INTERCESSIONS FOR THE CANDIDATES AND CATECHUMENS (10:00am)

CREED (except at 10)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

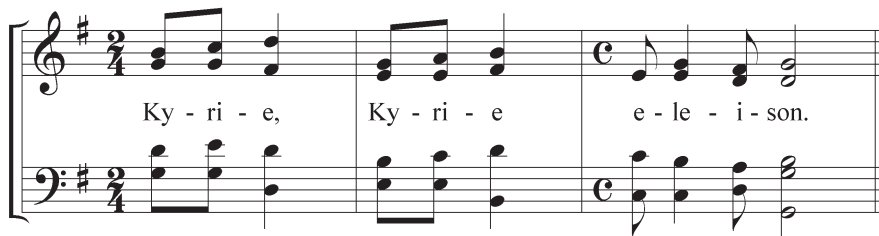

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory (10:00)

Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore,
Never tired pilgrim's limbs affected slumber more,
Than my wearied sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest.
Ever blooming are the joys of Heaven's high Paradise.
Cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dims our eyes:
Glory there the sun outshines whose beams the blessed only see:
O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my sprite to thee!

COMMUNION

Dicit Dominus
Mode VI

The Lord said: "Fill the jars with water and bring some to the master of the feast."
When the master of the feast tasted the water, which had now become wine, he declared to the bridegroom:
"You have kept the good wine until now."
This was the first sign which Jesus accomplished before his disciples.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER Icon of the Wedding at Cana. Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral iconographer.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by Barbara & Jim Ziemann in memory of Dr. & Mrs. E.R. Good.

JOIN WITH HUNDREDS OF CATHOLICS as we put our faith in action to advocate for our brothers and sisters in need on Catholic Advocacy Day in Olympia, Thursday, February 7, 2019. The day will include briefings on legislative issues, Mass and appointments with legislators. Register at www.ipjc.org by January 23. Sponsored by: Washington State Catholic Conference, Catholic Community/Housing Services, Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center and the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

OPERATION NIGHTWATCH VOLUNTEER OPENING A few times a month, parishioners from St. James prepare and serve a late-night meal to guests at Operation Nightwatch, an organization that seeks to reduce the impacts of poverty by providing resources to people experiencing homelessness. We are currently looking for a volunteer to help us serve dinner on Second Sundays of every month. Come join our team! Information, Dylan Hogan, dhogan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

REPORT FROM ST VINCENT DE PAUL Your SVdP donations made it possible for our Cathedral Vincentians to do 188 home visits during October, November & December and help 298 low (or no) income residents of St James parish who struggle to pay for life's necessities, such as rent, electricity, beds, food, clothes and basic hygiene products. Your generosity is great, but we continue to be asked for more help than we can provide, especially as rents keep rising. That means we and those we serve are deeply grateful for every dollar you share with SVdP – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com.

ROSARY All are welcome to join with a group of parishioners who pray the rosary together in the Chapel, Monday through Saturday at 7:40am.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Paul in Seattle and on the Swinomish Reservation; and the Mission Church of St. Paul in Westport.

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Aside from indoor plants creating a cozy and warm ambience in a house, they are also energy efficient in the way they release moisture from their leaves allowing it to hold in heat. Some houseplants like aloe vera can act as an air purifying plant surviving on less sunlight and water while others such as the Golden Pothos, one of the most popular household plants, need indirect light consistently.

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Many people do not know that there are very few places for those experiencing food insecurity to get a hot meal on a Sunday. In order to meet this area of highest need, St. James is rolling out Early Breakfast, a free Sunday-morning meal program, starting January 27. The regular Coffee Hour following the 8am, 10am, and Noon Masses will remain unchanged; however, we are in urgent need of volunteers to help at least once a month with food prep on Saturday afternoons and/or service and cleanup on Sundays in the early morning. We are also seeking additional assistance with our regular Coffee Hour following all Sunday Masses. These are excellent options for people seeking volunteer opportunities that fit into their busy work schedules, or for those looking to complement their Sunday worship with direct service to those in need. Early Breakfast information, Dylan Hogan, dhogan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235. Coffee Hour information, Jamerika Haynes, jhaynes@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN – SAFE ENVIRONMENT PROGRAM FOR NEW VOLUNTEERS

