Mother Cabrini to Mark the 100th Anniversary of the Saint's Death

PART 3 OF 3

19 NOVEMBER 2017

In the early part of 1903, Mother Cabrini sent two Sisters to scope out the possibilities for a mission in Seattle. They wrote to Mother Cabrini, but she was impatient with their account of Seattle. "You have not told me anything about that country; whether it is high or low, or cold or hot. I want to know all. Is Seattle high or low? I picture it at the foot of very high mountains, but if the sea is in front of us, I don't mind. Is it easy to climb the mountains from Seattle?"

On October 17, 1903, Mother Cabrini visited in person. She wrote, "Here we are not far from the North Pole... This city is charmingly situated, and is growing so rapidly that it will become another New York; its port is open to the steamers that sail to and from Alaska.... The bishop is very good. His name is O'Dea, and he is happy to have us in his diocese because we bear the name of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. He is very much devoted to the Sacred Heart."

She soon realized that the Sisters could be of great help to Seattle's Italian community. "In the valleys surrounding the hills where we are, there are about 5,000 Italians, who follow us like baby chicks with a brooding hen. We hope we shall be able to do them some good. Although they have been neglected, they have not lost their traditional faith. They love the Madonna, and she has preserved for them a glimmer of hope."

Mother Cabrini and her Sisters spent time in many Italian homes during her stay. "With a loving heart," she wrote, "honest bread, a plate of spaghetti, wine and a mouthful of fruit is an exquisite feast. In the vision of the Lord, the humblest abode, illuminated with the faces of children, is a palace."

In 1910 the first mission on Beacon Hill was forced to close due to a regrade. Mother Cabrini returned to Seattle and threw herself into a new project: a school. Seattle was in the midst of a tremendous building boom and property was hard to come by. One day Mother Cabrini spread out a map of the city and pointed to a spot, telling the Sisters to go and

A Hymn Piercing the Darkness: A Prayer inspired by St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

God of our Wandering Ancestors,
I am an immigrant, a refugee,
an exile from heaven.
You made America a place of immigrants and inspired Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini and her sisters,
welcoming and comforting the immigrant,
helping to make this nation a home for our children.

Mother Cabrini went down into the mines to meet immigrant workers where they were, her hymns piercing the darkness.

But there are dark places I fear to go,
people I fear to meet.

Fill me with the words that emboldened your shining saint: I have the strength for everything through God who empowers me.

May it be said of me that, like Mother Cabrini,
I treated the stranger not as an alien,
but as a brother or a sister,
greeting them with an embrace and a song of joy.

And when my days on Earth are done, may I be greeted by one such as she,
by a hymn piercing even the darkness of death,
welcoming me to God's kingdom,
an exile no longer.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, pray for us. Amen.

look there. They protested that there was nothing available in that part of town, but nevertheless they went the next day and returned saying, "Oh, Mother, we went exactly where you told us to go, and found a little paradise on earth!" Mother Cabrini replied, "I knew it was a beautiful place; I saw it in a dream last night." And that was how the site of Sacred Heart Villa, now Villa Academy, was acquired!

On August 11, 1915, Mother Cabrini visited Seattle for the third time. She hoped to establish a foundling home and settled on the Perry Hotel as the ideal site for this new mission. The Perry happened to be a luxury hotel and not for sale. But things not being for sale had never stopped Mother Cabrini before.

Acquiring the building was only the first of many challenges. The residents of First Hill were not pleased when word got out that she was establishing a foundling home in the neighborhood. Mother Cabrini suggested a hospital instead—but it was a poor location for a hospital, said some, and Seattle already had Providence Hospital. The dilemma created tension between Mother Cabrini and Bishop O'Dea for the first time in their long friendship. In the end, however, Mother Cabrini prevailed. Columbus Sanitarium—later Cabrini Hospital—opened and served the Seattle community for many years.

By this time, Mother Cabrini's own life was drawing to a close. She left Seattle in late 1916. After a short visit to Los Angeles, she went to Chicago, where she died on December 22, 1917.

Upon her death, Bishop O'Dea wrote: "She was the valiant woman.... Probably no daughter of Holy Mother Church in the present century has accomplished so much in so short a time for the honor and glory of God and the salvation of souls as Mother F. X. Cabrini."

An Italian baron who had known her well simply remarked, "Mother Cabrini was a great man."

