

During the month of November, we remember all the deceased parishioners of St. James Cathedral.
In a special way, we remember our benefactors, 1988-2017, whose generous bequests continue to sustain the mission of our parish:

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

ON THE COVER During the month of November, when we pray for our beloved dead, our bulletin covers include the names of those who have left legacies large and small to St. James Cathedral in their wills over the past thirty years. Each year, bequests allow the Cathedral to carry out its mission of prayer and service here on First Hill.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by Jeff and Melissa Williams in memory of all deceased O'Dea High School Alumni.

ALL SAINTS CHILDREN'S PROCESSION at the beginning of the Noon Mass. Parents, please accompany very young children.

PARENTS' FAITH FORMATION Yes, Mom and Dad, these sessions are for YOU! They happen during the time your children are in their CFF classes, and offer a chance learn about your Catholic faith, and share with other parents the struggles and joys of your faith life at home. The first series continues today, November 5, 11:05–11:40 in Room 206 of O'Dea High School. Information, Rosanne Michaels rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4658.

WORK ON THE CATHEDRAL TOWERS Work crews will be on site for the next few weeks for a major repair and restoration project on the upper levels of the Cathedral towers. This will involve masonry and terra cotta repairs and fixing some leaks. For the safety of the workers, the bells will not be rung during the weekdays that they are working. On a 100+ year old building, these things need attention every few years!

SPECIAL NOTE FOR THOSE WHO WRITE CHECKS Our bank has asked that all checks for Cathedral ministries be made payable to ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL, with the special ministry you wish to support indicated in the memo line. This applies to all donations to St. Vincent de Paul, Solanus Casey Center, Cathedral Kitchen, Hunthausen Fund, etc. Thanks for your understanding! Information, Sister Mary Slater, 206-382-4564.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or a private security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Leo in Tacoma and St. Martin of Tours in Fife.

Dear Friends,

As we prepare for this year's Sacrificial Sunday Giving campaign, I wanted to give you a heads-up about an important change to giving at St. James Cathedral. We are switching this year to a new provider for online giving, Our Sunday Visitor. The new system will not only make life a lot easier for our bookkeeper, it will make life easier for you, as it will allow you to login to your own account, check on your giving, input changed credit cards, and more. You'll even be able to make your monthly gift to St. Vincent de Paul using your credit card...!

In the coming week you will be receiving an e-mail directly from Our Sunday Visitor inviting you to set up an account. I hope you will do so!

If you do not receive the e-mail, you will still be able to set up an account by visiting the Cathedral website and following the links provided. Thank you!

CARE FOR CREATION SITE VISIT South Seattle Transfer Station, Wednesday, November 15, 10:00am. As we near the time of frenetic gift-buying, join the St. James Care for Creation committee to learn how more than 320,000 tons of garbage, recycling and yard waste are processed each year. We will be in the Viewing Room that overlooks the tipping floor so visitors can see the station's daily operations. In addition, educational displays and videos explain Seattle's solid waste system, including recycling and waste reduction. To join the tour, contact Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

CAPPELLA ROMANA CONCERT-ARCTIC LIGHT: SACRED SCANDINAVIA On Friday, November 17 at 8:00pm, renowned Finnish choral conductor Timo Nuoranne directs glimmering sacred works from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and Estonia. The program features selections from Cappella Romana's celebrated recording Arctic Light: Finnish Orthodox Music, and a Trisagion in Estonian, Slavonic, and Greek by Erkki-Sven Tüür. Information and passes, www.cappellaromana.org.

SHARE THE JOURNEY Join us on the evening of November 16 as we explore the refugee journey through several short films on refugees, life in a new country, the quest for asylum, and the intersection with human trafficking. These will be followed by the feature film "Trails of Hope and Terror" that explores historic U.S./Mexican conflicts and economic forces behind the current crisis over the border, immigrant workers, and families. Meet us at 7:30 pm at the University Christian Church on 15th and 50th in the UDistrict. Tickets are $10 at the door. Films start at 8:00pm. RSVP to Caroline Okello, 206-382-4511, cokello@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH MINISTRY

ARE YOU A TEEN AND COME TO SUNDAY MORNING MASS?