Do you volunteer with children or vulnerable adults here at St. James? Safe Environment Program Training will be offered on Sunday afternoon, February 10 from 1:30pm to 4:30pm. You must pre-register online for this class at <https://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/>; go to Seattle Archdiocese, and look for the February 10th class. Information, Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822 or tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org or Suzanne Lee, 206-979-6308 or slee@stjames-cathedral.org

POWERFUL TOOLS FOR CAREGIVERS Do you support an adult family member with a chronic condition? In this free 6-week course, learn key skills for taking care of yourself while you care for your loved one. Topics include stress reduction, communication, decision-making, and community resources. 11am–12:30pm. Thursdays, February 14 – March 21. Pastoral Outreach Center. Space is limited; Registration is required by February 7. Information, Mari Becker, UW Memory & Brain Wellness Center, 206-744-2017, mbecker1@uw.edu.

BABYSITTERS NEEDED St. James Cathedral offers babysitting for children ages 1-4 during the 10 am and 12:00pm Sunday Masses, during baptism preparation classes, and for special events. Two paid babysitters, who are over the age of 18 and have gone through Safe Environment Training, are on duty at all times. We currently have openings for additional staff. If you like working with children and want to provide a valuable service to the young families of our parish, please apply. Information, Suzanne Lee slee@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4640.

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

CALLLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

A campaign for our priests, sisters and family of faith.

Dear Friends,

The Archdiocese of Seattle is in the middle of a major capital campaign, the Called to Serve as Christ Campaign. The goal is to raise $100 million to support the retirement and medical needs of our priests and sisters—who are part of our family of faith. Of that $100 million, the Cathedral has been asked to raise $3.2 million.

I'm happy to tell you that thanks to the generosity of nearly 300 of our parishioners, we've already raised $2.8 million of the $3.2. This is quite amazing! But we do have just under $400,000 to go. And here's some more good news. To help us raise the remainder, a very generous parishioner has recently stepped forward with a $50,000 challenge grant. He will match—that is, double!—every gift that comes in, until we reach that $50,000. I'm hoping the thought that your gift will be doubled will be all the incentive you need to make your gift now!

In making your commitment, I'd invite you to think about a monthly donation over a three year period (which is what I'm doing myself!). For example, a gift of $100 a month would be a donation to the campaign of $3,600; a gift of $28 a month would be $1,000.

I hope the Q&A below will be helpful. Let me close by thanking all of you who have already contributed to the campaign and expressing my gratitude to all of you who will!

Father Michael G. Ryan

WHY A CAMPAIGN?

The Archdiocese of Seattle has an obligation to provide for the ongoing medical and retirement needs of its priests and women religious who have committed a lifetime of service to the church. The campaign will establish long-term funding for the medical needs of senior priests and will provide them with a stable, modest retirement. It will also significantly increase the ability of communities of women religious to care for their senior sisters and allow active sisters to continue their ministry in the Church. It will also return a small portion of each gift (15%) to each parish for its own needs.

WHY NOW?

We need this campaign because the funding model (pay-as-you-go) was never adequate and was flawed from the time it was first established in the 1960's. That model worked when there was a large number of active priests paying into the plan, and only a relatively small number receiving benefits. Now, with the severe shortage of priests in active ministry - and a large and growing number of retired priests who are living longer - the pay-as-you-go model no longer works. As a result, parishes (you!) are having to pay more and more into these plans each year through increased billings and through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

The campaign will also raise funds for women religious, who have played a crucial role in the history of our Church's mission in Western Washington and continue to. Because these sisters served for decades in our schools, hospitals, and parishes with almost no compensation, the campaign will raise funds to recognize, acknowledge and thank them for their sacrifice and service.

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

WHAT ABOUT THE TIMING?

Many have asked why we are going ahead with the campaign in the midst of the revelations that have been appearing in the news. Archbishop Sartain has decided to go forward with it because he is aware how urgent the need is, and believes people will be grateful for the opportunity to express their support for the vast majority of faithful priests and sisters who have given, and continue to give, generous service in our parishes. There is still a great deal to celebrate and be grateful for. The Archbishop is also confident about the transparency and accountability of the campaign itself and the handling of the funds that are donated.

