HEALTH & ENVIRONMENT FAIR

Nurture Nature; Nurture Health

Sunday, April 6, 2014
After the 10am and Noon Masses
Cathedral Hall

Our health and the health of our environment are intimately connected. This year's Health Fair continues our focus on how, by being responsible stewards of one, we can also be caring and effective stewards of both.

More than twenty local health, environmental and government organizations will be on hand to demonstrate and speak to you about our health and the health of our environment, and show how those areas are connected. Join us in Cathedral Hall for a chance to collect valuable information and ask questions. This year, we will offer diabetes and cholesterol screenings in addition to blood pressure screenings. Bring family and friends!

Our exhibitors include:

Cathedral Kitchen Garden • American Lung Association • Washington Poison Center • Food Safety • Massage • Chiropractic • Dental Health • Seattle Tilth • Earth Ministry • and many more!

Tax Identity Fraud Response FAQs
March 18, 2014

This information is provided for employees and volunteers responding to inquiries about tax identity fraud. The Archdiocese of Seattle is deeply concerned about reports that employees and volunteers have become victims of a national tax identity fraud and recognize how difficult this situation can be for everyone.

Actions taken to date

After learning of the problem, the Archdiocese:

- Notified the IRS and FBI and hired a private security firm to investigate.
- Created a tax fraud resource site on the archdiocesan website to provide information about steps that can be taken.

What we know

We know that some employees and volunteers of the Archdiocese have been victims of tax identity fraud. We also know that tax identity fraud is a national problem that has been going on for several years and is now impacting our community.

What we don't know

We do not know the source of the problem. As a result, we cannot say whether the source originated from systems within the archdiocese — including parishes and schools — or systems of vendors or another outside source.

Information and Resources

- Monitor the archdiocesan website for information.
- If you have questions about this matter, contact the IRS Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 1-800-908-4490, Ext. 245

If your tax identity has been compromised:

- Contact an IRS Special Agent at 206-464-4920.
- Follow instructions from the IRS representative, which may include contacting a credit reporting agency and making an identity theft report to the Federal Trade Commission.
- File a police report with the relevant local law enforcement agency.
- Contact Equifax, a credit bureau, online at Equifax.com and click on "Request a Fraud Alert" at the bottom of the page.
- Send an email to taxinformation@seattlearch.org confirming that your tax identity has been compromised, including: full name, parish or school and status (e.g., as an employee or volunteer).

Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.*

GUEST CHOIR SATURDAY 5:30 MASS We welcome Peregrine Medieval Vocal Ensemble, conducted by Bill McJohn.

CRS COLLECTION This weekend we take up our annual collection to support Catholic Relief Services. Since 1943, CRS has been the Catholic Church in America's main agency for providing relief to victims of war and natural disasters as well as providing development and support services for the disadvantaged throughout the world. On behalf of the countless people who rely on the outreach of Catholic Relief Services, thank you for your generosity.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is open! Please come by after the 10:00 and Noon Masses. All proceeds for the month of March benefit our ministries to the homeless.

And don't miss Journey of Faith, a brand-new retelling of the history of the Church in Western Washington, from the days when native peoples called this place holy ground, right up to the present day. This short history (told in "comic book" or graphic novel format) includes key moments in the life of our Cathedral.

Summoned to a Revolution of Tenderness

Saturday, April 12, 2014 | 9am-11am, Cathedral Hall

Where would Pope Francis' vision lead us if we were to take it to heart?
to our homes, to our streets ?

You are invited to a morning of reflection with parishioner Patty Repikoff to prepare us for Triduum and Easter Season. During our time together we will ponder Pope Francis' invitation to Encounter, Companionship, Mission with the Risen Jesus. How does it touch our own lives and that of our Church? What is the grace we need to allow the Easter revolution of joy and tenderness to take place in us?

This retreat marks the conclusion of our Lenten series Joy of the Gospel, but you don't need to have participated in the Joy of the Gospel groups to participate in this morning of prayer. All are welcome!

PATRICIA (PATTY) REPIKOFF is a daughter of the Pacific Northwest, growing up in Vancouver, formed by the Sisters of Providence, the Holy Names and the Jesuits. She has served as a Lay Ecclesial Minister for 42 years. Recently, she took a new role with Catholic Community Services as Pastoral Advocate for Mission. She is also Adjunct Faculty at Seattle University School of Theology and Ministry for their new Doctorate of Ministry Program. Patty is a proud member of St. James Cathedral Parish, and a member of the Cathedral's Life, Peace, and Justice Committee.

TRE ORE

GOOD FRIDAY

APRIL 18

NOON—3

St. James Cathedral observes the traditional Good Friday devotion of TRE ORE (“Three Hours”) with music and homilies focused on the words of Christ from the cross.

This year, Rev. Dr. Michael Kinnamon will offer meditations on the Seven Last Words of Christ.

Father Michael G. Ryan will preside. The women of the Cathedral Cantorei and the Cathedral Chamber Orchestra perform Pergolesi’s sublime Stabat Mater.

A free-will offering will be taken during the service.

THE REV. DR. MICHAEL KINNAMON, an internationally-recognized scholar and leader in the ecumenical movement, currently teaches at Seattle University’s School of Theology and Ministry. He is the immediate-past General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA and has also served as General Secretary of the Consultation on Church Union and as Executive Secretary of the World Council of Churches’ Commission on Faith and Order. Dr. Kinnamon has been a seminary professor for more than 25 years, also serving as Dean of Lexington Theological Seminary from 1988-98. He has lectured and preached on ecumenical themes across the U.S. and in numerous countries overseas, especially in India and the Middle East. He is widely published in the field of ecumenical studies. He holds ordained ministerial standing in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and has been active in the mission and ministries of that denomination and a frequent speaker at Disciples events. He is married to Mardine Davis, an art consultant, and has two grown daughters.
