PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

PRAYER OF ST. THOMAS AQUINAS (Saturday 5:30pm only)

All pray together, in keeping with the custom of the Legatus Society:

Lord, Father all-powerful and ever-living God, I thank You, for even though I am a sinner, Your unprofitable servant,
not because of my worth, but in the kindness of Your mercy,
You have fed me with the precious body and blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

I pray that this Holy Communion
may not bring me condemnation and punishment, but forgiveness and salvation.

May it be a helmet of faith and a shield of good will.

May it purify me from evil ways and put an end to my evil passions.

May it bring to me charity and patience, humility and obedience, and growth in the power to do good.

May it be my strong defense against all my enemies, visible and invisible, and be the perfect calming of all my evil impulses, bodily and spiritual.

May it unite me more closely to You, the one true God, and lead me safely through death to everlasting happiness with You.

And I pray that You will lead me, a sinner, to the banquet where You, with Your Son and Holy Spirit, are true and perfect light, total fulfillment, everlasting joy,
gladness without end, and perfect happiness to Your saints.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WELCOME: If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are in memory of Jim "Barney" Barnes on the first anniversary of his death, from his family. If you are interested in offering flowers as a memorial remembrance, to celebrate a special occasion, or in thanksgiving, please call Kay Kaiser, 206-654-4650 or kkaiser@stjames-cathedral.org.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Take Cathedral music home with you by choosing from a wide selection of CDs from our own St. James Cathedral musicians. We have two of Sr. Helen Prejean's books in stock, as well as the new Marilynne Robinson book Home, a companion to a Cathedral favorite, Gilead. And don't forget to get ready for a visit to Seattle by Kathleen Norris. We have a good supply of her books.

VOLUNTEER CHORE SERVICE ORIENTATION VCS helps connect volunteers with people who need chore services and companionship. Volunteers help to ensure that elders and individuals with disabilities and/or long-term illnesses can remain in their homes rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining them in this rewarding ministry, please come to the Orientation to be held in the Pastoral Outreach Center on Monday, October 6 at 6:30 pm. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

SOUND SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS We are in the process of a major re-tuning and re-equalizing of the sound system in the Cathedral. As this work involves a bit of "trial and error" with the building full and under actual Mass conditions, please bear with us if there are some glitches along the way. We are confident that the end result will be worth the inconvenience required to get our system to operate at its full potential.

SANDWICHES FOR ST. MARTIN'S may be brought to the Coffee Hours next Sunday, October 12, or to the parish office on Monday October 13 before 3:00 pm.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Francis of Assisi, Friday Harbor and Seahurst; Holy Rosary in Seattle, Tacoma and Edmonds; and The Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

THE SCHOLA CANTORUM (boys and girls ages 10-14) has several openings for new singers. A brief and simple audition is required to test pitch matching skills. Students participate in Cathedral Parish and Archepiscopal liturgies and concerts throughout the year. This is a great way for children to learn more about and participate more fully in the Mass. Weekly rehearsals are on Thursdays from 4:30-6:30. Information, musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874.

MUSIC OF ST. HILDEGARD OF BINGEN Friday, October 10, 8:00 pm Linda Strandberg, soprano, presents a rare evening of medieval and early baroque masterpieces in the elegant beauty of the Cathedral Chapel. Margriet Tindemans, one of the world's leading authorities and performers of this repertory has chosen music by St. Hildegard, leading women composers of the 17th century, and a number of other representative composers. With Joseph Adam, harpsichord and organ. Suggested donation $20 students and seniors pay as able. Information, musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or call 206-382-4874.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Each week during this Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

♦ We are so surrounded by turmoil these days – political, economic, social – that the first words of today's second reading might sound naive. "Have no anxiety at all," Paul says (Philippians 4:6). Paul does not want the Philippians to ignore or become indifferent to the tensions and trials of life. Instead, he urges them to focus all their energies on prayer: "in everything... make your requests known to God." What are the sources of anxiety in your life? And what is the "true... honorable... just... pure... lovely... gracious" in you, and in the world around you?