WHAT ASSURANCE CAN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE GIVE TO DONORS THAT NO FUNDS FROM THE CAMPAIGN WILL BE USED TO PAY FUTURE SETTLEMENTS IN ABUSE CASES?

The campaign has been established as a separate Washington State non-profit corporation whose funds can only be used for the purposes designated in the campaign. The campaign corporation will undergo annual independent audits to assure it is conforming with all legal and ethical requirements. In addition, the Priest Pension Plan is a qualified pension plan whose funds can only be used to pay pension benefits and whose financial statements are subject to an annual audit by an independent certified public accounting firm.

WILL A PRIEST WHO IS FOUND TO HAVE A CREDIBLE ALLEGATION OF ABUSE MADE AGAINST HIM BE ABLE TO RETIRE AND DRAW A PENSION BENEFIT FROM THE PRIEST PENSION PLAN?

No, pension benefits for those individuals are distributed from a separate entity that will not benefit from this Campaign.

WHAT ABOUT THE HEALTH PLAN? WILL A PRIEST FOUND TO HAVE ABUSED A CHILD BE ABLE TO OBTAIN BENEFITS FROM THIS PLAN?

Priests removed from the priesthood (laicized) due to a credible allegation of abuse, receive no medical benefits from the Priest Health Plan. Priests removed from ministry due to a credible allegation of abuse and ordered to a life of permanent prayer and penance continue to be covered by the Priest Health Plan, but all costs associated with their coverage are reimbursed from another source so the proceeds of the campaign will not fund any health care costs for these priests.

