

Order of Celebration for The Epiphany of the Lord

YOUTH CELEBRATION (Noon)

PRELUDE

Prélude sur l'Introït de l'Épiphanie
Maurice Duruflé

ENTRANCE

The first Nowell

1 The first Nowell, the angel did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds
in fields as they lay:
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep:

℞ *Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel.*

2 They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night. ℞

3 And by the light of that same star
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went. ℞

4 This star drew nigh to the northwest,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest;
And there it did both stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay. ℞

5 Then entered in those wise men three,
Full rev'rently upon their knee,
And offered there, in his presence,
Their gold and myrrh
and frankincense. ℞

6 Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heav'nly Lord;
Who with the Father we adore
And Spirit blest for evermore. ℞

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EASTER AND THE MOVEABLE FEASTS

In keeping with an ancient practice of the church, the date of Easter and the moveable feasts for the coming year are announced on Epiphany.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Welcome Back

to non-practicing Catholics

Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey.

Pope Francis

Are you a Catholic who has been away from the Church? Do you think about returning? Or do you know a Catholic who has been away from the practice of their faith?

"Welcome Back" is our parish program created to help people return to the sacraments and to regular church attendance. It's a wonderful opportunity to ask questions about faith, and to learn about changes in the Church.

- Ask questions and discuss faith
- Bring concerns
- Get to know the Church under Pope Francis
- Participate in the Sacraments again

WELCOME BACK is a 12 week program that begins on Monday, January 5, 2015, at 7:00pm in Cathedral Place. For information and to find out if this is the program for you, contact Rosanne Michaels, 206-654-4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

We are One Family Under God

"We are One Family Under God" brings to mind the importance of family in our daily lives. This reminder is particularly important when dealing with the migration phenomenon, as family members are too often separated from one another.

In his Apostolic Constitution, Exsul Familia, Pope Pius XII referred to the Holy Family, "fleeing into Egypt, is the archetype of every refugee family." Fleeing the fury of an evil king, the Holy Family is an embodiment of the millions of families fleeing violence and death around the world. Imagine Joseph, struggling in Egypt to support his family as they await a time when they can return home. Or think of the difficult journey that the Holy Family faced as they fled the dangers in their homeland. These are problems that many migrants confront on a daily basis as they try to make their way in a new land, or simply struggle to get there in the first place.

A dearth of economic opportunities confronting large segments of Latin America, the Caribbean, and elsewhere places significant strain on families and often presents them with a troubling choice: stay together and remain in their home country amidst violent and difficult conditions which can tear families and communities apart; or leave their family and head northward, with the hope of making it to the United States.

Violence in countries of origin also threatens family cohesion. Family members are uprooted by war and persecution and families are often torn apart. One need only think of places like Syria or the Central African Republic to find examples of forced migration that are occurring on an epic scale. In Latin America today the outbreak in violence has resulted in the forced migration of thousands of unaccompanied migrant children who are fleeing from their crime ridden neighborhoods for a place of safety.

Centering Prayer

Monday evenings, January 26, February 2, 9, 16
7:00pm, Pastoral Outreach Center

The heart and soul of Centering Prayer is consenting to the presence and action of God in our lives. It is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer; rather, it casts a new light and depth of meaning on them. It is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. This four-session experience is meant to open our awareness of God whom we know by faith is within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than choosing, by centering on the Divine Presence within us.
