LET YOUR PRESENCE BE A PRESENT TO SOMEONE IN NEED During times of personal crisis, in addition to practical services, people often need the caring presence of a compassionate person willing to listen. The Solanus Casey Center, a program of St. James Cathedral and Catholic Community Services, seeks to provide that listening ear, as well as referrals and limited assistance, to those in need in our community. The Center is currently in need of a few kind volunteers who can help one day a week from 12:45pm-4:15pm. Training is available. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

Bread for the World Sunday

October 31 and November 1, 2009

Did you know...

- Over one billion people in the world go hungry?
- Three million children under age five die each year from undernourishment?
- In the U.S., one in ten households are living with hunger?

Hunger is not a problem of production, it's a problem of politics. You have the opportunity to help change the politics of hunger. On the weekend of October 31 and November 1, St. James Cathedral will participate in the Bread for the World campaign. Volunteers will be available at the coffee hours and in the entrances to the cathedral to assist you in writing your letters to congressional representatives, urging them to support anti-hunger legislation.

Come join us in our fight to end world hunger.

To learn more about global and domestic hunger, and what you can do to help, visit the Bread for the World website at www.bread.org.

Praying at Home

November 2009

What is prayer?

Prayer demands a different kind of attention than that which we give to a television show. The latter presents an unending series of new images to keep us watching, to engage our interest, to distract us. In prayer, on the other hand, the repetition of the same words, the same phrases, unfolding naturally one after the other, helps us to find true interior liberty. It is like a walk which is familiar to the walker. Knowing every stone in the path, or the slightest incline of the hillside, the foot adapts itself instinctively to every change or difficulty, and gives one freedom to look around. We can raise our eyes to the sky, notice a flower on the side of the path, look at the faces of those who pass by.

Cardinal Jean-Marie Lustiger, First Steps in Prayer

Prayers for morning and evening

These prayers from The Glenstal Book of Prayer are from the Irish Benedictine tradition.

In the morning:

I arise with God, may God arise with me.
God's hand enfolding me as I sit, as I lie down and as I arise.

In the evening:

To the Most Holy Trinity, ever ancient, ever new,
ever powerful in heavenly splendor:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
be my saving and my guarding
from tonight until a year from tonight,
and especially tonight.

A Stewardship Prayer

Generous God,
you are the giver of all good gifts;
you are the source of all that we have and are.
Our talents, our possessions,
our minds, our hearts, our lives
are all your gifts.
Teach us to be good and faithful stewards.
May we cherish, tend, and share
the good things you have entrusted to us.
By our prayer and action
may we help to lead others to Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever. Amen.

Holy Father's Intentions for November

Each month, the Holy Father asks us to pray with him by remembering his intentions in our prayer.

GENERAL INTENTION: That all the men and women in the world, especially those who have responsibilities in the field of politics and economics, may never fail in their commitment to safeguard creation.

MISSION INTENTION: That believers of different religions, through the testimony of their lives and fraternal dialogue, may clearly demonstrate that the name of God is a bearer of peace.

Praying for the dead

In the month of November, the Church prays in a special way for those who have gone before us in faith. This prayer is adapted from the Order of Christian Funerals.

Into your hands, O Lord,
we humbly entrust our friends
and family members who have died.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love;
deliver them now from every evil
and bid them enter eternal rest.
The old order has passed away;
welcome them then into paradise,
where there will be no sorrow, no weeping nor pain,
but the fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit
for ever and ever. Amen.

A Meal Prayer for November

Jesus, gentle shepherd, as we gather for this meal
we remember the many people whom we love
who are no longer with us.
Forgive all their sins and bring them safely to your side.
As we share this food,
we trust that they may be seated
at your heavenly banquet.
In your love, make us all one,
now and forever in your kingdom.

From Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hanna

Praying with Mary

There comes a day, there comes an hour...
when one must address oneself boldly
to the one who is infinitely beautiful.
Because she is also infinitely good.

The one who intercedes.
The only one who can speak with the authority of a mother.

The one who is infinitely pure.
Because she is also infinitely gentle.

The one who is infinitely rich.
Because she is also infinitely poor.

The one who is infinitely high.
Because she is also infinitely low.

The one who is infinitely great.
Because she is also infinitely small.
Infinitely humble.
A young mother.

The one who is infinitely young.
Because she is also infinitely mother.

Charles Péguy

MINISTRIES FAIR

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2009 after the Morning Masses

"Nothing is more practical than finding God, that is, falling in love in a quite absolute, final way. What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you will do with your evenings, how you will spend your weekends, what you read, who you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything."

—Pedro Arrupe, SJ

On Sunday, November 8, we will have our annual MINISTRIES FAIR after the morning Masses. This is our chance to "fall in love" with one of the many different opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. More than 1,100 people volunteer in 40+ different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate what your generous support of the Cathedral parish makes possible and find out how you can become a part of it!
