COMMUNION

(10:00)

Let your face shine down upon your servant, deliver me in your mercy. Lord, let me not be confounded, for I have called upon you.

Psalm 23: The Lord is my shepherd

Schubert

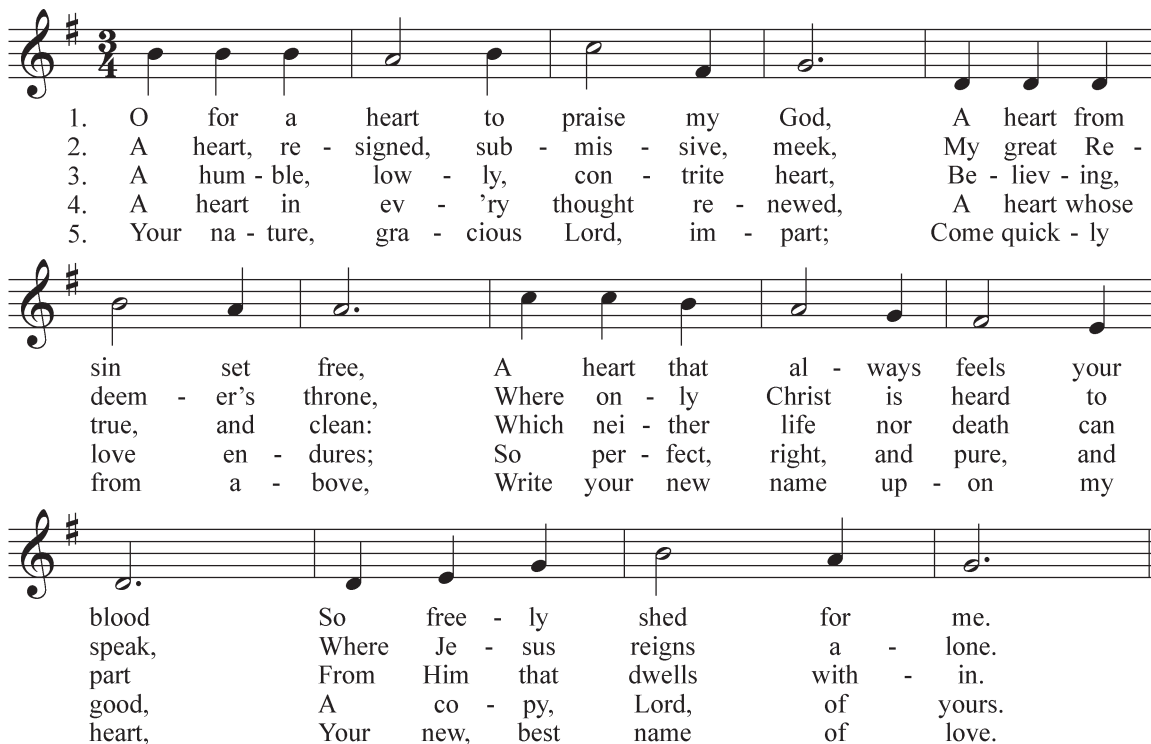

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul.
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in presence of mine enemies,
 Thou annointest my head with oil, My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the day of my life,
 I will dwell in the house of the Lord for evermore.

When you return to your place after receiving Holy Communion, please KNEEL OR BE SEATED. This is the norm for large parishes in the Archdiocese of Seattle and thank you for following our practice.

WELCOME If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are—whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS in the Cathedral are given by her friends, in memory of Marjorie C. Ryan, on the fifth anniversary of her death. Flowers are also in memory of Emmanuelle Chi Dang, from her children, on the 14th anniversary of her death.

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD'S BLESSINGS Last weekend we celebrated the Rite of Reception for Full Communion into the Catholic Church with Lee Goodness, Christy Hansen, Amanda Heap, Kimberly King, David MacDuff, Donny Mateaki, Ane Phillips, Christopher Rush, Gary Scheider, Jennifer Ulstein, Melissa Waer, Teresa Wells, Jerry Wiesner, JoAnn Wiesner, Marcos Yanez, Sr. and William Yankow. They made a Profession of Faith and celebrated the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, and now join us as full members of our Catholic Christian family. We welcome them with great joy!

NOTRE DAME ORGANIST Olivier Latry will make his St. James debut on Tuesday, February 5 at 7:30 pm. M. Latry is titular organist at Notre Dame, Paris, and considered to be one of the most dynamic performers in the world. His recital here will bring the musical glories of Paris to Seattle. It promises to be a spectacular concert and a highlight of the season. Suggested donation $15, students and seniors pay as able. Information www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Our homilist this weekend is David Olsen, recently ordained a deacon by Archbishop Brunett and one of our Cathedral sacristans. It is a joy to be able to welcome David to the pulpit just as it is a joy to have him serving as deacon in the parish. Those of you who have not yet had the pleasure of meeting David and his lovely wife, Reeny, have something to look forward to!

SANDWICHES FOR ST. MARTIN DE PORRES SHELTER may be brought to the coffee hours next Sunday or to the parish office before 3:00 pm Monday, February 11.