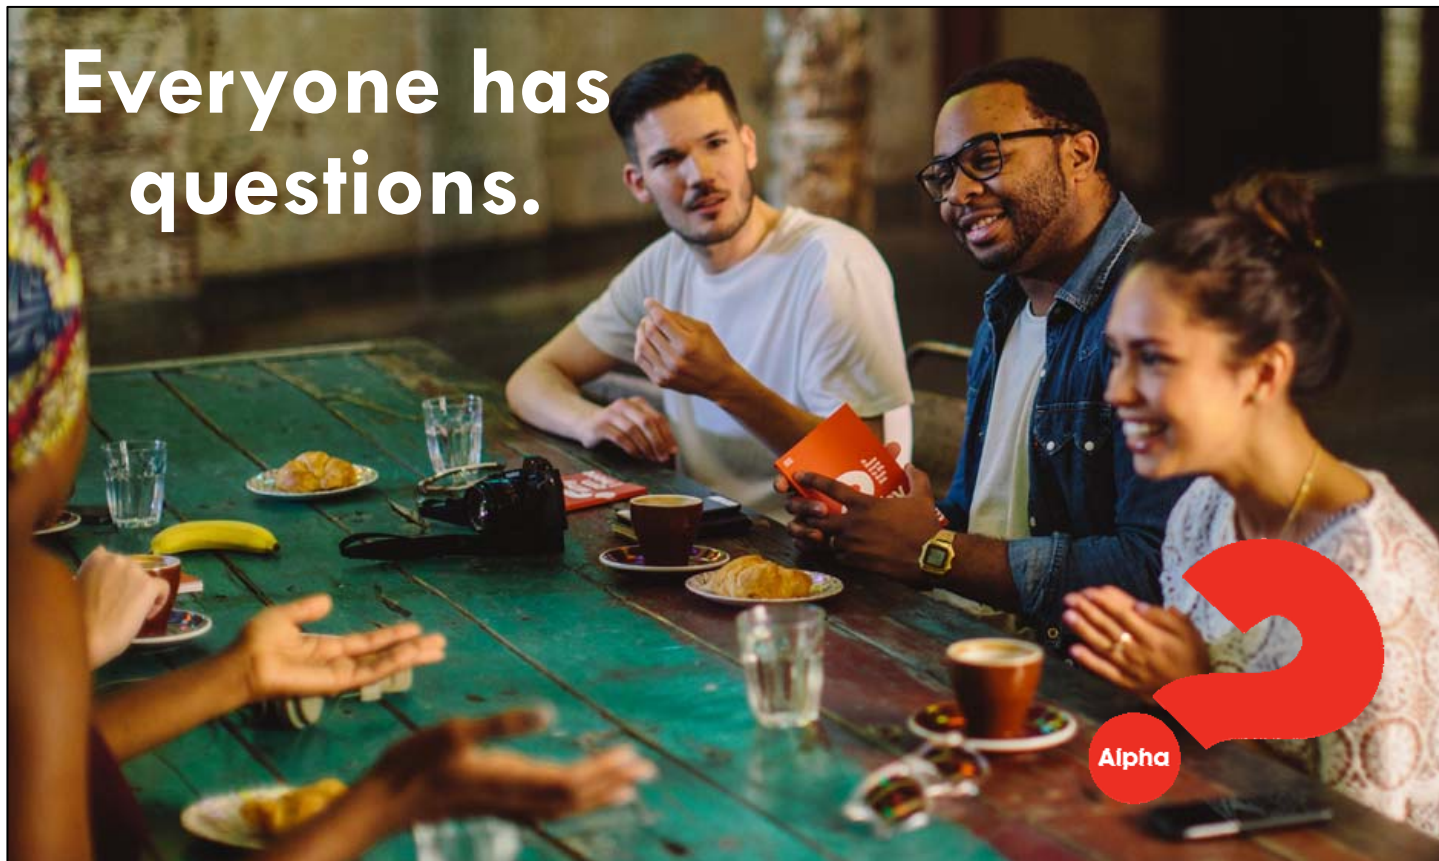

WHERE DID THE AMOUNT OF MY "ASK" COME FROM?

Obviously, coming up with an "ask" is an inexact science. The amount of the "ask" is based on your past generosity to the parish and to the Archdiocese, as well as on the amount the Archdiocese needs to raise. But the Archbishop, of course, has no way of knowing your particular circumstances or commitments and it's possible the amount he is asking for is wide of the mark. So if he has asked for too much, we hope you won't feel too put out, (and if he hasn't asked for enough, feel free to make any adjustments you see fit...!).

WE ARE COUNTING ON YOUR SUPPORT!

Archbishop Sartain is asking each of us to give our generous support to the Called to Serve as Christ campaign. We have each been blessed by the ministry of priests and sisters. This campaign is our opportunity to say thank you and to give back to those who have given us so much.

Everyone has questions.

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone is welcome. All Alphas have three key things in common: food, a talk and good conversation.

"Alpha is a great way to connect with others in a big city who share in a faith tradition. Highly recommended to build more intentional prayer in your life." —Adam S.

"I trust that God is running the Alpha program, which brought about the change I was looking for in my life. The entire process—the videos with examples of others who changed their lives, the discussions, and so many other things—have increased my desire to know God and my commitment in new ways." —Gina L.

"I am so glad to have found a new way to grow in my Catholic faith with this great community." —Patrick M.

Early Breakfast

"Through love, serve one another."

GAL. 5:13

Many people do not know that there are very few places for those experiencing food insecurity to get a hot meal on a Sunday. In order to meet this area of highest need, St. James is rolling out Early Breakfast, a free Sunday-morning meal program starting on January 27th. We are in urgent need of volunteers to help at least once a month with food prep on Saturday afternoons, and/or service and cleanup on Sunday mornings. This is an excellent option for people seeking volunteer opportunities that fit into their busy work schedules, or for those looking to complement their Sunday worship with direct service to those in need.

Grief Support Group

Wednesdays, January 30—March 20, 2019
6:30pm-8:00pm, Gallagher Center (enter on Columbia St.)
St. James Cathedral

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual,
but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 8-week grief support group
facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

2019 Marriage Enrichment Dinners

Food for the Soul for Married Couples

Did you know the Catholic Church really cares about your marriage and wants it to succeed? And did you know that St. James is committed to helping married couples live out their vocation? Good marriages can always be made better! Pope Francis described marriage as “a project to be worked on together” and a “process of growth” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 218, 221).

We also know that many of our couples do not have the support of extended family because they are transplants to the Seattle area. All the more reason for our parish to offer opportunities for married couples to connect with others who are in the same boat and to build community in the process!
Married couples of any age are welcome.
