EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

In keeping with an ancient custom in the Church, the date of Easter and other moveable feasts of the liturgical year are announced in traditional chant.

CREED CHANTED ON ONE TONE

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you.

ON THE COVER The Christmas Crib, St. James Cathedral Chapel. This is the last day to visit!

HELP SYRIAN REFUGEES Stop by the coffee cart during coffee hour after Mass on January 8 and January 15. The coffee cart will be collecting donations that will be distributed to local Syrian refugees. Needed items include clothing and blankets, hygiene products, and school supplies. Cash donations are used for rent assistance. Information, Chris Koehler, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511.

SANTO NIÑO CELEBRATION On Sunday, January 15 at the Noon Mass, we will celebrate the Santo Niño—the Holy Child Jesus. All are invited to bring their own images of the child Jesus from home for the blessing. A wonderful fiesta follows in Cathedral Place Hall.

THE SEARCH FOR ENOUGH: A MEN'S DAY OF REFLECTION Saturday, January 28, 9am – 3pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. As the new year begins, give yourself the gift of time to sift through what's most important in life. Presenter Mike Schut will help you explore the themes of scarcity and abundance in your life commitments and relationships, and in a modern economy. Sponsored by the Ignatian Spirituality Center. COST: $45 includes breakfast, snacks and lunch. Scholarships available. Information/registration, www.ignatiancenter.org

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU We visited a young man living in subsidized housing who was not taking advantage of discounts on utilities, medical treatment and health insurance available to him because of his low income. He asked us to start paying part of his rent on an ongoing basis so that he could pay some anticipated medical bills. We gave him rent help on a one-time basis (we cannot afford to help every month), encouraged him to apply for discounts to which he is entitled and referred him to other money-saving programs. Your support made this potentially life-changing visit possible—thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

FOR YOUR SAFETY It is important for you to know that at each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or a private security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Mary in Anacortes and Marysville; and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell.

Sacrificial Sunday Giving 2017

"We, though many, are one body in Christ."
Our giving makes possible so many of the good things that go on here at the Cathedral parish, week in and week out. Our giving allows us, in a very real way, to reach out to one another and to the poorest in our midst with love and compassion.

Dear Friends,

On this Epiphany Sunday when we celebrate the gifts the wise men brought to the Holy Family, I want to take one more opportunity to thank you for the incredibly generous gift you made to the Hunthausen Fund at the time of my 50th anniversary celebration last month. You set out to raise $50,000. Would you believe that, at this point over $177,000 has been contributed to the Hunthausen Fund? What an unbelievable testament that is to your generosity. Frankly, it leaves me speechless. All I can think of is all the families who—thanks to you—will be able to move from shelters to permanent housing. Thank you with all my heart!

ORGANIST KEN COWAN IN CONCERT Friday, January 20 at 7:30 pm. Associate Professor and Chair of Organ Studies at Rice University, Ken Cowan is one of America's most sought-after organists. Particularly known for his performances of transcriptions, Mr. Cowan dazzles audiences through his immaculate technique and dramatic interpretations of orchestral music at the organ. In this, his first performance at St. James, he will present a variety of repertoire, including his own arrangements of popular symphonic movements. Information and passes, www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

MINDFUL ALTERNATIVE SUPPORT GROUP meets at St. James monthly on the last Saturday. The next meeting is January 25th at 3pm. Family and friends of individuals with mental illness are invited to share ideas, resources and experiences. Information, Terry Proctor, mindfulalternative@gmail.com or visit www.mindfulalternative.org

CATHOLIC 101

The last Wednesday of each month is devoted to a refresher course in the basics of Catholic life and teaching

On Wednesday, January 25, at 7:30pm (note start time!) in the Holy Names Room, join us for LITURGY OF THE HOURS 101. ANDREW CASAD, Director of Liturgy for the Archdiocese of Seattle, gives an overview of the "Prayer of the Church"—and an opportunity to pray together.

YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT Wrap up the Christmas season with an evening of fun activities, prayer and community-building to start your week off right. Sunday night from 6:30-8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

NICARAGUA MISSION TRIP The first of six prep sessions for our July service trip to NPH Nicaragua will be Monday, January 23, 2016 at 7:00pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. If you've expressed interest or already registered for the trip, it's important that you be there. Questions or to RSVP, contact Curtis.

QUESTIONS? Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation, you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. Information, Kathleen McCabe, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

CHAIR YOGA PRACTICE will no longer be offered due to low attendance. We apologize for the inconvenience and thank everyone who has participated in the chair yoga practice in the past.

SPIRITUALITY OF PAUL BOOK GROUP We hear from Paul of Tarsus almost every Sunday of the year, but how much do we really know about this persecutor-turned-proselytizer? Together we'll learn about this complex and ever-controversial missionary and talk about what we can gain from his letters today. We'll be using Professor Thomas H. Tobin's accessible The Spirituality of Paul as a jumping off point. Our first discussion will be on Monday January 30 at 7:00pm. Books may be purchased on sliding scale of $10-$20. Contact Curtis to get your copy today!

THIRD SUNDAY SOCIAL Join us for our January 15th for our Third Sunday Social after the 5:30 Mass in the Rectory Parlors! All young adults are welcome!

Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org

CONFRONTING PORNOGRAPHY St. James has an anonymous support group for those who want to overcome pornography use in their lives. Meetings are at each Tuesday from 7:30-8:30 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. For more information or questions, Curtis Leighton, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org.

