

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

June 12, 2016

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!
St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's altar.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Last week, we had visitors from Hanover, PA; Fargo, ND; Corona, CA; as well as New Zealand and Rwanda. The winner of our drawing was from Sullivan, MO. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

I will come to the altar of God,
the God of my joy. (Psalm 43)

THE CATHEDRAL'S ALTAR (1994)

The Cathedral's altar is the work of many hands. The altar itself was created by Harold Vogel, incorporating marble panels representing Eucharistic symbols of wheat and grapes by four different artists. The two panels on the west side are from the Cathedral's original high altar (1907), and are the work of an unknown Italian artist. Those on the south side are by Northwest sculptor Mary Jo Anderson of Oregon; those on the east are by New York artist Randall Rosenthal (who also created the Cathedral's ambo), and those on the north are by Alaskan Inuit sculptor Larry Ahvakana. Each artist brought a fresh, individual interpretation to the theme. The panels they created are unique and varied: a wonderful emblem for the diversity of the people who gather around this altar day after day to celebrate the Eucharist!

Under the Cathedral's altar are relics of the saints, including St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. The relics are an important reminder that when we celebrate the Eucharist, we are not alone: rather, we pray in company with the "cloud of witnesses" who have gone before us in faith.

Above the altar is a skylight, also added in 1994. The oculus Dei ("eye of God"), with its inscription from Christ's Last Supper words in Luke's Gospel – "I am in your midst as one who serves" – gently reminds us that just as we find Christ truly present in the sacrament of his body and blood, we will find him also in our service of those in need.

YEAR OF MERCY We welcome all pilgrims to St. James Cathedral during this Year of Mercy. Whether you are a visitor or a regular at St. James, you can walk through the Holy Doors of Mercy, the four bronze doors at the Cathedral's west entrance. The center doors are opened before and after each Mass. A self-guided pilgrimage of prayer, The Way of Mercy, is available as well—pick up a flyer just inside the Holy Doors.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU We were asked to help a man who recently had a mental breakdown. He had been homeless for many years. Nearly all his possessions were still in storage and soon to be auctioned off by the storage company for nonpayment of storage fees. Loss of his possessions would have been more than he could handle. We helped pay the storage fees, and a family member arranged to move all the items to another family member's home for safekeeping while the man recovers. Your financial support made this possible – thank you! Would you like to become a "contributing member" of SVdP at the Cathedral? Information, Christine Henderson, 253-973-1441 or christinehsvdp@gmail.com.

NEW! A VISUAL ARTS DAY CAMP FOR YOUTH ENTERING GRADES 7 THROUGH 12 As a participant in the Art of Faith camp you will: learn about the history, science and making of stained glass; study the stained glass of the Cathedral; visit several stained glass installations; and make your own small stained glass piece. Information, Brenda Bellamy, 206-274-3108 or bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH MUSIC CHOIR CAMP – AUGUST 8-14 St. James Cathedral presents its annual youth music choir camp where children—ages 6-14—have opportunities to sing, laugh, and play in a beautiful and welcoming environment. Each day, choristers will learn beautiful music both modern and ancient, enter into prayerful reflection in the service of morning praise, and share fellowship with fellow students in a variety of activities. More information and a video at www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Anthony in Renton and St. Anthony Mission in Carnation; and Immaculate Heart of Mary in Kelso and Sedro Woolley.

Opportunities to Serve

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED The Cathedral Kitchen needs a few more substitute gleaners to help when our other gleaners are away. Gleaners go out in the morning, once a week, usually as partners, to four local supermarkets and collect food (fruits, vegetables, milk, deli items, etc.) These items may be used for our daily meals or passed on to St. Mary's Food Bank. It's a fun and rewarding outreach! Information, Teddi Callahan at tcallahan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-264-2091.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE OPENING We currently need volunteers one weekend a month following the Saturday evening Mass, and one weekend a month following the 8:00am Mass. If you love books and enjoy the opportunity to meet Cathedral visitors and regulars, the Bookstore might be a good fit for you! Some computer skills required. All training provided! Information, Maria Laughlin, mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

BUILD COMMUNITY AT ST. JAMES AT COFFEE HOUR! Do you have a passion for hospitality? If so, St. James is looking for more Coffee Hour volunteers! We need helping hands to help serve muffins and coffee 9am-10am and 1pm-2:30pm. Information, Tom Frasene, tfrasene@stjames-cathedral.org.

