CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Mother Cabrini, pray for us!

Stories of Mother Cabrini to Mark the 100th Anniversary of the Saint's Death

PART 2 OF 3

12 NOVEMBER 2017

In 1887, Mother Cabrini began to receive invitations to serve in the United States, especially in New York City, where there was a large community of Italian immigrants. But she was unsure. "The world is too small to limit ourselves to one point of the globe," she would say; "I want to embrace it and go everywhere." Her childhood dream of sending missionaries to China was her dream still. At an audience with Pope Leo XIII she asked for his wisdom. He told her, "Not to the East, but to the West. The Institute is still young; it needs help. Go to the United States and you will find the means and a large field of labor." After that, Mother Cabrini never looked back. She immediately prepared to journey west.

Mother Cabrini left for New York with a small group of Sisters on March 23, 1889. Their steamer was full of emigrants, leaving home for good to find a new life in America. As their fellow passengers waved to friends on shore, the Sisters waved, too, even though they knew no one: "We, who saw not one familiar face in the crowd, waved to all of them, seeing in each one of them a cherished fellow human being." After a rough voyage they landed safely in New York on March 31.

Mother Cabrini had no idea that at that moment a letter from Archbishop Corrigan of New York was on its way to Rome, asking her not to come after all. The Sisters' first meeting with the Archbishop was discouraging. He felt that New York did not need another orphanage, and the neighborhood Mother Cabrini had selected was not one that would welcome Italians. He said, "I see no other solution, Mother, than that you and the sisters return to Italy."

They had been in New York only one day and already they were being sent home! Mother Cabrini calmly replied, "No, your Grace, that is impossible. I have come here with the permission of the Holy See, and here I will remain." The Archbishop reluctantly allowed them to remain and open day schools in the Italian neighborhoods.

At that time, Italian immigrants often found it difficult to connect with the Catholic Church in the United States. There were few priests who could hear their confessions in Italian. They also felt excluded by the American parish system, which was often based on national boundaries—the Germans, the

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, 1850-1917

French, the Irish all had their own churches. Those who could not afford "pew rent" were relegated to the back or to a basement. Thus newcomers often felt excluded, and many said to themselves that they would return to the sacraments when they went home again—which could be decades, if it ever happened at all.

Mother Cabrini accepted the call to serve this marginalized community. Instead of going to new lands and preaching the Gospel to those who had never heard it, like St. Francis Xavier, she ended up following Italian emigrants all over the globe, like the shepherd going after the lost sheep. She met them in challenging circumstances—exclusion and rejection, prejudice, misunderstanding, disconnect—and reassured them of the love of God and the embrace of the Church. She and her Sisters shared the immigrant experience, becoming strangers along with them.

Soon Mother Cabrini was criss-crossing the Atlantic, establishing new missions wherever Italians had settled in large numbers. She wrote, "If the Heart of Jesus would grant me the means to build a steamer, I should call it Christopher—bearer of Christ—and I would travel over all the seas with a community of sisters, young and not so young, to make known the name of Christ among those who do not know it, or who have forgotten it."

Though she never lost her fear of the water, she became quite an experienced sailor. On one voyage, the sailors nicknamed her "the sea-wolf." Later on, she could become a bit impatient with the Sisters for whom sea travel was new. Some were so seasick that they simply crawled under the covers, convinced they were about to die. She coaxed them into eating something, and when they did not respond to this treatment she resorted to "one of the only remedies... a loud scolding, a call to sanity."

After New York came many other missions: Nicaragua, New Orleans, Buenos Aires, Paris, Chicago, Scranton, and Denver. And then, in 1903, Seattle. TO BE CONTINUED...

Ministries Fair

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2017 after the morning Masses in Cathedral Hall

Let us work, let us work,
for we have all eternity
in which to rest.

—St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, 1850-1917

On Sunday, November 12, we have our annual MINISTRIES FAIR after each of our morning Masses. This is our chance to explore the many opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. About 1,000 (!!) people volunteer in dozens of different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate the ministries that make St. James the great parish it is and find out how you can share your own unique gifts with the community.

This year, as we mark the centennial of Mother Cabrini's death, let's follow her advice: "Life is so short... accept the opportunity to perform any task that may present itself. I can do all things through him who strengthens me!"

Mass of Thanksgiving Day

Thursday, November 23

9:30am

During the Mass of Thanksgiving Day, all are invited to bring forward gifts of non-perishable food items for the poor of our community. The word "eucharist" means "thanksgiving." What better way to celebrate this day than by coming together as a parish family to give thanks to God?

Father Ryan will preside at the Mass.

A Prayer for the Thanksgiving Table

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

The eyes of all creatures look to you to give them their food in due time.
When you give it to them,
they gather it;
when you open your hand,
they are filled with good things.
(Psalm 104)

GIVING THANKS

We thank you, Lord,
for this nation,
for the beauty
and fullness of the land,
and the challenge of the cities.
We thank you for this family,
for our friends,

for our work and for our rest,
for our homes.
We thank you:

(Those present may offer their own prayers of thanksgiving.)

For all that we have spoken and for all that we keep in our hearts, accept our thanksgiving on this day.

