HOMILY

Father Michael G. Ryan

CREED (except 10:00am)

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Year of Faith

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

FAITH, PRAYER, ACTION

April 2013

The "Divine Mercy" devotions, which have spread worldwide, began with a series of apparitions of Christ to a Polish nun, Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938). Christ appeared to St. Faustina on February 22, 1931. In her diary, later published under the title Divine Mercy in My Soul, the saint wrote: "I saw Jesus dressed in a white garment. He held one hand in blessing and the other hand was touching his garment at the breast. From under the garment came two rays of light, one red the other pale." From this vision came the image of the Divine Mercy. The words of Christ to St. Faustina have formed the basis for the Divine Mercy devotions, which are a call to trust in the love and mercy of Christ, and to show mercy towards others, by faithfully carrying out the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. The devotion takes many forms, especially the chaplet—a sequence of prayers offered on regular rosary beads—and the novena, which concludes on the Sunday after Easter.

The devotion which began in an obscure Polish convent has since spread all over the world. It was briefly suppressed in 1959, but received official Vatican sanction on April 15, 1978. Pope John Paul II, who had a great devotion to Christ under the title of the Divine Mercy, declared the Second Sunday of Easter "Divine Mercy Sunday" for the entire Church.

When John Paul II consecrated the Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Krakow in 2002, he offered this prayer:

*God, merciful Father, in your Son, Jesus Christ, you have revealed your love
and poured it out upon us in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter,
We entrust to you today the destiny
of the world and of every man and woman.
Bend down to us sinners,
heal our weakness,
conquer all evil,
and grant that all the peoples
of the earth
may experience your mercy.*

*In You, the Triune God,
may they ever find the source of hope.
Eternal Father,
by the Passion and Resurrection of your Son,
have mercy on us and upon the whole world! Amen.*

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

The Chaplet is recited using ordinary rosary beads of five decades.

Introductory Prayers—

- ◆ Our Father
- ◆ Hail Mary
- ◆ The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

On the large bead before each decade:

Eternal Father,
I offer you the Body and Blood,
Soul and Divinity,
of Your Dearly Beloved Son,
Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
in atonement for our sins
and those of the whole world.

On the ten small beads of each decade:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion,
have mercy on us and on the whole world.

At the conclusion of the chaplet, the following is said three times:

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One,
have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, April 16, 2013
Pastoral Outreach Center
12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00pm-3:45pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in need in our community? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to give of ourselves in a way that is essential to life itself. This year's Blood Drive is in memory of Frank Robl, a founding member of the Health and Healing Ministry. Frank died January 20, 2013 after a long battle with cancer.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Spring and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 4/7 and 4/14.

Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.

Reflecting on the Earth as a Sacred Community

A Workshop on the Integrity of Creation

Saturday, May 11, 2013 | 9:00am-5:00pm | Isaac Orr Center, 910 Marion St.

Most people recognize that caring for the Earth is of vital importance for our survival. Pope Benedict XVI has spoken about the environmental crisis with increasing urgency: “if you want peace, protect creation.” (World Day of Peace Message, 2010). Justice, peace and the integrity of creation are at the core of our Catholic faith.

This workshop will examine the shift that is taking place in our understanding of the world, the opportunities it presents to the human community, and the implications it has for people of faith.

Workshop attendees will

- Become more aware of the ecological crisis facing the human family.
- Learn about the extraordinary shift taking place regarding our understanding of God’s creation and our place as humans within it.
- Understand the religious values and vision we need for the healing of our world.
- Explore practical ways of making personal and corporate responses that can make a difference.