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER During the month of November, when we pray for our beloved dead, our bulletin covers include the names of those who have left legacies large and small to St. James Cathedral in their wills over the past thirty years. Each year, bequests allow the Cathedral to carry out its mission of prayer and service here on First Hill.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in memory of Irene Telmo on the 5th anniversary of her death, from her son Edgardo. Flowers at the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the North Transept last Sunday were offered in loving memory of Teresita Guerrero on the first anniversary of her death

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO IS OPEN after the 10:00am Mass in Cathedral Hall. All proceeds for November go to the Cathedral Kitchen.

THANKSGIVING DAY FOOD DRIVE As in years past, please consider bringing donations of canned food to the Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:30am. Your generosity will support Cathedral Kitchen and the Food Bank at St. Mary's. Thank you!

ADVENT CANDLES While supplies last! Next Sunday, November 26, after the 10 and Noon Masses, and at the Advent Bazaar, the young women of our Jubilate! Ensemble will be selling beautifully packaged Advent candles to benefit their pilgrimage to Rome in Lent, 2018. Be sure to stop by and pick up a set of candles for a good cause!

THE ADVENT GIVING TREE is now in the Cathedral (by the Marion and Terry doors) and at Coffee Hour. This week, there are tags for the PREPARES program, working with young families in our area, and the Youth Migrant Project, that works with migrant families in the Skagit Valley. Take a tag, buy the gift, then return it to the Parish Office, the Bookstore or at Coffee Hour. Thank you for your generosity and spirit of giving!

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of Christ the King in Seattle, St. Cecilia in Stanwood and Bainbridge Island, and St. Columban in Yelm.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Almost everyone needs a little help sometime, but it can be hard to swallow pride and accept help. Recently a sweet and caring grandma who had herself been helped by SVdP called the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) and asked us to help her granddaughter and great-grandbaby as both had been very sick. Grandma said they needed “some good nutrition” that they could not get enough of at their neighborhood food bank. We called the granddaughter but she refused our help. We talked with grandma again, knowing that grandmas can be very persuasive. A few days later, the granddaughter called us back and happily accepted our help, which made us happy, too. Your donations make such help possible – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME Save water by taking shorter showers and not letting the water run continuously while brushing teeth or shaving. In this way we can help bring a future in which impoverished populations around the world will have affordable access to a clean source of this God-given necessity of life.

BYRD ENSEMBLE CONCERT—A CLASSIC CHRISTMAS. Saturday, November 25 at 8:00pm, join the Byrd Ensemble for a festive Christmas program of traditional carol arrangements by English composers. The program features Benjamin Britten’s famous Ceremony of Carols with harp, Gustav Holst’s Four Old English Carols and traditional Christmas carols for your family to enjoy! Information and passes at www.byrdensemble.com.

SAVE THE DATE FOR READINGS AND CAROLS Friday, December 15 at 7:30pm. In the soft glow of candlelight, readings from Holy Scripture tell the ancient story of Christ’s birth. The Cathedral’s youth and adult choirs are joined by the Cathedral Brass (including musicians from Seattle Symphony and Pacific Northwest Ballet) and two organs to perform jubilant music for the Advent and Christmas seasons. Father Michael G. Ryan, presider.

STAR LIGHT: THE EPIPHANY PARTY FOR CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES will be on Saturday, January 6, 2018 from 10am to 1pm in Cathedral Hall. Meet the Magi, make a star or two, take a swing at a piñata, and more! RSVP by January 2 to Theresa Van de Ven, tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-219-5822.

PAX CHRISTI PEACE AND JUSTICE GROUP If you are interested in learning about and/or joining the St. James Pax Christi peace and justice group, contact Hunt Hoffman at hhoffman@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation, you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by going to the RCIA website. Information, Kathleen McCabe, 206-382-2018.

YOUTH MINISTRY

ARE YOU A TEEN AND COME TO SUNDAY MORNING MASS? Youth Ministry is now offering a Sunday morning gathering for youth in grades 9 through 12 who want to share their faith, have fun and connect with other Cathedral teens. Come join us this Sunday from 11:00am to 11:45am in Room 211 of O’Dea High School. Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082.

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT. As the holidays approach, we’ll be taking time to think about what good mental health looks like, how to promote it, and how to help others who may be struggling. Come join us for a lively, informative youth night from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

For Catholics in their 20s and 30s

THIRD SUNDAY SOCIAL Join other young adults in their 20s and 30s TONIGHT, Sunday evening in the Rectory Parlors for food, drink and fellowship from 6:30-8pm. Don’t miss it! Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082.

