

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 18, 2011

Dear Friends,

I have some important news relating to our cathedral staff. When I first began thinking about how I was going to tell you this, I had a pretty heavy heart, but that is no longer true, thank God!

Helen Oesterle, our Director of RCIA and Adult Faith Formation, has been offered the position of Pastoral Associate at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in West Seattle and she has accepted. It's a wonderful opportunity for her because it is close to home for her and almost across the street from Mount St. Vincent's where her Dad is living. It's hard not to see the hand of God at work in this.

It's equally hard not to see the hand of God at work in the second part of what I have to share with you. I have asked TerryAnn Bowen who for the past five years has ably led our Welcome Back program, children's RCIA, and confirmation program, to step into Helen's shoes and she has happily and very enthusiastically agreed.

Needless to say, it will be very difficult to let Helen go after all her years with us! She has done an amazing job and touched more lives than any of us can count. She has not only directed our RCIA and adult faith formation programs, she has prepared hundreds of families for the celebration of the sacrament of baptism and the sacrament of matrimony. She has led Bible Study, Catholic 101, our Summer Film Festival – and so much more. And her energy and enthusiasm for her ministry have been contagious. In fact, I think it's safe to say that each one of us has 'caught' Helen's 'fever' and is the better for it! It won't be at all easy to see her go. At the same time, I am very happy that this opportunity has come her way because it seems the right fit at the right time.

For now, please join me in thanking God for opening up a wonderful new possibility for Helen and for sending TerryAnn to us. Later this fall, we'll have a chance to celebrate Helen's ministry and to thank her for her service.

Father Michael G. Ryan

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND/OR BECOMING CATHOLIC? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. A new inquiry session began Wednesday, September 14 at 7:00 pm in Cathedral Place, second floor. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

DO YOU HAVE A CHILD WHO IS: at least 7 years old seeking Baptism in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 7 years old baptized in another Christian tradition seeking full communion in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 9 years old, baptized Catholic and needs to prepare for First Holy Communion? Please call for information about RCIA Adapted for Older Children, designed to teach children who fall within these guidelines about our Catholic faith and to prepare them for the Sacraments of Initiation. Information and registration, TerryAnn Bowen, tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? It is not too late to join our Welcome Back program – a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The 1st session was last Monday, but you can still join us Monday, September 26 (no class September 19) from 7:00-9:00 pm and then each Monday through December 5 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor. In addition, if you are a registered parishioner and use envelopes, or are on the direct debit program, we will mail you a quarterly report of your contributions to the parish. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. If you are not sure whether or not you're registered, call the Parish Office, 206-622-3559.

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY Operation Nightwatch is an ecumenical Christian ministry providing hot meals and shelter referrals to 150-200 homeless people every night. St. James parishioners cook and serve dinner at the Nightwatch Center three times a month. We need food donors for the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays. Items we could use include the following: frozen meat for the main meal, sandwich meats, sliced cheese, bread, condiment packets. Leave your donations marked Operation Nightwatch in the Cathedral Hall kitchen after Masses on Sunday, or deliver them to the Parish Office before 4:00 pm on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays. Information, Mary Nichols, marynichols@hotmail.com or 206-420-8788.

YOUTH MUSIC OPPORTUNITIES Our famous Youth Music Program has openings in all four choirs. The mission of the Cathedral's youth music is to develop full, active and conscious participation in the liturgy through singing. Our teachers are some of the region's best music teachers and know how to inspire children. Information www.stjames-cathedral.org/music or 206-382 4874.

ST. JAMES IS A PLACE FOR CHILDREN We welcome all of our parishioners who attend Mass with young children. Many families find that sitting in the front rows, where the view is unobstructed, allows children to participate more fully. Others are more comfortable sitting at the ends of the aisles, so that they can easily step into the west vestibule or the Cathedral Chapel, if their child needs a quiet place away from the assembly. We have provided a sound system in these areas so you can continue to participate in Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship. For those who wish, babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

Transitioning to the new Roman Missal

Part 2 in a series

September 18, 2011

THE GREETING

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

or,

Grace to you and peace
from God our Father
and the Lord Jesus Christ.
And with your spirit.

or,

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion
of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And with your spirit.

Texts of the Roman Missal, Third Edition, are copyright © 2010 by International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation (ICEL).

At four important moments during the Mass – during the Introductory Rites, before the Gospel, at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer, and just before the Blessing and Dismissal – priest and people exchange this greeting, which speaks of God's presence in the midst of the liturgical assembly. Like so much of our prayer, the greeting and response come straight from the scriptures.

The short form, "The Lord be with you," occurs several times in the Old Testament. The extended forms are taken almost directly from the words of Saint Paul: "Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with all of you" (2 Cor. 13:12-13). This is Paul's farewell blessing to the Corinthians, a community with strong faith, but also with its share of challenges and conflicts - in other words, a community not unlike our own. His prayer for them is that they may be united, in the grace, love, and fellowship of God.

In the new translation, we will respond to this prayer for God's presence in our midst, with the words, "And with your spirit." These words also come to us from Saint Paul, who used the phrase several times. The letter to the Galatians, for example, concludes, "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit" (6:18), and similar words are used in Philippians, Philemon, and 2 Timothy.

Why "spirit"? In Latin, this response reads "Et cum spiritu tuo." The translators of the 1974 Sacramentary chose to translate this as "And also with you" because of concerns that the use of the word "spirit" could be confusing for modern-day Catholics. The simple word "you" embraces the whole person: body, mind, and spirit.

The new translation uses the words "and with your spirit," an exact rendering of the Latin. Some commentators have argued for the importance of this change, suggesting that these words (used only in dialogues with a deacon or priest) refer to the special gifts of the Holy Spirit the minister received at ordination. This explanation reaches back to some of the Fathers of the Church, and yet, that was clearly not what St. Paul had in mind when he addressed the same words to the people of Galatia. An ancient homily for the Easter Vigil echoes this liturgical dialogue in yet another way. The homily imagines Christ's descent to the dead: "The Lord goes in holding his victorious weapon, his cross. When Adam, the first created man, sees him, he strikes his breast in terror and calls out to all: 'My Lord be with you all.' And Christ in reply says to Adam: 'And with your spirit.' And grasping his hand he raises him up."

"The Lord be with you." "And with your spirit." In essence, the priest and the people say the same thing to each other: we pray for God's presence as we begin an important action in the liturgy. In many ways, this dialogue is like others in which we see the parallelism characteristic of Hebrew prayer. In the Liturgy of the Hours, we pray, "God, come to my assistance." "Lord, make haste to help me." And, in the Mass, the familiar response to the Prayer of the Faithful uses a similar rhetorical pattern: "We pray to the Lord." "Lord, hear our prayer."