Youth Ministry is now offering a Sunday morning gathering for youth in grades 9 through 12 who want to learn more about their faith, have fun and connect with other Cathedral teens. Come join us from 11:00am to 11:45am most Sundays, beginning this Sunday, November 5, in Room 211 of O'Dea High School. Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082.

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT Kick off the month of November with a special way to remember our ancestors. Come to share stories, crafts and traditions this Sunday from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

CATHOLIC YOUTH CONVENTION is a weekend experience of evangelization and transformation that provides youth with an opportunity to encounter God, and deepen their understanding & love of our Catholic faith November 11-12 at the Washington State Fair Grounds. All registrations for CYC will be done through RegOnline until November 5, 2017. To register, visit www.ooyae.org/cyc or contact Curtis.

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO IS OPEN after the 10:00am Mass in Cathedral Hall. All proceeds for November go to the Cathedral Kitchen.

MORAL INJURY is a normal response to an abnormal event. Like psychological trauma, Moral Injury is a construct that describes one's immediate and long term response to exposure to extreme and unprecedented life experiences which go against deeply held moral beliefs. Join us on Veterans Day weekend, Sunday, November 12, in the Holy Names Room at 1:30pm for a presentation by retired Colonel, USAR, and St. Vincent de Paul Case Manager for Veterans Services, Roy Harrington. Information, Nancy Granger, 206-382-4269 or ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org.

Sacred Steps

SACRAMENTAL CELEBRATIONS AT ST. JAMES

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD'S BLESSINGS to the following children, baptized in the Cathedral last Sunday: Cristian Ernesto Albanes, Lily Rey Camagong-Bueno, Cairo Liam Cook, Margaret Louise Hoffman, Priscilla Rae Jensen, Cecilia DiFiore Marley, 'Ileini Fonuku Kinahoi Phillips, Kaden William Tam, & Melanie Elizabeth Williamson. We welcome with joy these newest members of the family of faith!

Opportunities to Serve

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

WINTER SHELTER We are in urgent need for volunteers who can stay overnight on Sundays or Mondays. On those evenings, we welcome homeless men 50 years old and over. Information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4515.

SUNDAY COFFEE HOUR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED St. James hosts a Coffee Hour in the Cathedral Hall on Sundays after the 8am, 10am, and 12pm Masses. It is a welcoming space in which persons experiencing homelessness and parishioners can come together to drink coffee, eat pastries, relax, and socialize. It is also a great place to learn about the array of ministries and volunteer opportunities at St. James. We are in need of volunteers to serve coffee and pastries and help clean up after each Mass. Information, Hunt Hoffman, hhoffman@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR In partnership with a local agency helping refugees in Tukwila, we are seeking an outgoing swim instructor who enjoys teaching children and adults new skills, helping them achieve goals and preparing them for future success. Be able to teach children and adults, water acclimation and safety, water movement and stamina, and stroke development and mechanics. Qualifications: Current state approved community CPR certification, or equivalent. Information, Caroline Okello, cokello@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511.

BECOME AN ACCOMPANIMENT VOLUNTEER FOR USCIS APPOINTMENTS In partnership with a local organization we are seeking volunteers who could accompany immigrants & refugees to USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) headquarters in Tukwila, when they have appointments to get their fingerprints taken. There will be orientation and training beforehand. Volunteers should have weekday day-time availability, a reliable vehicle, and comfort interacting with immigration officials. Information: Briana Brannan, 206-204-3851, bbrannan@thechurchcouncil.org.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN – SAFE

ENVIRONMENT TRAINING FOR NEW VOLUNTEERS Are you a volunteer at St. James working with children or vulnerable adults? Safe Environment Training will be offered Sunday, November 12 from 2:00-5:00pm in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor, Room 1EW. You must pre-register online for this class at <https://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/> Go to Seattle Archdiocese, and look for the November 12 class. Information, Theresa Van de Ven at 206-219-5822 or tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org or Suzanne Lee at 206-979-6308 or slee@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Some home visits we make will linger in our memories forever, like a visit we made a couple months ago with a person who seemed lonely. We had an enjoyable chat and gave some help with rent. As we started to leave, we asked, "Do you have any friends?" The response: "You." Thank you for your donations to SVdP at the Cathedral, which not only help people keep roofs over their heads but also help us extend the hand of friendship where it is sorely needed. Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

If possible, use email and text messaging to reduce paper consumption. If you must print a document, use double-sided printing if you can. These steps will help conserve natural resources and save money as well.

