chant, Veni Sancte Spiritus

*Come, thou Holy Spirit, come!
And from thy celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!*

*Come, thou Father of the poor!
Come, thou source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine!*

*Thou, of comforters the best;
Thou the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;*

*In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.*

*O most blessed light divine,
Shine within these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill!*

*Where thou art not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.*

*Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:*

*Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.*

And confess thee, evermore
In thy sevenfold gift descend.*

Give them thy salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end.

Thank you to all who have turned in a pledge card. As you can see, we still have a long way to go... we're only about halfway there! Please turn in your pledge today and be a part of this important appeal! If you're not sure what to give, would you consider a gift of $365 over a period of several months (that's just $1 a day)? There are many options available to make it easy and convenient to give. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops have stated: "In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation." In this important election year, we are challenged as Catholics to reflect on the issues in light of our faith and our church's social teachings. Please join us for the third in a three-part series on Faithful Citizenship: Formation and Exercise of Conscience presented by Helen Oesterle, Monday, May 12, 7:00 pm, Cathedral Place, fourth floor. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org

WOULD YOU CONSIDER BEING A RCIA SPONSOR?

We continue to have many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable, a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). Sponsor Information Meeting: May 14. The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

ONE WHO SERVES

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

HELP CREATE A COMMUNITY OF COMPASSION

Are you interested in joining other St. James parishioners to provide companionship and assistance to persons living with AIDS or MS? Multifaith Works has an unprecedented number of people waiting for volunteers. Consider attending one of their Volunteer Orientations to be held at Multifaith Works (115 16th Ave, Seattle) at 6:30 pm on Monday, May 12 or Wednesday, May 14. The orientations are only one hour and are purely informational. They will be followed by a day-long CareTeam training at First Baptist Church on June 14. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 106-654-4640.

VOLUNTEER CHORE SERVICE ORIENTATION VCS helps connect parishioners with people who need chore services and companionship. Volunteers help to ensure that elders and individuals with disabilities and/or long-term illnesses can remain in their homes among familiar surroundings rather than going to an institutionalized setting. In March, our VCS volunteers contributed nearly 200 hours of direct service. If you are interested in this rewarding ministry, please come to the Orientation to be held in the Mother Cabrini Room (basement level) of the Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday, May 13 at 6:30 pm Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640.

PREGNANCY SUPPORT MINISTRY The U.S. Bishops have stated: "The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society." Pregnancy Support Ministry is dedicated to helping foster human life by providing practical assistance and emotional and spiritual support for pregnant and newly parenting women. The need is great, and we are looking for additional volunteers to join us. If you can cook a meal, or drive a client to an appointment, or help with light chores, we need you! Next Training May 19, 2008. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN WESTERN WASHINGTON

A Future Full of Hope

The Good News Continues!

- 33 men, ages 25 to 54, have been ordained to the priesthood over the past decade.
- The 2006 Ordination class produced seven men, the largest class in 30 years. Two men were ordained in 2007.
- Currently, 32 men are studying for the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Seattle.
- Four men plan to be ordained in June 2008.

This is great news for the future of your Church in Western Washington because all of us, no matter where we live, have experienced the need for more priests. The Archdiocese of Seattle continues to be blessed by the number of seminarians each year who are called to share their gifts – a promising Future Full of Hope.

An additional reason to be generous to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal...

The Rainbow Schools

Every dollar that comes in over and above the $255,000 goal set for us by the Archdiocese comes back to the parish in the form of a rebate. This year, the rebate will help pay our annual subsidy to the Rainbow Schools. St. James Cathedral continues more than $200,000 annually to support five inner-city schools—St. Joseph, St. Therese, St. George, St. Edward, and St. Paul. Through the Rainbow Schools program, our own Cathedral kids are able to attend Catholic school and receive special consideration in admissions as well as in-parish tuition rates. On April 26-27, five of these 50+ kids talked about what's special about their school at one of the Masses. It's your generosity that makes it possible for our Cathedral kids to attend Catholic school. Please be generous in this year's Appeal!