DO YOU WORK WITH STAINED GLASS? Might you be willing to share your expertise with, or loan certain supplies to, the youth participating in this year's Art of Faith camp? This visual arts camp at the Cathedral takes place July 18 – July 22, 2016. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO ENJOYS CHILDREN and who is happy to share their faith? Encourage them to join the Children's Faith Formation team. Catechists lead Sunday morning classes and doorkeepers take attendance and monitor the hallways. Classes take place weekly from September to June. Training, supplies and ongoing support provided. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

INTENTIONAL SERVICE! Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps (JV EnCorps), a program of JVC Northwest, facilitates transformative opportunities for intentional service, community and spiritual formation for older adults committed to social and ecological justice. During their ten months of part-time volunteer service, participants ages 50 and older meet together regularly in community to deepen their spirituality and explore the values of simple living and social and ecological justice. Priority application deadline: August 15. Information, 206-305-8911, email JVSeattle@jvcnorthwest.org, or visit <http://jvencorps.org> to apply.

Holy Things, Holy People

Exploring Catholic history in the Northwest through treasures from the past

PART 38: HAS THE IMMIGRANT KEPT THE FAITH? BY GERALD SHAUGHNESSY

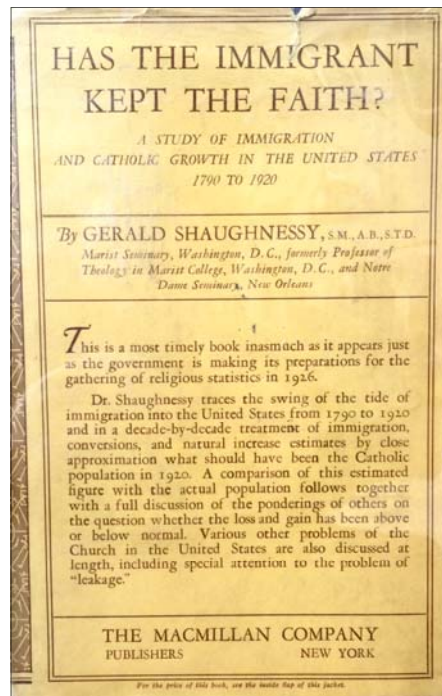

12 JUNE 2016

Each Sunday, as we gather in the Cathedral for Mass, thousands of other Catholics gather in parishes and missions across the Archdiocese of Seattle. In union with the Church throughout the world, we all hear the same readings and offer the same prayers. But we do so in a multitude of languages. Each week in western Washington, Masses are offered in Spanish, Vietnamese, Korean, Swahili, Laotian, Cantonese, Mandarin, Polish, and Samoan, among others. In one of the most diverse parts of the country, we are a diverse Church—a Church of immigrants.

Seattle has always been a Church of immigrants. In the early days of the diocese, clergy gatherings must have been an interesting experience, to say the least, with priests from French Canada, Belgium, France, Germany, and other nations, serving side-by-side. Some were fluent in English; others were struggling to learn it. One of the reasons Bishop Blanchet journeyed to Mexico in search of funds for the newly-established Diocese of Nesqually—rather than the east coast of the United States—was that he was fluent in Spanish, but could hardly speak English at the time!

The diverse and polyglot nature of the diocese must be one reason that Bishop Gerald Shaughnessy, SM was sent to Seattle in 1932 as our fourth Bishop. Born in Massachusetts in 1887, Shaughnessy had never visited Seattle before his appointment—the closest he had come was one visit to California and a short stint as a teacher in Anaconda, Montana (where, coincidentally, one of the students he coached on the basketball team would later become the mother of Archbishop Hunthausen!). Shaughnessy was a Marist and proudly retained his community's initials, "SM," even after he became a bishop.

Shaughnessy was fascinated by statistics, and in his doctoral dissertation at the Catholic University of America, he decided to focus on immigration. In particular, he wanted to test the validity of a common perception about Catholic immigrants in the United States. The narrative went like this: the immigrants who flooded to the United States in the 19th century must have abandoned their Catholic faith in huge numbers. Otherwise, the number of Catholics in the United States would be vastly larger than it was. This narrative was accepted unquestioningly by many Church leaders in the Gerald Shaughnessy's book Has the Immigrant Kept the Faith? was published by Macmillan in 1925. Archives of St. James Cathedral. Shaughnessy would become the Fourth Bishop of Seattle in 1933.