SOUP LUNCHEON FUNDRAISER Meet up with Cathedral staff on Thursday, November 9, 11am-1:30pm for lunch to benefit the Sacred Heart Family Shelter. This all-you-can-eat lunch features delicious soups from some of Seattle's best eating establishments. $20 suggested donation at Plymouth Congregational Church (1217 6th Avenue).

WINTER SHELTER NEEDS Can you provide one or two gently-used or new pillowcases? If so, they can be brought to Sunday Coffee Hour or the Parish Office. Thank you!

THANKSGIVING DAY FOOD DRIVE As in years past, please consider bringing donations of canned food to the Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:30am. Your generosity will support Cathedral Kitchen and the Food Bank at St. Mary's. Thank you!

THE HOUSING ADVOCACY COMMITTEE thanks all in the Parish who attended our Annual General Meeting in September. This year, we sponsored a spirited debate between Jenny Durkan and Cary Moon, both of whom are running for the position of Seattle's Mayor. The two candidates answered questions posed by the HAC on their solutions for homelessness and affordable housing, as well as their position on the City's sweeps of homeless encampments. More than 200 people attended the debate, where they engaged in what one candidate called "the raucous exercise of their First Amendment rights." People from the SHARE/Nickelsville group attended as well as many parishioners and other interested citizens. Plans are already underway for next year's Annual Meeting. If you are interested in the work of the Housing Advocacy Committee, or think you might want to join the HAC, please contact Patrick Barredo, Director of Social Outreach and Advocacy, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4515.

TALK ABOUT THE GOSPEL This Sunday's Gospel is Matthew 23:1-12. What was this Gospel about? What does it mean to be humble? Why does Jesus want his followers to be humble?

Annual Report

St. James Cathedral Parish, 2016-2017

Dear Friends,
Each year at this time, we publish a report on the financial condition of the parish. As you reflect on your giving to the parish will be in the coming year, I hope that the information contained in this report will help inform your decision. The report details not only the dollars and cents, but also some of the ministries and activities made possible by your support.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

Our fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017, our total parish income was $4,854,567.

This came from:

- Sunday and holy day collections (59%)
- Various gifts, grants, and bequests (24%)
- Fundraisers (5%)
- Annual Catholic Appeal rebate (4%)
- Business income (including rental of parking spaces and reception rooms, Cathedral Bookstore, etc.) (8%)

Total expenses for the year were $4,777,693.

They included:

- Salaries, benefits and other personnel-related expenses such as security (57%)
- Parish assessment by the Archdiocese (5%)
- Our annual assessment to support five central area Catholic schools and parish scholarships for Rainbow Schools and high schools (8%)
- Various operating costs for the maintenance and improvement of the Cathedral, other parish buildings, and the grounds (29%)

This left us with a surplus in 2016-2017 of $76,874. Last year at this time, we projected a deficit of $192,525, so this is extremely good news—but it could be misleading. It was several unexpected and extremely generous bequests that made all the difference.

But as you will see from the budget to the right, we are anticipating another large deficit ($301,080) in the coming year. The reason for this is that our ordinary expenses (insurance premiums, utilities, archdiocesan assessments, salaries and benefits for staff) continue to increase, and so do major maintenance costs on our beautiful, 110-year-old Cathedral (e.g., the recent repair and painting of the Chapel, the major restoration currently underway on the towers, and a long-deferred upgrade to the 70-year-old Rectory elevator). All this to say that our income doesn't always keep pace with our expenses!