ST. JAMES LIT Our third St. James literature group will meet to discuss two more short stories written by Catholic authors: “Babylon Revisited” by F. Scott Fitzgerald and “The Cheater’s Guide to Love” by Junot Díaz on Tuesday, November 21 at 7pm at Optimism Brewing. For information on how to get a copy of the stories or to RSVP, contact Hunt Hoffman, hhoffman@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!). Registration cards can be found in the vestibule and at the welcome table in Cathedral Hall. You can also register online at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

ROSARY All are welcome to join with a group of parishioners who pray the rosary together in the Chapel, Monday through Saturday at 7:40am.

BAPTISM OF INFANTS & YOUNG CHILDREN (under the age of 7) is celebrated monthly at one of the weekend Masses. To prepare for this most important sacrament, parents and godparents participate in a series of classes to update their understanding of baptism, to reflect on their responsibility to guide their children in the practice of the faith, and to learn about the many ways our parish supports families. Please allow at least two months for preparation. Information, Julianna Castro, 206-619-0816.

SUNDAY GIVING AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL 2018

The Inaugural World Day of the Poor

Sunday, November 19, 2017

In his apostolic letter to close the Year of Mercy, Pope Francis suggested the Catholic Church set aside one day each year when communities can “reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel.” He designated this day as the “World Day of the Poor.” It will be celebrated on the thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary time (two Sundays before the season of Advent each year.) Today, Sunday, November 19, 2017, is the inaugural World Day of the Poor.

“It would be a day to help communities and each of the baptized to reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel and that, as long as Lazarus lies at the door of our homes (cf. Lk 16:19-21), there can be no justice or social peace. This Day will also represent a genuine form of new evangelization (cf. Mt 11:5) which can renew the face of the Church as She perseveres in her perennial activity of pastoral conversion and witness to mercy.”

– Pope Francis

5 WAYS TO OBSERVE THE WORLD DAY OF THE POOR FROM CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

1. PRAY FOR THE POOR. There are so many people who need our prayers. If you're overwhelmed and not sure where to start, try praying with your newsfeed. As you see headlines about what's happening around the world, pause and pray for the people affected by those stories.
2. PRACTICE THE CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY. The Corporal Works of Mercy are drawn from Jesus' life and teachings. They call us to: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick and imprisoned, bury the dead and give alms to the poor. Pope Francis added a new work of mercy: to care for God's creation. The Corporal Works of Mercy offer a clear model and starting point for how to care for our neighbors in need.
3. MAKE CARING FOR THE POOR PART OF YOUR ROUTINE. Do you buy coffee, chocolate or Christmas gifts? One way to support low-income workers around the world is by buying things you use on a regular basis from organizations that pay a fair wage. If you drink coffee or tea, look for a fair trade label, which means that the farmers who harvest the coffee or tea are paid fairly and work in safe conditions. As you begin your Christmas shopping, consider buying gifts from around the world that are produced and traded ethically.
4. LEARN ABOUT THE CAUSES OF POVERTY AND WORK TO CHANGE THEM. There are many reasons why people around the world are trapped in poverty: lack of jobs, war and climate change that affects what farmers can grow are only a few examples. We can raise our voices together to ask our government to support policies that help address these causes of poverty.
5. SUPPORT THE CHURCH'S OUTREACH TO THE POOR. One way to care for the poor around the world is to support the work of Catholic Relief Services, the international humanitarian agency of the Catholic community in the United States. CRS is motivated by the example of Jesus Christ to assist poor and suffering people in more than 100 countries. Learn more and get involved at crs.org/world-day-poor.

Mass of Thanksgiving Day

Thursday, November 23

9:30am

During the Mass of Thanksgiving Day, all are invited to bring forward gifts of non-perishable food items for the poor of our community. The word "eucharist" means "thanksgiving." What better way to celebrate this day than by coming together as a parish family to give thanks to God?

Father Ryan will preside at the Mass.

A Prayer for the Thanksgiving Table

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

The eyes of all creatures look to you to give them their food in due time.
When you give it to them,
they gather it;
when you open your hand,
they are filled with good things.
(Psalm 104)

GIVING THANKS

We thank you, Lord,
for this nation,
for the beauty
and fullness of the land,
and the challenge of the cities.
We thank you for this family,
for our friends,

for our work and for our rest,
for our homes.
We thank you:

(Those present may offer their own prayers of thanksgiving.)