United States (and Rome), and Shaughnessy wanted to find out if it was true. His dissertation was published in 1925 under the provocative title Has the Immigrant Kept the Faith?

In his study, Shaughnessy analyzes the Catholic population in the United States, decade by decade, beginning in 1790, when John Carroll became the first Archbishop of Baltimore. In painstaking detail, he traces waves of immigration from many countries through many years, in the process touching on historical movements that impacted the Catholic Church both in Europe and in the United States. He writes about cholera epidemics, revolutions, persecutions of various kinds, "Know-Nothings," Masons, the California Gold Rush, and financial booms and panics, showing how each of these events retarded or advanced Catholic growth. He compares the population of foreign-born Catholics and the growth of the native-born population, and notes the numbers of conversions to the faith along the way.

In the end, Shaughnessy answers the question "Has the Immigrant Kept the Faith?" with a resounding "yes." "It is due to immigration that the Catholic Church in America today stands out among her sister Churches of other nations, the equal of any, if not indeed superior to all, in loyalty, vitality, fidelity, and stability." But there is more. The Church in the United States, Shaughnessy argues, is unique in the world. "Not another instance in history is recorded, where millions of different races and nationalities, of varied natural prejudices and leanings, made their way to a strange country... there to build up what they found practically non-existent, a flourishing, closely-knit, firmly welded Church."

Perhaps it is not so surprising, after all, that Shaughnessy was appointed Bishop of Seattle in 1933. The Catholic Church in Seattle was exactly what he had described in Has the Immigrant Kept the Faith?: it was a local Church that was alive and thriving, not in spite of the presence of so many immigrants, but precisely because of them.

Camino Seattle

Camino Seattle is back! Join this four-week walking/hiking and prayer event for St. James Cathedral Parish, beginning June 28, 2015 and ending July 26, 2015, the Feast of St. James.

Set your walking/hiking goal!

Pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela come by many routes and from many different places. For Camino Seattle, we will each determine our own mileage goal, based on our time and physical ability. The main point is to set a goal to challenge yourself a bit during these four weeks. We suggest a goal of 60 miles or more – the minimum to receive a compostela in Spain.

Set your prayer goal

Because the Camino to Santiago de Compostela in Spain is both a physical and a spiritual journey, you're also encouraged to bring your own special intentions to your walking, and to set a prayer goal as well. This might be setting aside a few extra minutes each day for quiet prayer, offering a rosary as you walk, or another goal of your own choosing.

Community walks and events

The Camino de Santiago is not just a feat of endurance or a private prayer. It is a community event: a place where people get to know each other. Each week during the Camino, there will be hosted walks across the city as well as some educational opportunities at the Cathedral. Keep an eye on the weekly bulletin for a schedule of these special summer events.

Collecting your stamps

Getting a stamp at each stage of the journey is an important part of the journey for pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela. Each week, you will want to collect stamps to indicate your progress. Cathedral pilgrims can collect their prayer and walking stamps each week at the Cathedral Bookstore. In addition, you can get a bonus "community" stamp each week by participating in a hosted walk or other group event.

Conclusion

The Camino Seattle will conclude on the Feast of St. James, July 26, 2015.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL AND PAGLIACCI PIZZA PRESENT THE 20TH ANNUAL ARCHBISHOP RAYMOND G. HUNTHAUSEN
Charity Golf Tournament & Benefit Dinner

Since 1997, the Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars to support the neediest of our community. This year the event will be held at the Glendale Country Club in Bellevue.

And the need is greater than ever before. This important event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving 150+ hot, nutritious meals every weeknight, all year round, to homeless and low-income men, women, and children in the downtown area. The tournament also supports other important Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

Every dollar given to the Kitchen makes a huge difference. Look at it this way:

Serve one guest for a month	$75
Keep the kitchen open one day	$665
Keep the kitchen open a week.....	$3,325

On behalf of Archbishop Hunthausen and the countless people who are helped through the programs of St. James Cathedral, thank you for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner.
