to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.*

TOURS OF THE CATHEDRAL We've had such an extraordinary response to the Wednesday tours of the Cathedral we've offered all summer, that we will continue to offer tours of the Cathedral each Wednesday at 1:00pm throughout the year. This is a great way to share the Cathedral with family and guests.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? It is not too late to join our Welcome Back program – a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. It is not too late to join us Monday, September 26 from 7:00-9:00 pm and then each Monday through December 5 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor. Do you feel that call? Do you want to learn more and get involved? Join the St. James Environmental Justice Group to learn about environmental activities at the parish, and to share your own ideas. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Michael in Olympia and Snohomish, St. Gabriel in Port Orchard, St. Jerome in Ocean Shores, St. Therese in Seattle, and St. Theresa in Federal Way.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND/OR BECOMING CATHOLIC? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. A new inquiry session began Wednesday, September 14 at 7:00 pm in Cathedral Place, second floor. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL/ORDER OF MALTA MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY UPDATE We have been very busy growing the ministry. We invite everyone to take part in the following:

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16 Mental Health Fair at all coffee hours: introduction to our Mental Health Ministry and volunteers; learn about mental health and illness; interact with exhibitors from many professional mental health providers and programs in the Seattle area.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10 Information Night: learn more about the mental health ministry – what we are doing and future plans; gain more in-depth knowledge about mental health and illness such as depression and anxiety; hear personal stories of living with mental illness.

COMING SOON Look for a Mental Health Survey in the bulletin in the coming weeks. WINTER SHELTER

"Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or see you thirsty and give you drink? When did we welcome you or clothe you?" The King will answer them: "I assure you, as often as you did it for the least of my brothers and sisters, you did it for me." Matthew 25:37-40

The 2011 One Night Count found 2,442 people sleeping outdoors on the streets of King County. St. James Cathedral partners with St. Martin de Porres Shelter to provide overflow sleeping space during the cold winter months. St. Martin de Porres, a program of Catholic Housing Services, has room for 212 homeless men. During the winter, St. Martin's is always full and has to turn away many people. From October through April, four nights a week, St. James provides a warm place to sleep in Cathedral Hall for 10-15 men. Nearly 100 parishioners volunteer at the Winter Shelter, now in its 20th year of operation. Please consider joining our shelter team as an overnight host or breakfast cook.

Comments from our volunteers

"I feel that working at the Winter Shelter helps me put my faith in action."

"I truly felt a connection with this ministry..."

I left Monday morning with an energized heart."

Transitioning to the new Roman Missal

Part 3 in a series (Prepared by Corinna Laughlin)

September 25, 2011

At the beginning of Mass, we acknowledge our sins and praise God's mercy in the Penitential Act (formerly called the "Penitential Rite"). The new translation of the ancient confession of sin, the Confiteor, reflects the Latin text, with the thrice-repeated words "through my fault," and the ritual gesture of striking the breast.

In the 1570 Roman Missal (the "Tridentine" Rite, because it dates from the Council of Trent), this prayer actually occurs twice – once at the beginning of Mass, in the prayers said at the foot of the altar, and again just before the communion of the faithful. The reformed rite places it here, and makes it a prayer said by the entire assembly – priest and people together.

If one had to summarize the Confiteor in one word, perhaps that word would not be "sin" or "confession" but responsibility: this prayer is all about taking responsibility for our sins. Our sins are not thrust upon us—they are our own fault, as we now repeat three times. We sin not only in words, but in thoughts; not only in our actions, but in not acting.

But there is hope in this prayer as well, as we turn towards God, and there is healing in the community that surrounds us: our "brothers and sisters" in the pews with us, and the invisible communion of saints, with Mary at their head, who pray for us to God.

THE PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary
ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LANGUAGE OF THE MASS IS CHANGING

The texts of the Mass, including the parts prayed by the priest and the people's responses, are changing. In just a few weeks, on November 27, we will begin using the new translation of the Roman Missal. This page is part of an ongoing series in the bulletin to help us understand the new texts and prepare to use them on the First Sunday of Advent. Explore the whole series at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

You are invited to participate in a lecture and discussion series on the history of our worship, which begins Tuesday, October 4. The series is offered on Tuesday evenings at 6:30pm and Saturday mornings at 9:30am. This series explores the history of our worship, why we pray the way we do, and includes time for discussion and reflection. In addition, on the weekends of November 13 and 20, there will be short, intensive sessions focused on learning the new responses after all the Masses. Please participate! Visit the Cathedral's website for more details on these programs.