For all that we have spoken and for all that we keep in our hearts, accept our thanksgiving on this day.

We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CATHOLIC 101

Throughout the coming year, one Wednesday of each month will be devoted to exploring our Catholic faith and our rich tradition

September 20: WHO WAS STANLEY ROTHER?

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

BISHOP DANIEL MUEGGENBORG, Seattle's new auxiliary bishop, launches the series, sharing the story of the soon-to-be-beatified Stanley Rother, American priest, martyr, and defender of the poor, and also shares how this Oklahoma priest inspired his own vocation

October 18: MOTHER CABRINI 101

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

CORINNA LAUGHLIN, Director of Liturgy, shares the story of Mother Cabrini and explores her legacy, as we prepare to mark the 100th anniversary of the saint's death

November 29: MARY AS A MODEL OF PRAYER

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

VICTORIA RIES, Ph.D., helps us prepare for the season of Advent by reflecting on Mary as a model of prayer

January 31: THE CITY OF ROME 101

7:00pm, Cathedral Hall

FATHER TOM LUCAS, SJ, helps us prepare for the Cathedral pilgrimage—whether you're going in person or just in spirit!—by exploring the history and the magic of the city of Rome.

February 21: THE AGE OF SAINTS

7:00pm, Cathedral Hall

FATHER MIKE RASCHKO provides historical background into the holy places and shrines we'll encounter on the pilgrimage, including stories of the great reformers Dominic and Catherine, Francis and Clare.

March 21: DEATH AND RESURRECTION

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

TRICIA WITTMAN-TODD, M.Div. helps us prepare for Holy Week with a talk on death and resurrection.