OUR LIFE AS A PARISH, 2016-2017

We are a vibrant and diverse parish with 2,529 registered households, comprising 5,422 individual members. Our parishioners come from across Western Washington, from more than 180 ZIP codes. Nearly 1,000 volunteers are involved in some forty parish ministries.

2017-2018 Projected Income and Expense

Sunday & Holy Day Collections	$ 2,982,000
Bequests (anticipated)	164,000
Other gifts, grants & Appeal Rebate	1,192,200
Business income (bookstore, property rental, fundraisers, etc.)	387,623
Projected Total Income	$ 4,725,823
Staff salaries & benefits	$ 2,698,209
Supplies (including postage & printing)	419,650
Operations & Maintenance	242,500
Capital Expense	190,000
Contracted Services (includes insurance premiums, service contracts, & contract musicians)	371,253
Business Expenses (including bookstore & fundraising expense, hospitality, donations to others)	163,500
Utilities, vehicles	290,150
Archdiocesan assessment	223,053
Rainbow Schools & Scholarships	428,588
Projected Total Expense	$5,026,903
Projected Deficit 2017-2018	$ (301,080)

During the past fiscal year, more than 1,100 Sunday and regular daily liturgies were celebrated, not counting special liturgies for Holy Days, the Sacred Triduum, and ecumenical and interfaith services. Fifty-nine children and six adults were baptized; thirteen people baptized in other Christian traditions made a Profession of Faith and were received into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. Twenty-seven confirmations were celebrated; thirty children received their First Communion. During the year 40 weddings and 27 funerals were celebrated.

LITURGY, MUSIC, & SPECIAL EVENTS

As the Cathedral Church, we are privileged to host special events which gather Catholics from across Western Washington, including Rites of Election, the Chrism Mass, Ordinations, Madre de las Americas and Simbang Gabi. The Cathedral also hosted Baccalaureate Masses for O'Dea High School, Holy Names Academy, Seattle Prep, and Seattle University.

In November, 2016, we marked the conclusion of the Year of Mercy, and in December, we marked Father Ryan's Golden Jubilee of Ordination with special celebrations at the Sunday Masses. As a gift to Father Ryan, the parish community contributed $203,322 in his name to the Hunthausen Fund, which helps people move from shelters into permanent housing. In May, 2017, we hosted the episcopal ordination of our new auxiliary bishop, Daniel Mueggenborg, and in June, 2017, the ordination of four men to the priesthood.

Over the course of the year, there were numerous concerts, recitals and other musical events. Among the highlights of the past year were our New Year's Eve Gala Concert. In addition, the Schola Cantorum Choir Camp in August brought fifty children to the Cathedral for a week of prayer, service, and singing.

OUTREACH AND PASTORAL CARE

The Cathedral Kitchen has continued to thrive, with between 150-170 people of all ages and races sharing a hot, nutritious meal, lovingly prepared and served in the Cathedral Hall each weeknight—around 40,000 meals a year!

The Solanus Casey Center, our drop-in and referral center, found a new home in the Cathedral's Gallagher Center and continues to be open four days a week to provide a caring, listening ear as well as to help hundreds of people secure their Washington State IDs and to access basic social and mental health services available in our local community.

The St. James Immigrant Assistance program provided thousands of hours of services to immigrants and refugees. The St. James Winter Shelter provided overnight shelter to 10 to 15 men for 120 nights. Tens of thousands of sandwiches were prepared by our parishioners and distributed through St. Martin de Porres Shelter and Operation Nightwatch.

Many homebound parishioners received communion in their homes each week, allowing them to remain connected to the liturgical life of St. James. Others received the bulletin in the mail each week, along with a recording of the Sunday Mass. And our faithful van drivers continued to transport nearby seniors to the 10:00am Mass each Sunday.

FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

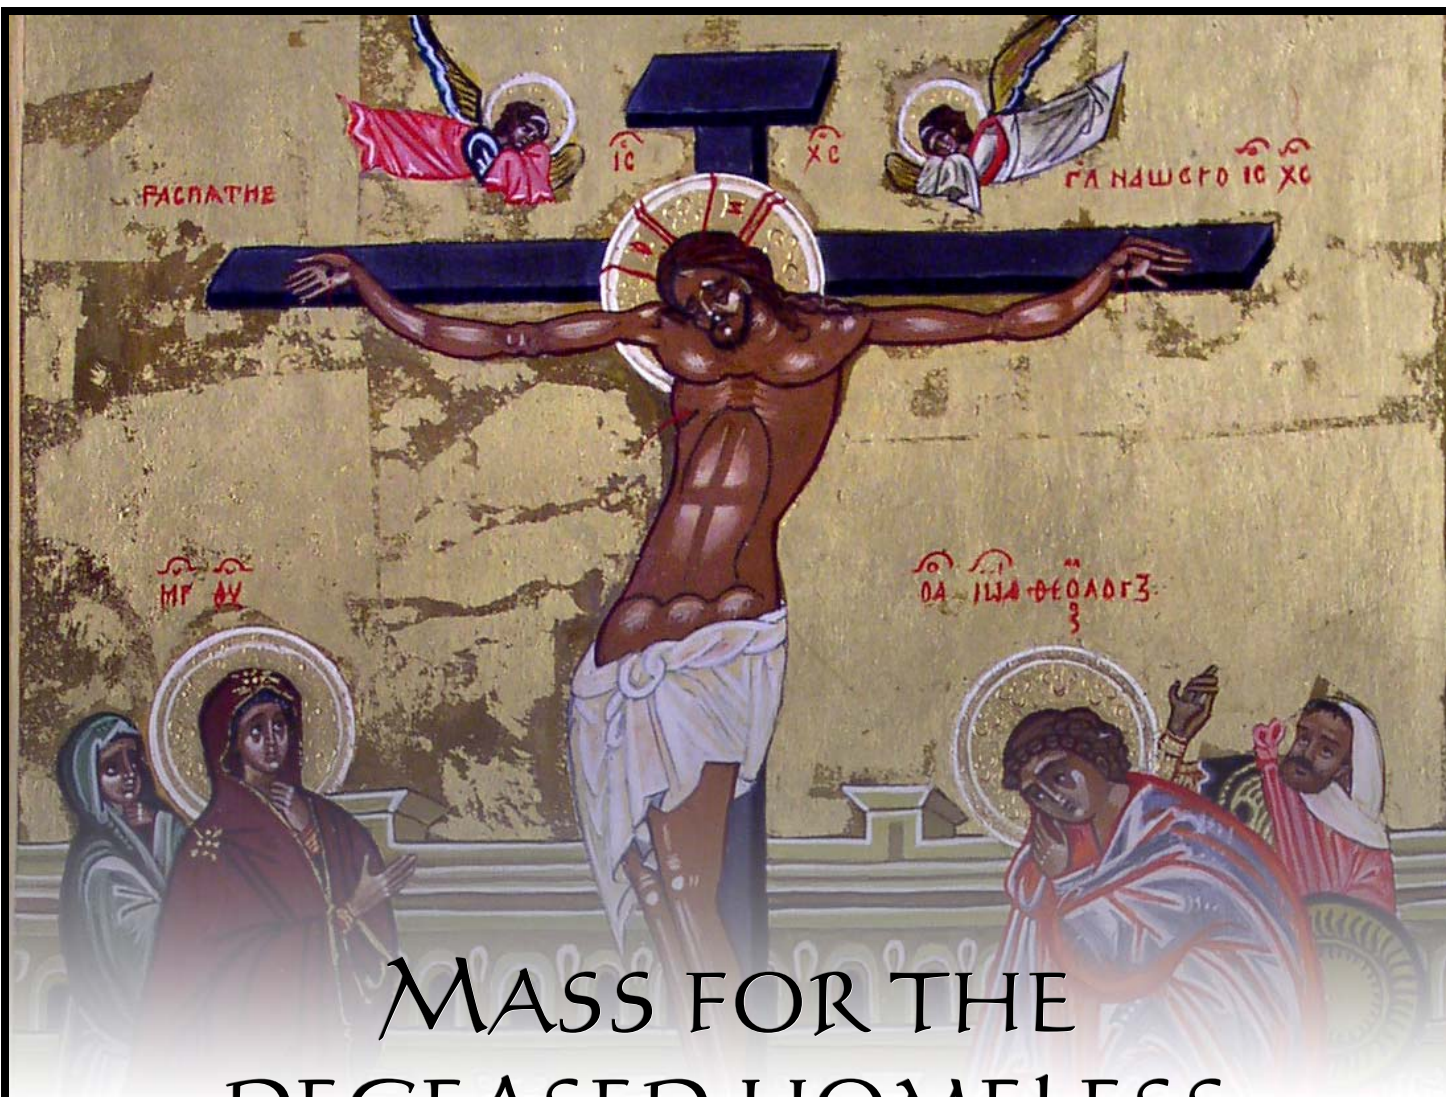

More than 150 Cathedral children participated in Sunday School classes, offered September through June. Special events and presentations for adults in 2016-2017 included our popular Catholic 101 series, bringing in notable local speakers to talk on a variety of subjects, from Flannery O'Connor to reading the bible. During Lent, a dozen small groups gathered for Pilgrim People, a scripture study course. Other offerings included a series on T. S. Eliot's Four Quartets and Shakespeare's Measure for Measure, as well as bible study and other offerings.

Our Youth Ministry and Young Adult programs continue to be a whirlwind of new and exciting opportunities for youth, including retreats, service activities, and social events.

ALL THIS WAS MADE POSSIBLE BY YOUR GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS AND BY THE GENEROUS BEQUESTS OF PARISHIONERS WHO INCLUDED THE CATHEDRAL IN THEIR ESTATE PLANNING. We want you to know that, under the careful oversight of the Cathedral's Finance Council, there has been careful stewardship of the financial resources of the parish. We look forward to accomplishing even more with your support and with the help of God's grace in the coming year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Michael G. Ryan
Pastor

MASS FOR THE DECEASED HOMELESS

You are invited to gather at St. James Cathedral on Thursday, November 9, 2017, at 5:30 pm for a special Mass in memory of the men and women who died on the streets or by violence in our community this past year.

Please join us to honor their memory, to celebrate their lives, and to pray for them. Father Ryan will preside at the Mass;
a simple reception will follow. All are welcome to bring winter hats, gloves, and scarves to be distributed to those in need.

St. James Cathedral is located at 9th and Marion on First Hill in Downtown Seattle.

Ministries Fair

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2017 after the morning Masses in Cathedral Hall

Let us work, let us work,
for we have all eternity
in which to rest.

—St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, 1850-1917

On Sunday, November 12, we have our annual MINISTRIES FAIR after each of our morning Masses. This is our chance to explore the many opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. About 1,000 (!!) people volunteer in dozens of different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate the ministries that make St. James the great parish it is and find out how you can share your own unique gifts with the community.

This year, as we mark the centennial of Mother Cabrini's death, let's follow her advice: "Life is so short... accept the opportunity to perform any task that may present itself. I can do all things through him who strengthens me!"

