

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 28, 2016

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

August 28, 2016

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's ambo.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today. Last week, we had visitors from Ankara, Turkey; St. Anthony, MN; Chula Vista, CA; and Athens, GA. The winner of our drawing was from Tallahassee, FL.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

AMBO

"Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth... so shall my word be" (Isaiah 55:10-11). The Cathedral's ambo illustrates the words of the prophet Isaiah about the power of God's word. Just as the rain and snow water the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, so God's word is full of energy and purpose, changing those who hear.

The ambo is the work of Long Island artist Randall Rosenthal, who also carved the wheat and grape panels on the east side of the altar. It is carved in intricate detail and depicts the lush abundance of the Pacific Northwest, with clouds pouring down rain, dense forest, and luxurious undergrowth. The inscription, "Isaiah 55:10-11," points to the fact that the imagery is a metaphor for what should happen in the assembly when God's living word is proclaimed from the ambo: it should make things grow and change in us.

The platform on which the ambo stands is made of black slate and white marble, the same materials used for the altar and altar platform, thus creating a visual link between the "two tables" of the Mass: the table of God's word and the table of Christ's Body and Blood.

maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Friday, September 2 | 6:30pm
St. James Cathedral

*Sometimes you say to yourself:
the fire in me is going out.
But you were not the one

Four Quartets

Exploring a modern spiritual classic

Tuesdays, September 6, 13, 20, & 27, 2016 | 7:00pm-8:30pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.
--T. S. Eliot, Four Quartets

T. S. Eliot is one of the great poets of the 20th century – the author of The Waste Land and Murder in the Cathedral, as well as Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats, which was later transformed into the musical Cats. Eliot himself considered Four Quartets (1943) to be his finest work. The four great poems that make up Four Quartets are the culminating expression of Eliot's profoundly Christian spiritual vision. This four-week series will be led by Corinna Laughlin (Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and PhD in English Literature). Cathedral reader Scott Webster will read each of the poems. All are welcome! It is recommended, but not required, that participants read the designated poem in advance of each session.

Ministries Fair

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2016 after the morning Masses in Cathedral Hall

God has created me
to do Him some definite service.
He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission.
I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught.
I shall do good; I shall do His work.
—Blessed John Henry Newman

On Sunday, September 11, we have our annual MINISTRIES FAIR after each of our morning Masses. This is our chance to explore the many different opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. About 1,000 (!!) people volunteer in dozens of different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate the ministries that make St. James the great parish it is and find out how you can share your own unique gifts with the community!
