Glory be to God our king.

Following Francis

From a biography of St. Francis of Assisi

Francis made a pilgrimage to Rome. Pained at the miserly offerings he saw at the tomb of St. Peter, he emptied his purse thereon. Then, as if to put his fastidious nature to the test, he exchanged clothes with a tattered mendicant and stood for the rest of the day fasting among the horde of beggars at the door of the basilica. Not long after his return to Assisi, whilst Francis was praying before an ancient crucifix in the forsaken wayside chapel of St. Damian's below the town, he heard a voice saying: "Go, Francis, and repair my house, which as you see is falling into ruin."

Catholic Encyclopedia, 1913

Reflection

Our image of St. Francis of Assisi is inseparable from the beautiful Tuscan countryside where he lived his extraordinary life. But Francis was a pilgrim as well. He made many journeys, both before and after consecrating his life to God. He went on pilgrimage to Rome. He traveled around Italy, preaching the Gospel. And he also undertook missionary journeys, to Morocco and later to the Holy Land, thinking he could end the crusades if he could convert the Muslims to Christianity. In the midst of the crusades, his efforts to convert the Muslims to Christianity were unsuccessful, but he did have a friendly meeting with the Sultan al-Kamil (brother of Saladin) at Damietta. The strong presence of Franciscans at the Christian shrines in the Holy Land dates from St. Francis's visit.

Francis made the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela in 1214.

Today, let us pray for peacemakers, and for all who work for understanding and reconciliation between peoples and religions. Let us pray for a greater reverence for the earth and all it contains.

Prayer

St. Francis, your pilgrimage to the Holy Land bore fruit, but not in the way you expected.

Pray for us, that we may keep open minds and open hearts when the journeys of our lives take us to surprising or challenging places.

We ask this through the One we follow:

Jesus the Lord. Amen.