Stories of Mother Cabrini to Mark the 100th Anniversary of the Saint's Death

PART 1 OF 3

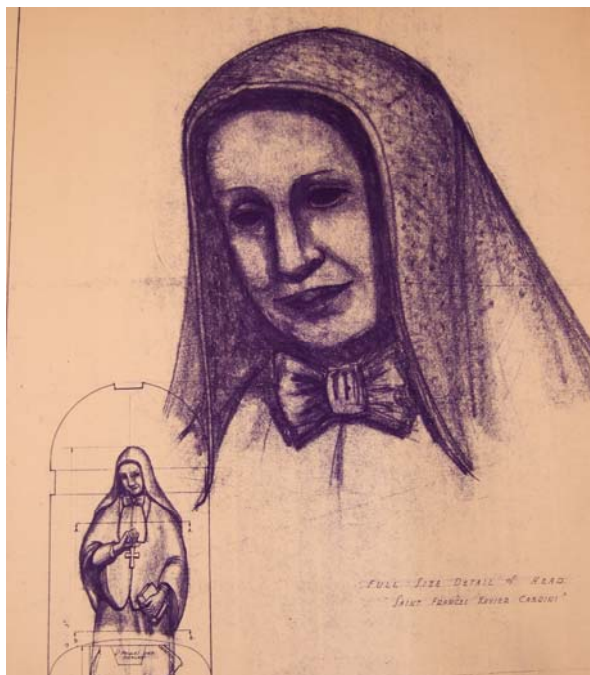

5 NOVEMBER 2017

At St. James Cathedral we have always treasured our connection with Mother Cabrini. She is one of three saints represented on the west façade of the Cathedral. There is a relief of Mother Cabrini in the vestibule of the Cathedral and a statue in the aisle. In 1994, a relic of Mother Cabrini was placed beneath the Cathedral's altar. And St. James is not the only place in the Northwest that honors Mother Cabrini. We park at Cabrini Garage and a number of our parishioners live at Cabrini Senior Housing. Many of our lay ministers have completed Cabrini Ministry Training. Mother Cabrini's fingerprints are all over our parish, indeed, all over Seattle! This year marks the 100th anniversary of the death of this remarkable saint. Who is Mother Cabrini?

Mother Cabrini was born in the small town of Sant'Angelo Lodigiano in the Lombardy region of Italy. She was the youngest in a family of 13 children. She was a sickly child, and much fretted over. But from an early age, she felt a vocation to be a religious sister. Her devout family often read stories of missionaries at meals, and Francesca knew she wanted to imitate them. As the story goes, she would make boats out of paper and fill them with violets, representing missionaries, and float them down the river in her home town. Determined to prove she was strong enough for missionary work, she gave up eating sweets because she was sure there would be no sweets in China!

Francesca was confirmed at the age of seven, and the reception of the sacrament marked a turning point in her life. "At the moment when I was touched with the holy chrism on my forehead," she said, "I felt something I could never explain... I felt as though I were no longer in this world; my heart was filled with the purest joy. I cannot say how I experienced it, but I know that it was the Holy Spirit."

As a child she was painfully shy. She later wrote, "I used to obey, pray, and keep quiet; and, from the corner where I used to work, I listened to everything that was being said around me, saying nothing. I was so shy. Can you believe that?... The day came, however, when I learned that I had to keep my eyes open, wide open, for the good of the Institute—and nothing has ever again been able to intimidate me."

Design for the statue of Mother Cabrini on the west façade of St. James Cathedral by Rambusch Studios, 1950.

In 1870, Francesca's parents died, just a few months apart. She was twenty years old. She decided to enter religious life, but because of her poor health she was turned down by two congregations—the Daughters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Canossian Sisters of Crema. Deeply disappointed but never discouraged, Francesca dedicated herself to working with orphans in her home parish. Six challenging years followed. At last, in 1880, the Bishop suggested that since there was no community of Sisters for her to join, that she should start one. And she did.

The Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart were formed on November 14, 1880, and received formal approbation on December 14, 1880. Francesca became the first superior of the new community. "Mother Cabrini" was 30 years old. In their first weeks, the Sisters had almost nothing. Mother Cabrini later recalled, "we had no light to take the sisters to their rooms, and we had our meals on benches. We had only one fork and one spoon to pass around." But Mother Cabrini learned to entrust even the most mundane matters entirely to God. The Sisters later told the story from the early days in Codogno: "One day a tradesman came to request payment of a bill. The good Mother gave the sister in charge the key of the desk where she used to keep the money. The nun went to the desk and carefully scanned its contents; but, finding no money, she returned sadly to Mother Cabrini. 'There is nothing, absolutely nothing.' Mother concentrated a moment, then, with serene tranquility said, 'You did not look well; look again.' Sister opened the drawer and found a small package of brand new bank bills. They were counted. There was the exact amount required to pay the bill."

The first work the Sisters undertook was just what she had been doing in her parish: teaching poor children, caring for orphans. But Mother Cabrini was still determined that her community would be a missionary one; she was just waiting for the right opportunity to present itself. And soon invitations began to come—not to serve in China, but in New York!

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