National Migration Week

January 8 – 14

"No American institution does more for immigrants than your Christian communities. Now you are facing this stream of Latin immigration which affects many of your dioceses. Not only as the Bishop of Rome, but also as a pastor from the South, I feel the need to thank and encourage you."

– Pope Francis, Prayer with the Bishops of the United States of America, September 2015

Immigrants who come to the United States, and particularly those who are undocumented, are a particularly vulnerable population who need someone to speak on behalf of their human rights and dignity. Our moral tradition calls on all people of faith and goodwill to stand up in defense of life and human dignity; it is a fundamental calling for us as Catholics. Scripture speaks repeatedly of the migration experience, from Abraham who was sent out from his homeland in the Old Testament, to the Holy Family who fled Herod and lived their lives for a time as refugees in a foreign land. - Migration and Refugee Services, USCCB.

Reach Out to Help Refugees and Migrants, both at Home and Abroad

Send an electronic postcard to Washington, DC asking that lawmakers ensure humane treatment towards migrants and refugees. The postcards may be sent from Justice for Immigrants' homepage at www.justiceforimmigrants.org

Donate clothes and household items - stop by the espresso cart today and next Sunday during coffee hour to drop off your donations for distribution to local Syrian refugees. Needed items include clothing, blankets, hygiene products, school supplies, large cooking pots, roasting pans, space heaters, tableware, laptops, household tool kits, first aid kits, and flash lights. Cash donations will be used for rental assistance.

Welcome the stranger in our midst - come learn how you can share your time and talents through individual tutoring in English or citizenship preparation, by accompanying refugee elders on trips to local attractions, or in other ways. Today at 2:00pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

Support the work of CRS partnering with organizations around the world to help poor and vulnerable people overcome emergencies, earn a living through agriculture, and access affordable health care. Go to www.crs.org

PAX CHRISTI 2017 PROFESSION OF VOW OF NONVIOLENCE

"Nonviolence: A Style of Politics for Peace" is the theme chosen by Francis for his yearly message for the 2017 Church-sponsored World Day of Peace (January 1).

"The world is in a state of war in bits and pieces."

"If the rights and the equal dignity of every person are safeguarded without any discrimination and distinction, then nonviolence, understood as a political method, can constitute a realistic way to overcome armed conflicts..."

"Violence profanes the name of God. Let us never tire of repeating: The name of God cannot be used to justify violence. Peace alone is holy... not war!" Pope Francis

In the footsteps of Jesus and Pope Francis, we invite you to join Pax Christi Seattle members in making a one-year Vow of Nonviolence on Saturday, January 14, St. Joseph Parish at the 5:00pm Mass. In preparation, set aside time to pray and reflect over the words below. Some parts are easier to live out than others, and we differ in how easy or difficult it is for us as individuals to live out these words. While the Vow of Nonviolence is a personal commitment, by gathering together, we strengthen one another's resolve and commitment to loving one's neighbor in the coming year.

RECOGNIZING THE VIOLENCE IN MY OWN HEART, yet trusting in the goodness and mercy of God, I vow for one year to practice the nonviolence of Jesus who taught us in the Sermon on the Mount:

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons and daughters of God... You have learned how it was said, 'You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy'; but I say to you, Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you. In this way, you will be daughters and sons of your Creator in heaven."

Before God the Creator and the Sanctifying Spirit, I vow to carry out in my life the love and example of Jesus:

- by striving for peace within myself and seeking to be a peacemaker in my daily life;
- by accepting suffering rather than inflicting it;
- by refusing to retaliate in the face of provocation and violence;
- by persevering in nonviolence of tongue and heart;
- by living conscientiously and simply so that I do not deprive others of the means to live;
- by actively resisting evil and working nonviolently to abolish war and the causes of war from my own heart and from the face of the earth.

God, I trust in Your sustaining love and believe that just as You gave me the grace and desire to offer this, so You will also bestow abundant grace to fulfill it.*

*Vow composed by Eileen Egan and Rev. John Dear, Pax Christi USA

Seeking Refuge: Forced to Flee

A REFUGEE CAMP SIMULATION

Saturday, January 21, 2017 | 10:00am-12:30pm
Cathedral Hall, St. James Cathedral

Join us for a unique, eye-opening experience on what it is like to enter a refugee camp. While no simulation can give you the full sense of the refugee experience, this simulation will help you to better understand the situation faced by refugees around the world. The simulation will be followed by a panel discussion with former refugees.

"Migrants trust that they will encounter acceptance, solidarity, and help, that they will meet people who will sympathize with the distress and tragedy experienced by others, recognize the values and resources the latter had to offer, and are open to sharing humanly and materially with the needy and disadvantaged." Pope Francis, Message for World Day of Migrants and Refugees, October 12, 2012.

Free. Space is limited and registration is required.

Welcome Back

A CATHEDRAL PROGRAM FOR NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

*Come back to the Lord with all your heart!
God is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, rich in faithful love. Joel 2*

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers a 10-week “Welcome Back” program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It’s a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we’ll help you return to the sacraments, and to becoming an active part of this faith community.

The winter program begins Monday, January 23, 2017, and continues Mondays through March. Sessions are held 7:00 – 9:00 pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.

For more information, without any obligation, contact Rosanne Michaels at 206-654-4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.
