ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Easter Sunday, 2016

Dear Friends,

It is a joy to welcome you to St. James Cathedral on this Easter of 2016. I do so in the name of our Archbishop, J. Peter Sartain, as well as in my own.

Of all the times we gather as Christian believers, none is more important than Easter — the greatest of all our feasts. Easter celebrates the Mystery that is the very foundation of our Christian faith, for, as St. Paul wrote, “If Christ has not risen, our faith is in vain” (1 Cor. 15:14). But Christ has risen and your presence here in the Cathedral today both affirms and celebrates that most amazing and enduring of all realities! While we do not see him, we know he lives and we know that he is in our midst breathing life and hope into us, walking alongside us on our pilgrimage of faith, our journey toward the Kingdom of God.

I have no way of knowing what is in your heart as you come here on this Easter Sunday. For some, I am sure, there is joy and a keen sense of hope for the future as Spring with its promise of new life is bursting forth all around us. For others, there may be the burden of pain and sadness that comes from a serious illness, a family crisis, the death of a loved one, or the loss of a job. For still others, this may be the Easter that you have decided to get more serious and intentional about the practice of your Catholic faith—or at least to explore that possibility. If so, good for you! What better year for that than this Jubilee Year of Mercy proclaimed by Pope Francis!

Whatever your situation, it is my prayer that Easter of 2016 will bring you gifts of joy and peace and a renewal of your faith in Christ risen.

And whether you have come here today in joy or sadness, hope or uncertainty, I want you to know how welcome you are. And I hope that you will find here at St. James Cathedral something that will comfort you, challenge you, and lift you up. We live in a world that, while incredibly beautiful, is also seriously flawed. Death and life are never very far away from us, are they? But Easter boldly proclaims that death is not the end of the story. Easter proclaims for all to hear that Life will get the last word, not death!

If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, please know that we warmly welcome you and hope that you will return soon – maybe even to become part of this amazing and vibrant community of faith. The doors are open! And if you are already part of the parish family of St. James, I take this opportunity to thank you for all the ways in which you make the Risen Lord Jesus present in this parish and in this city day after day: through your prayer, your faith, and your love that overflow in unselfish service to the poor and in generous advocacy on their behalf.

May the blessings of the Risen Lord Jesus be yours in abundance!

WE ARE THE CATHEDRAL FOR THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE and its Archbishop, the Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our Cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape a vital metropolitan community.

Cathedral Ministries

A snapshot of how the Gospel is lived out year-round at St. James Cathedral.
To get involved, call 206-622-3559 or visit www.stjames-cathedral.org for more information.

Liturgy & Music

LITURGICAL MINISTERS More than four hundred volunteers are involved in the liturgical ministries of the Cathedral as Ushers, Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Readers, Psalmists, Cantors, and Choristers.

CHOIRS Seven Cathedral choirs, including three adult choirs and four children's choirs, and the Cathedral organists provide a rich range of musical offerings at the Cathedral liturgies as well as at special concerts. In addition, four Resident Ensembles offer sacred music concerts throughout the year.

ST. JAMES YOUTH MUSIC PROGRAM Two training choirs, the St. Gregory Choir and the St. Cecilia Singers, prepare children to participate in the Schola Cantorum. Jubilate! Young Women's Ensemble is a choir for young women ages 14-22. Each summer, the Schola Cantorum Choir Camp draws children from around the region for a week of learning and music-making.

Formation in the Catholic Faith

BECOMING CATHOLIC For adults who have never been baptized or who have been baptized in other Christian churches, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is an open-ended, no-strings-attached process to ask questions and learn more about the Catholic faith.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION Opportunities for young people age 4 through 8th grade include special liturgies and celebrations; ongoing Faith Formation (Sunday School), including a class for children with special needs; preparation for First Communion; and preparation for older children who want to become part of the Catholic Church through Baptism.

RCIA SPONSORS Sponsors accompany those who are becoming part of the Catholic Church, providing spiritual companionship and prayerful support.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION Faith Formation is a lifelong process. The Cathedral offers a variety of programs to enrich and deepen understanding of the Catholic faith including Bible study, retreats, workshops and guest speakers.

YOUTH & ADULT CONFIRMATION Preparation classes are offered each year. Youth Confirmation preparation for teens aged 16 and older begins in February. There is also a program for adults of any age who wish to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

WELCOME BACK TO RETURNING CATHOLICS Programs help non-practicing Catholics explore Catholic teaching and return to the sacraments and to regular Mass attendance.

Families & Young Adults

YOUTH MINISTRY empowers the youth of St. James Cathedral to BE the hands and feet of Christ, inviting them to embrace their baptismal priesthood and build the Kingdom of God through activities, events, and programs designed to inspire joyful service, particularly with the poor.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY is a community of parishioners in their twenties and thirties who come together to share their Catholic faith, explore their spirituality, serve those in need, and build relationships.

WEDDINGS Couples preparing for the sacrament of marriage are provided with in-depth preparation, including one-on-one interviews and gatherings with other engaged couples.

INFANT BAPTISMS Each year, nearly one hundred infants and young children are baptized at the Cathedral. A group of staff and volunteers provide training for parents and godparents and prepare them to celebrate the sacrament of Baptism with their children.

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT The Cathedral helps couples strengthen their marriages by providing information and resources, and by sponsoring events that foster community among our married parishioners.

