

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

January 5, 2014

Dear Friends,

With this new year of 2014 comes a new moment in our religious education department -- a new director. You may recall that Terry Ann Bowen, who held this position for two years, stepped down last fall in order to pursue doctoral studies. Since then, Patty Bowman and Corinna Laughlin have ably directed the program and I am extremely grateful to them for a job well done. Now, following a national search, we are ready to welcome our new director, Kathleen McCabe. However, as those of you who have been parishioners here for some time will know, 'new' doesn't quite fit Kathleen because she served as our director of religious education from 1997-1999! I know you will join me in welcoming her back to St. James.

For me, Kathleen's return is a gift from God. She and her husband, Jerome, and their three children left here fourteen years ago so Jerome could pursue doctoral studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Since then, she has ministered at parishes in Northern Virginia and in the Boston area. Kathleen brings with her a strong faith, excellent credentials for teaching and administration, a buoyant spirit, infectious enthusiasm, many years of valuable experience, and a love for St. James that never dimmed over the years she was away from us. The RCIA, adult faith formation, and Welcome Back programs will, I am confident, thrive under her capable leadership. Welcome home, Kathleen McCabe!

ENTRANCE

The first Nowell

1 The first Nowell, the angel did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds
in fields as they lay:
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep:

✠ *Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel.*

2 They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night. ✠

3 And by the light of that same star
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went. ✠

4 This star drew nigh to the northwest,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest;
And there it did both stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay. ✠

5 Then entered in those wise men three,
Full rev'rently upon their knee,
And offered there, in his presence,
Their gold and myrrh
and frankincense. ✠

6 Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heav'nly Lord;
Who with the Father we adore
And Spirit blest for evermore. ✠

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EASTER AND THE MOVEABLE FEASTS

In keeping with an ancient practice of the church, the date of Easter and the moveable feasts for the coming year are announced on Epiphany.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All are invited to bring their own images of the Child Jesus from home for the blessing. The annual celebration will be followed by a fiesta in Cathedral Place Hall, with dancing, a raffle, and, of course, a marvelous feast of Filipino food prepared by a group of our own parishioners. All are welcome.

This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Mary in Anacortes and Marysville, and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell.*

YOUTH MINISTRY

GOOD NEWS FROM YOUTH MINISTRY Following an extremely successful toy and clothes drive, organized by Youth Leadership Team members, our youth traveled to the Skagit Valley on December 21. They unloaded and arranged an impressive array of toys and clothes for migrant children. Our youth then took each migrant child by the hand and helped them select some toys. Then, they outfitted child after child with new jackets, scarves, and gloves. Almost every child went home with a hand-knit hat, courtesy of our cathedral knitting community. All in all, over 250 migrant children visited the food bank, each of them receiving multiple gifts. There was such an abundance, the children were often able to take extra items home to their parents. Many thanks to all the youth members who gave up a Saturday during their Christmas break to reach out to the poor. This is what the Gospel looks like!

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH NIGHTS Every Sunday evening from 6:30 – 8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Join us for interactive games and activities that will challenge you to apply your faith to everyday life. All are welcome!

JUNIOR HIGH SOJOURN We are launching a biweekly gathering for middle school youth (Grades 7 & 8) that will help young people explore who they are, what they're about, and what role God and faith will play in their lives. Please e-mail Joe to "vote" for a day of the week and time frame that would be ideal for you.

OUT OF THE DARKNESS

NATIONAL MIGRATION WEEK 2014

“God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5)

Migrant children, undocumented immigrants, refugees, and victims of human trafficking often find themselves existing in a kind of figurative darkness of limited options where their ability to live out their lives in its fullness is severely restricted. It is our call as the Church to bring the light of Christ to these populations, banish the darkness, and help to bring them from the margins of society to its center.

Doing so will provide vulnerable migrants with a protected space in which they can flourish as human beings. This requires prayer for those who are marginalized, alongside an active presence in the public square to demand that protections are provided to those who need them most.