MY NAME IS MARÍA AND I AM IN THE SECOND GRADE. I am also a parishioner here at St. James. I am going to talk about my school, St. George. St. George is a Rainbow school. It's a great school because I have a lot of fun and lots of great teachers that teach me things I never knew. My school even has lots of people from all over the world. I really love my principal, Mrs. O'Leary. At St. George we attend Mass once a week. Each week at the Mass we donate food to the food bank. We learn so much about our religion and about things like math, the rainforest, music and countries. My teacher sings opera and we wrote an opera this year with the third grade class.

I also want to talk about the Annual Appeal. This year, any extra money that parishioners give to the appeal will come back to St. James. And St. James is going to give it to the Rainbow Schools! This money will help students like me go to a Rainbow School. It's important for people to give a lot of money this year because other students from St. James will be able to go to any of the Rainbow Schools. Right now there are 50 kids from St. James who go to a Rainbow School.

Thanks for supporting the Annual Appeal!

María Ganz, 2nd Grade,
St. George School

ON BEHALF OF THE KIDS WHO GO TO ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL ON CAPITOL HILL AND OTHER RAINBOW SCHOOLS, I'm here to say Thank You! I'm Payton, and I am 12.

I am lucky to be a parishioner here and a sixth grader at St. Joe's. My family and I go to Mass here, and so far, I have had every one of my sacraments here.

But every day I get the chance to live out the purpose of those sacraments in my school community. Thank you for that chance!

Thank you for the chance to learn from loving teachers. My teachers are really understanding and really smart.

Thank you for the chance to pray with others – like when the 6th grade sponsored a day of the Stations of the Cross for the school and our neighborhood this past Lent. Thank you for the chance to enjoy my classes, like math, literature, religion and even band. I play the saxophone.

Thank you for the chance to make good friends with the other kids who go to school with me.

Because of your kindness, lots of kids are able to be a part of this parish AND go to St. Joe's and other Rainbow Schools. We are your altar servers, your youth ushers and readers, your children's choir singers and maybe even someone sitting in a pew next you! So...

THANK YOU for ALL of this!

Payton Buchholz, 6th Grade,
St. Joseph School

Befriending the Stranger

AN INTRODUCTION TO JEAN VANIER
AND THE L'ARCHE MOVEMENT

In anticipation of Jean Vanier's visit to St. James Cathedral on June 22, you are invited to attend a series of special events related to Jean Vanier and the development of the L'Arche communities for the developmentally disabled. L'Arche (French for "the ark") is a lay-led movement that creates communities with and for people with disabilities.

"In the communities of l'Arche we live and journey together, men and women with disabilities and those who feel called to share their lives with them. We are all learning the pain and joy of community life, where the weakest members open hearts to compassion and lead us into a deeper union with Jesus. We are learning to befriend them, and through and with them, to befriend Jesus" (Jean Vanier).

BEFRIENDING THE STRANGER: SHARING L'ARCHE STORIES

Thursday, May 15, 7:30pm, Cathedral Hall

Learn more about Jean Vanier and L'Arche, how it was developed, what its mission is, and how that mission is lived out here in Seattle. Members of our local community will be present to share their stories and answer questions. It will be a truly inspiring evening you won't want to miss! Information Helen Oesterle, 382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

CATHEDRAL BOOK GROUP

Tuesday, May 27, 7:00pm, Mother Mary Rose Room

Join in a lively discussion of Jean Vanier's newest book, Befriending the Stranger. # Top Ten Ways to Spend Your Rebate

Many of us will be receiving an "Economic Stimulus" tax rebate check from the Federal Government in the next few weeks. Just in case you are having trouble coming up with a way to "stimulate the local economy," here are ten (admittedly biased) suggestions:

10. Buy a CD player for a homebound senior parishioner.
9. Help a homeless family move into an apartment with a gift to the Hunthausen Fund.
8. Provide a meat entrée for the Cathedral Kitchen.

7. Buy copies of the ESL Cookbook for all your friends.
6. Give a child a scholarship for the Children's Music Program.
5. Provide Metro bus tickets to be given out by the Solanus Casey Center.
4. Buy a few tankfuls of gas for the Parish vans.
3. Double your Annual Catholic Appeal pledge.
2. Help underwrite the cost of teaching materials for our Sunday School.
1. Drop a really big check into the collection basket next Sunday.