MARRIAGE TRIBUNAL ADVOCATES are trained ministers who provide pastoral care to individuals seeking to clarify their marital status and freedom to marry in the Catholic Church. Advocates assist in the preparation of marriage cases presented to the Archdiocesan Marriage Tribunal.

Outreach & Pastoral Care

CARETEAM MINISTRY WITH PEOPLE LIVING WITH AIDS Cathedral CareTeams offer practical care, emotional support, and nonjudgmental listening to several people living with AIDS through Samaritan Center of Puget Sound.

CARE FOR CREATION COMMITTEE seeks to educate, inspire, and motivate parishioners to a deeper reverence and respect for God's creation.

CATHEDRAL KITCHEN For nearly 40 years, the volunteers at the Cathedral Kitchen have prepared and served a hot meal to 150 of our low income or homeless neighbors, Monday through Friday.

CATHEDRAL KITCHEN GARDEN

Volunteers grow fresh produce for our Cathedral Kitchen meal program.

IMMIGRANT ASSISTANCE helps immigrants to learn English and civics, apply for citizenship and other immigration benefits, and connect to community resources.

FUNERAL AND GRIEF SUPPORT The Cathedral supports parishioners who have experienced a loss through preparation of the funeral liturgies, hospitality for families and visitors after funerals, and regular grief support offerings.

Cathedral volunteers support this important program by preparing and serving meals on the first and third Tuesdays of the month and serving meals on the second Sunday of the month.

LIFE, PEACE, AND JUSTICE COMMITTEE promotes the full spectrum of Catholic Social Teaching through educational and advocacy opportunities.

MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS MINISTRY This parish ministry provides preventative and supportive mental health care individually and in groups, and also educates to dispel the stigma and myths surrounding mental illness.

About St. James Cathedral

St. James Cathedral is the Cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and the parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Dedicated in 1907, the Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral during its early years. More recently, in 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent Ceremonial Bronze Doors at the west entrance by German artist Ulrich Henn (1999). Henn also created the stunning tabernacle for the reservation of the Blessed Sacrament (2003). Mr. Henn's only other works in this country are the bronze gates of the Washington National Cathedral in the nation's capital. St. James Cathedral also has a large and important collection of stained glass by American artist Charles Connick (1917-1919) and three splendid windows by German stained glass artist Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen (1994), who served on the faculty of the renowned Pilchuck School. The Cathedral's Mary Shrine, designed by Susan Jones (1994), has received national and international architectural awards, and the Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable fifteenth-century Italian Renaissance painting by Neri di Bicci (1456). The most recent addition to the Cathedral's artistic treasures is a shrine honoring Saint John XXIII, the Pope who called the Second Vatican Council, by Seattle artist John Sisko (2012).

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU

Celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday during the YEAR OF MERCY at St. James Cathedral

Sunday, April 3, 2016
12 Noon Mass

On April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II declared the Second Sunday of Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Church, and invited Catholics to learn more about the devotion to the Divine Mercy of Christ. The Cathedral's Noon Mass will conclude with the praying of the Divine Mercy chaplet. A festive reception will follow in Cathedral Place Hall. All are welcome.

God, merciful Father,
we entrust to you today the destiny
of the world and of every man and woman.
Bend down to us sinners,
heal our weakness, conquer all evil,
and grant that all the peoples of the earth
may experience your mercy.
In You, the Triune God,
may they ever find the source of hope.
Eternal Father, by the Passion and Resurrection of your Son, have mercy on us
and upon the whole world! Amen.

From a Prayer of St. John Paul II

The "Divine Mercy" devotions, which have spread worldwide, began with a series of apparitions of Christ to a Polish nun, Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938). In her diary, later published under the title Divine Mercy in My Soul, the saint wrote: "I saw Jesus dressed in a white garment. He held one hand in blessing and the other hand was touching his garment at the breast. From under the garment came two rays of light, one red the other pale." From this vision came the image of the Divine Mercy. The words of Christ to St. Faustina have formed the basis for the Divine Mercy devotions, which are a call to trust in the love and mercy of Christ, and to show mercy towards others, by faithfully carrying out the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. The devotion takes many forms, especially the chaplet – a sequence of prayers offered on regular rosary beads – and the novena, which concludes on the Sunday after Easter.

The devotion which began in an obscure Polish convent has since spread all over the world. It was briefly suppressed in 1959, but received official Vatican sanction on April 15, 1978. Saint John Paul II, who had a great devotion to Christ under the title of the Divine Mercy, declared the Second Sunday of Easter "Divine Mercy Sunday" for the entire Church.

The Quality of Mercy

Exploring Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice

Mondays, April 4, 11, and 18, 2016 | 7:00pm-8:30pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

The Merchant of Venice contains some of the most beautiful poetry in the language, including the famous speech "The quality of mercy is not strained." The play also confronts difficult themes of religious and racial prejudice, and mercy given and withheld. In this series, we'll explore the play and discover what it has to teach us about "the quality of mercy" in this Year of Mercy. The three sessions will be led by CORINNA LAUGHLIN (Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and PhD in English Literature). Cathedral reader SCOTT WEBSTER will perform key speeches from the play. All are welcome! It is recommended, but not required, that participants read or watch the designated scenes in advance of each session.