April 11: EUCHARIST AS EMBODIMENT OF LOVE

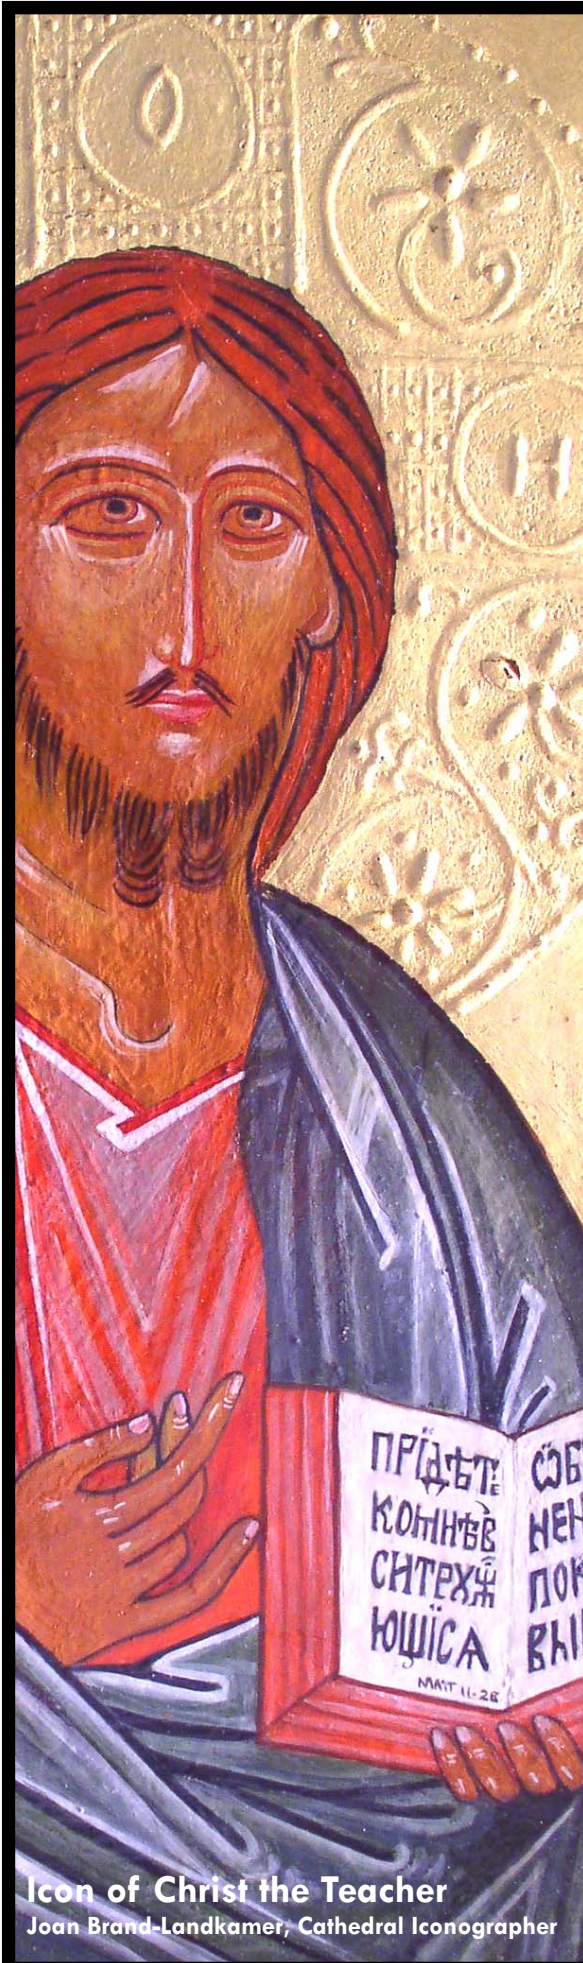

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

FATHER MICHAEL DRISCOLL, professor of theology at Notre Dame, explores the connections between Eucharist and life. How we pray shapes what we believe and how we act as Christians living in the world.

May 23: MY LIFE WITH MARY

7:00pm, Holy Names Room

FATHER RYAN draws the series to a close reflecting on the many aspects of devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary

ADVENT 2017

Advent Liturgies

To mark this holy season of longing and waiting, we change some of our usual liturgical practices. The procession is modified and the altar is decorated more simply. During the liturgies, a greater role is given to silence, to the chanting of psalms, and to the ringing of bells. In accordance with a very ancient tradition in the church, the use of the organ is reduced during Advent.

Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is a devotion Catholics have adopted from the Lutheran tradition. Prior to each Mass, the priest gathers with the liturgical ministers for the prayer and candle-lighting associated with the wreath. With each succeeding Sunday of Advent, an additional candle is lit on the wreath, a symbol of the dawning of the light of Christ into the world.

Advent Bazaar

On Sunday morning, December 3, after the 8am, 10am, and Noon Masses, we have an opportunity to get started on our Christmas shopping while supporting a number of great causes! Jubilate! Young Women's Ensemble, L'Arche, Catholic Relief Services, the Association of Catholic Childhood, and others will be selling items to support those in need.

The Giving Tree

Stop by Cathedral Hall or the Cathedral (outside the Mary shrine) to pick a tag off our annual Giving Tree. Each tag contains a gift wish from someone in need in our community. It's easy and fun to participate: simply shop for the gift and return it after Sunday Mass or to the Parish Office by Sunday, December 17. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

Catholic 101: Mary, Model of Prayer

Wednesday, November 29, 7:00pm, Holy Names Room. Dr. Victoria Ries helps us prepare for the season of Advent by reflecting on Mary as a model for Christian prayer. This presentation is part of our year-long series, Catholic 101, devoting one Wednesday of each month to an exploration of Catholic life, tradition, and teaching.

Young Adults Sock Drive

Our 14th Annual "Warm Hearts and Soles" Advent Sock Drive is underway! Our Goal: 2,018 pairs of socks for homeless men. Please drop socks off at coffee hour after 8:00am, 10:00am, and 12 Noon Masses in Advent. If you're ordering socks online, have them shipped directly to St. James Cathedral! Information, Curtis Leighton, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org.

Advent Music

Saturday, November 25 at 8:00pm

Byrd Ensemble: Classic Christmas

Join the Byrd Ensemble for a festive Christmas program of traditional carol arrangements by the finest English composers. The program features Benjamin Britten's famous Ceremony of Carols, Gustav Holst's Four Old English Carols and traditional Christmas carols for your family to enjoy! Information and passes, www.byrdensemble.com.

Saturday, December 9 at 8:00 pm

Nowell Sing We

With roots in antiquity and beyond, winter celebrations have a long history in European culture. The Medieval Women's Choir provides a uniquely medieval musical celebration of Christmas. Information and passes at www.medievalwomenschoir.org.

Friday, December 15 at 7:30pm

A Service of Readings & Carols

St. James presents the annual Service of Readings and Carols. In the soft glow of candlelight, youth readers tell the story of Christ's birth. The Cathedral's youth and adult choirs are joined by the Cathedral Brass and two organs to perform jubilant music for the Advent and Christmas seasons.