We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The report details not only the dollars and cents, but also some of the ministries and activities made possible by your support.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

Our fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017, our total parish income was $4,854,567.

This came from:

- Sunday and holy day collections (59%)
- Various gifts, grants, and bequests (24%)
- Fundraisers (5%)
- Annual Catholic Appeal rebate (4%)
- Business income (including rental of parking spaces and reception rooms, Cathedral Bookstore, etc.) (8%)

Total expenses for the year were $4,777,693.

They included:

- Salaries, benefits and other personnel-related expenses such as security (57%)
- Parish assessment by the Archdiocese (5%)
- Our annual assessment to support five central area Catholic schools and parish scholarships for Rainbow Schools and high schools (8%)
- Various operating costs for the maintenance and improvement of the Cathedral, other parish buildings, and the grounds (29%)

This left us with a surplus in 2016-2017 of $76,874. Last year at this time, we projected a deficit of $192,525, so this is extremely good news—but it could be misleading. It was several unexpected and extremely generous bequests that made all the difference.

But as you will see from the budget to the right, we are anticipating another large deficit ($301,080) in the coming year. The reason for this is that our ordinary expenses (insurance premiums, utilities, archdiocesan assessments, salaries and benefits for staff) continue to increase, and so do major maintenance costs on our beautiful, 110-year-old Cathedral (e.g., the recent repair and painting of the Chapel, the major restoration currently underway on the towers, and a long-deferred upgrade to the 70-year-old Rectory elevator). All this to say that our income doesn't always keep pace with our expenses!

During the past fiscal year, more than 1,100 Sunday and regular daily liturgies were celebrated, not counting special liturgies for Holy Days, the Sacred Triduum, and ecumenical and interfaith services. Fifty-nine children and six adults were baptized; thirteen people baptized in other Christian traditions made a Profession of Faith and were received into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. Twenty-seven confirmations were celebrated; thirty children received their First Communion. During the year 40 weddings and 27 funerals were celebrated.

LITURGY, MUSIC, & SPECIAL EVENTS

As the Cathedral Church, we are privileged to host special events which gather Catholics from across Western Washington, including Rites of Election, the Chrism Mass, Ordinations, Madre de las Americas and Simbang Gabi. The Cathedral also hosted Baccalaureate Masses for O'Dea High School, Holy Names Academy, Seattle Prep, and Seattle University.

In November, 2016, we marked the conclusion of the Year of Mercy, and in December, we marked Father Ryan's Golden Jubilee of Ordination with special celebrations at the Sunday Masses. As a gift to Father Ryan, the parish community contributed $203,322 in his name to the Hunthausen Fund, which helps people move from shelters into permanent housing. In May, 2017, we hosted the episcopal ordination of our new auxiliary bishop, Daniel Mueggenborg, and in June, 2017, the ordination of four men to the priesthood.

Over the course of the year, there were numerous concerts, recitals and other musical events. Among the highlights of the past year were our New Year's Eve Gala Concert. In addition, the Schola Cantorum Choir Camp in August brought fifty children to the Cathedral for a week of prayer, service, and singing.

OUTREACH AND PASTORAL CARE

The Cathedral Kitchen has continued to thrive, with between 150-170 people of all ages and races sharing a hot, nutritious meal, lovingly prepared and served in the Cathedral Hall each weeknight—around 40,000 meals a year!

The Solanus Casey Center, our drop-in and referral center, found a new home in the Cathedral's Gallagher Center and continues to be open four days a week to provide a caring, listening ear as well as to help hundreds of people secure their Washington State IDs and to access basic social and mental health services available in our local community.

The St. James Immigrant Assistance program provided thousands of hours of services to immigrants and refugees. The St. James Winter Shelter provided overnight shelter to 10 to 15 men for 120 nights. Tens of thousands of sandwiches were prepared by our parishioners and distributed through St. Martin de Porres Shelter and Operation Nightwatch.

Many homebound parishioners received communion in their homes each week, allowing them to remain connected to the liturgical life of St. James. Others received the bulletin in the mail each week, along with a recording of the Sunday Mass. And our faithful van drivers continued to transport nearby seniors to the 10:00am Mass each Sunday.

FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

More than 150 Cathedral children participated in Sunday School classes, offered September through June. Special events and presentations for adults in 2016-2017 included our popular Catholic 101 series, bringing in notable local speakers to talk on a variety of subjects, from Flannery O'Connor to reading the bible. During Lent, a dozen small groups gathered for Pilgrim People, a scripture study course. Other offerings included a series on T. S. Eliot's Four Quartets and Shakespeare's Measure for Measure, as well as bible study and other offerings.

Our Youth Ministry and Young Adult programs continue to be a whirlwind of new and exciting opportunities for youth, including retreats, service activities, and social events.

ALL THIS WAS MADE POSSIBLE BY YOUR GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS AND BY THE GENEROUS BEQUESTS OF PARISHIONERS WHO INCLUDED THE CATHEDRAL IN THEIR ESTATE PLANNING. We want you to know that, under the careful oversight of the Cathedral's Finance Council, there has been careful stewardship of the financial resources of the parish. We look forward to accomplishing even more with your support and with the help of God's grace in the coming year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Michael G. Ryan
Pastor

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.