♦ Paul summarizes his message to the Philippians in these bold words: "Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me" (4:9). Paul lives so entirely in Christ that his words and actions serve as a model for others – a living Gospel. What changes can we make in our manner of speaking and acting to be more transparent witnesses to Christ?

Assisted Suicide

I-1000 – A Dangerous Proposal

A presentation by Sister Sharon Park, OP
Executive Director, Washington State
Catholic Conference

Tuesday, October 7, 2008 at 7:30pm
Pastoral Outreach Center,
Community Room

This November, Washington voters are being asked to consider Initiative 1000, which would legalize physician-assisted suicide in our state. If passed, this initiative would make Washington only the second state, after Oregon, to legalize assisted suicide. The Catholic bishops of Washington state have called this initiative “a dangerous proposal” that is contrary to Catholic teaching on the sanctity and dignity of all human life.

How much do you know about this initiative, and its potential consequences? What does the Church teach about making good decisions about the end of life? Sister Sharon Park, the Executive Director of the Washington State Catholic Conference, will address the initiative, and its implications for public policy, in a special presentation at St. James Cathedral Tuesday, October 7, at 7:30 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center Community Room.

ALL ARE WELCOME. For further information, contact Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, or pbowman@sjtames-cathedral.org.

DIES ECCLESIAE: DAY OF THE CHURCH

3 in a series of 4

October 5, 2008

Recently, Father Ryan sent a letter to all parishioners about the importance of participating in the Eucharist, Sunday after Sunday. A special series of inserts in the bulletin helps us to rediscover what Sunday means in our Catholic lives. The first two inserts explored Sunday as the Day of the Lord and the Day of Christ. This week, we focus on Sunday, the Day of the Church.

THE MYSTERY OF THE CHURCH

Sunday, the day of resurrection, is also the day of the Church. For Christians, it has never been enough simply to pray alone on Sunday, to remember the resurrection in the quiet of our hearts. Jesus gave communal prayer a privileged place when he said, “where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20). It is by gathering Sunday after Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist that the Church is formed and nourished. “Each community, gathering all its members for the ‘breaking of the bread,’ becomes the place where the mystery of the Church is concretely made present” (Pope John Paul II, Dies Domini, 34).

“The Eucharist feeds and forms the Church,” wrote Pope John Paul II (32). In celebrating the Eucharist on Sunday, we go to the source and summit of our Christian lives, receiving essential nourishment for the week to come. And the Eucharist also makes the Church, for in receiving the body of Christ, we become the body of Christ: we acknowledge that we are not alone, but are part of a community of faith, a community called to service as well as to worship.

But it is not just in receiving Holy Communion on Sunday that the community is formed. Even in places where the Eucharist cannot be celebrated on a regular basis due to the shortage of priests, Christians continue to gather on Sunday. In 1988 the Church published Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest, which includes special forms of prayer for lay-led Sunday celebrations. It also includes these words: “When a priest cannot be present for the celebration of Mass on the Lord’s Day, it is of paramount importance that the parish or mission community still come together to celebrate the resurrection of the Lord.... those present should be made to realize that Christ is truly present in the gathered assembly and in the Scriptures that are proclaimed” (10, 26). The teaching of the Church is clear: it is not enough to have Mass during the week – important as that is. The gathering of the community on Sunday has a sacramental character of its own.

“where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20)

In a 2004 letter, Keeping Holy the Lord’s Day, Father Ryan wrote: “We are not isolated individuals who come to church because we happen to have a relationship with God, and it is not true to say ‘my faith is between God and me.’ No, like the Chosen People of old, God saves us in community, and for Catholics that community is our parish. That is why our presence in our parish church Sunday after Sunday is something the entire community not only expects but actually depends on.... The lifeline of any parish community is the Sunday Eucharist and not to celebrate the Eucharist is not only to deny one’s self the single most important source for personal spiritual growth, it is also to diminish the very life and health of the community itself.”

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- What gifts have you received from being part of this faith community?
- How is praying in community, whether at the Cathedral or in another community setting, different than when you are alone?
- What do you “get” out of participating in the Mass? What is your favorite part of the Mass? When are you most moved?
- What are distractions that keep you from going to Mass? Or, that keep you from regular prayer? In what ways can you increase the time for God in your life?