Sunday, December 31 at 11:00 pm

New Year's Eve Concert: The Americans in Paris

Ring in the New Year with Seattle's longest-running classical New Year's Eve concert, featuring the Cathedral Choir singing music from significant Parisian churches including Notre Dame and St. Sulpice. The program for two organs and choir includes works by Dupré, Widor, Vierne, and others. This year's concert marks the return of the "midnight surprise"! Get your passes online at www.stjames-cathedral.org/music or call 206-382-4874.

Information, 206-382-4874 or

Light: Contemplative Prayer

On Friday, December 1 at 6:30pm, you are invited to join in this beautiful prayer of music, candlelight, and silence. Set aside a Friday evening this Advent to experience the meditative, peaceful spirit of Taizé.

Madre de las Americas

Saturday, December 2, 11:30am, Entrance of the Dancers and Mariachi. 12:10pm, Mass with Archbishop Sartain. The Hispanic community of western Washington comes together at this celebration in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Mother of the Americas. All are welcome.

Advent Evening of Reflection

Thursday, December 1, 2016, 6:45pm-9:00pm, Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street. Enter the stillness of Advent by joining fellow parishioners for an evening of quiet prayer. Rosanne Michaels of the Cathedral staff will guide us through a time of prayerful silence and reflection, while parishioner Anne Sokol Philpott will provide musical meditations on the violin. Information, or to RSVP, Rosanne Michaels, 206 654-4658, or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

Murder in the Cathedral

On Tuesday, December 5 at 7:00pm, you are invited to explore T. S. Eliot's classic meditation on the martyrdom of St. Thomas a Becket. Eliot's play is a wonderful reflection for the Advent and Christmas seasons. Corinna Laughlin will discuss the poem and Scott Webster will read key passages. Reading the play in advance (it's available in the Cathedral Bookstore) is helpful but not necessary.

The Immaculate Conception

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be observed on Thursday, December 7 at 5:30pm Mass and on Friday, December 8 at the 8:15 am, 10:10am, and 5:30 pm Masses.

Simbang Gabi Celebration

Saturday, December 9, 11:00am Mass. Join Bishop Elizondo and participants from some 80 parishes for the festive opening celebration of Simbang Gabi, a novena of Masses in which we prepare for Christmas in company with Mary. This colorful and prayerful Mass includes the blessing of parols (traditional star shaped lanterns from the Philippines) and helps us to focus our Christmas celebration on the coming of Jesus, Light of the World. All are welcome.

Communal Reconciliation Services will be held on Saturday, December 16 at 4:00pm and Monday, December 18 at 7:30pm. During these beautiful services of readings, reflection and song, we will open ourselves to experience the gift of God's gracious and loving forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance. It has long been a tradition in the church to confess one's sins before celebrating the great feast of Christmas. These will be ideal times to do so.

Greening of the Cathedral

On Wednesday, December 20 at 6:15pm, Cathedral Young Adults are invited to help decorate the Cathedral for Christmas. This is a fun evening for anyone in their 20's or 30's to come together to make the Cathedral even more beautiful for the Christmas season. We'll start with pizza and cider and then head over to the Cathedral. This is a favorite event for young adults — we hope you can join us! RSVP required! Information or to RSVP, Curtis Leighton, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org.

Vespers: Evening Prayer

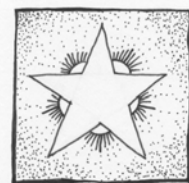

4:00pm Sunday afternoons. You are invited to join in the universal prayer of the Church, the Liturgy of the Hours, a forty minute service of sung prayer concluding with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This beautiful candlelit service is the perfect conclusion to a December Sunday.

Cathedral Kids Epiphany Party

Saturday, January 6, 11:00am — 2:00pm, Cathedral Hall. It's really for the whole family — don't miss it! There will be activities, games, lunch, caroling, piñatas and more. RSVP required. Please contact Theresa Van De Ven with the number of children and adults attending, 206-219-5822 or tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org.

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Mass Schedules

This year, December 24 falls on a Sunday. Please note that the morning Masses on December 24 at 8, 10, and 12 will be Masses for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, not Christmas. There will be no Vespers service on December 24. The Christmas Masses will begin on December 24 at 5:30pm with the Vigil Mass of Christmas, followed by the Christmas Mass during the Night at 10:00pm (please note the time!). The Masses of Christmas Day on Monday, December 25 will be 8:00am, 10:00am, 12:00 Noon, and 5:30pm. Solemn Vespers of Christmas will be at 4:00pm on Christmas Day. Find out more at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