BABYSITTING available each Sunday during the 10:00 and 12:00 Masses in the Pastoral Outreach Center, Mother Cabrini Room. Enter through the courtyard at Ninth and Columbia.

I AM IN YOUR MIDST
AS ONE WHO SERVES

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

ST. JAMES WINTER SHELTER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Each winter, from October through April, St. James operates an overflow shelter for 10-14 men from Catholic Community Services' St. Martin de Porres Shelter. The men are 50 and over and cannot stay at St. Martin's because of lack of space in the cold winter months. Pairs of volunteers serve as overnight and/or breakfast hosts once a month. We always welcome more breakfast cooks but are especially in need of volunteers who can serve as overnight hosts on a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, or Monday night. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640.

COFFEE HOUR needs you! Ever wonder who makes those great muffins? Who brews that great coffee? Who extends that warm welcome? It could be you! If you like people, and like making people feel welcome, then we need you to help with our coffee hour hospitality. Especially needed are people to help following the noon Mass. It's fun, it's easy, there's a minimal time commitment and you meet great people. Information, Patty Bowman, 382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

WELCOME, PARENTS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN We support all of our parishioners who are attending Mass with young children and we welcome those children into our midst. If you find that your child needs a quiet place away from the stimulation of the Mass, please feel free to step into the west vestibule or the cathedral chapel, where we have provided a sound system so that you can continue to participate in the Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship.

Please note that babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!), are regular recipients of the Cathedral's highly acclaimed journal In Your Midst, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates (and become eligible for Cathedral scholarship money). In addition, if you are a registered parishioner and use envelopes, or are on the direct deposit program, we will mail you a quarterly report of your contributions to the parish. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. Please drop the completed card in the collection basket or put it in the mail. If you're not sure whether you're registered at St. James, call the parish office at 206-622-3559.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS AT THE ALTAR Floral offerings are a venerable custom in the Church, and a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for an answered prayer. Information Kay Kaiser, 206-654-4650, kkaiser@stjames-cathedral.org.

NEED PASTORAL CARE? The Cathedral provides a variety of such ministries. Whether you are sick or homebound and in need of communion, whether you would like a tape of Sunday's Mass, or if you need the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, we can help! Information John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZE Each Friday at 6:30 pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week.

ARCHBISHOP HUNTHAUSEN LIBRARY Visit your friendly and accessible Archbishop Hunthausen Library in Cathedral Hall during the Sunday coffee hours. We have a good selection of old favorites and recent releases.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend Alexander J. Brunett. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.

Olivier Latry

Titular Organist, Cathedral of Notre-Dame, Paris

Olivier Latry, titular organist of the Cathedral of Notre-Dame in Paris, makes his St. James Cathedral debut in this special concert. Latry is widely considered one of the most distinguished international organists; his concert tours have taken him to the world's most notable cathedrals and concert halls in more than forty countries on five continents. For a century, the works of French organists and composers have been a notable part of the repertory of St. James Cathedral. You will not want to miss this opportunity to hear of the finest organists in the world playing masterpieces by Tournemire, Duruflé, Alain, Langlais, Dupré & Messiaen on the magnificent organs of St. James Cathedral.

Putting God First

A Lent Retreat for the Cathedral Parish

Five Week Plan

WEEK ONE The Call

Stewardship is part of discipleship. But Christian discipleship begins with vocation, the call to follow Jesus and imitate his way of life. In what ways is God calling me? To whom is God sending me?

WEEK TWO Jesus' Way

Jesus accomplishes his Father's will—paradoxically—by emptying himself completely. Do we “have among ourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Jesus Christ,” as St. Paul says? When in our lives have we experienced that self-emptying?

WEEK THREE Living as a Steward

God created us in “the divine image and likeness.” As part of this “resemblance” to God, we are called to share in his work of creation and redemption. Do we value the gift of life, of creation? When have we been able to share in the work of redemption, in joy or in suffering?

WEEK FOUR Stewards of the Church

Our participation in the building up of the Church takes different forms. But every Christian is called—in our own place and time—to spread the good news and to stand in solidarity with the poor, the oppressed, the suffering. In what ways do we live and preach the Gospel?

WEEK FIVE The Christian Steward

We conclude with a brief portrait of the Christian steward, drawn from the New Testament. In a special way, the Blessed Virgin is the model of Christian discipleship. In the end, what remains is the question: Do we also wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ?

Each Lent, St. James Cathedral offers many opportunities for prayer and reflection. This Lent, we're offering something more: an opportunity to gather in small groups with other parishioners to talk about faith and discipleship.

Putting God First is a five-week study of the U. S. Catholic Bishops' 1991 pastoral letter Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. This important document was drafted by our own late beloved Thomas J. Murphy. Themes for each of the five weeks are outlined at the left.

We will gather as a group for prayer, then break into smaller groups for discussion of an assigned question. You'll find the small groups helpful in getting to know the members of your group. Smaller groups also tend to get deeper into the topic and to allow everyone to share equally.

Our hope is that the study of this document, and above all the stimulating discussions that result, will help renew your faith and your relationship to the Church and Jesus Christ. Please consider participating this Lent! Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284.
