INTRODUCTORY RITES

*A bust of our patron, the apostle James, figures in the entrance procession.
The bust, thought to be the work of a 16th-century German sculptor, was created to house a relic of the apostle. Following Mass, you are invited to venerate a relic of our heavenly patron.*

Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last weekend, we had visitors from Irvine, CA; Poseyville, IN; and Newberry, FL, to name a few. The winner of our drawing was from Auburn, ME.*

THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Visitors, stop by the bookstore today for a great selection of Cathedral souvenirs... CDs, postcards, note cards, books, mugs, magnets, and more! We also have a great selection of Catholic reading, and some beautiful new handmade crucifixes, modeled on crosses from 19th-century Ireland.

WALKING WITH OUR LADY The Health and Healing Committee invites you to walk for your health to shrines of Our Lady around the world. Our goal is to collect 18,000 miles and to "travel" from St. James to Fatima and Lourdes! If you signed up at the Health Fair May 5, you can bring your mileage record to Cathedral Hall the first Sunday of each month during coffee hour. Or, if you'd like, you can e-mail them to Pastoral Care Minister John Simpson. If you haven't done so already come join the fun and stop by the display table in the hall for a free pedometer to get you going. Information, John Simpson 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH MIGRANT PROJECT THANK YOU Thank you to the entire St. James Cathedral Parish for your support of the Youth Migrant Project mission trip. We will explore the pristine waters of the reservoir ringed by snow-capped peaks, surrounded by rugged wilderness. Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners! Information, or to reserve your place, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

I AM IN YOUR MIDST AS ONE WHO SERVES

Volunteer Opportunities

FREDERIC OZANAM HOUSE, located directly across the street from St. James Cathedral, is a new 56-unit facility, managed by the Archdiocesan Housing Authority, providing permanent supportive housing for formerly homeless men. Because they have been homeless, the men need many things for their new home: sheets, towels, etc. If you'd like to help, please stop by our Giving Tree on August 2 and 9 at coffee hour. All donations will be most appreciated! Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

SOLANUS CASEY CENTER, our parish's drop-in center for homeless and low-income people, is looking for volunteers to help in two areas:

- Several volunteers are needed to help in the areas of hospitality, resources referral, and ministry of listening and presence. Must be available weekday afternoons.
- We also seek one volunteer with an accounting background to assist with accounts payable, budget and statistical reports.

The Solanus Casey Center serves approximately 300 people per month. Your help is essential to continuing and expanding the work of this important outreach ministry. Information, Joan Clough, 206-795-2951 or joanc@ccsww.org.

This letter was printed in the parish bulletin this past Sunday. Because of its importance, it is being reprinted for the sake of those who may not have been able to be at Mass last Sunday.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

July 19, 2009

Dear Friends,

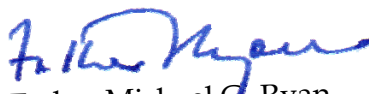

For some of you, this will be the first time you will have heard of the death of Deacon Joe Curtis. Joe died very suddenly and unexpectedly in the wee hours of last Tuesday morning. I had visited him late Sunday afternoon over at Exeter House and would never have guessed that his death was so near. He was looking forward to returning to his home at Faerland Terrace and, even more importantly, to his community here at St. James.

For personal reasons, Joe's family was very eager to have his funeral as soon as possible. It was celebrated this past Thursday afternoon. Many of you learned about it in time to attend but many others of you, unfortunately, did not. For that reason, I intend to offer the 10:00 Mass next Sunday, the feast of St. James, for the happy repose of his soul.

Joe Curtis joined our staff as minister with the homeless back in the late 1980's - just a year or so after I arrived at St. James. His name quickly became synonymous with the Cathedral's outreach to poor and homeless people in downtown Seattle. More importantly, his presence became a gift to countless people who call the streets of our city home. Joe was a founder of the Matt Talbot Center, he led Bible study sessions at the Downtown Emergency Service Center, for years he coordinated the parish's involvement in Operation Nightwatch, and he ran the clothing room at the Lazarus Day Center. Very fittingly, in 2003 he was honored by Operation Nightwatch as Hero of the Homeless.

And, of course, Joe served as Deacon and preached here at St. James. All those years he did what deacons are ordained to do: he helped awaken us to what it means to find the face of Christ in the least of our sisters and brothers. In so many ways, he was "in our midst as one who serves."

We will miss Joe but we will see him again when the mercy of God gathers us together gain in the joy of God's kingdom! Please pray for him as well as for his wife, Martha, and his daughters Ann and Mary and their families.

Father Michael G. Ryan

Praying at Home

August 2009

What is prayer?

Perhaps you wake in the morning after not enough sleep; you're in a hurry, needing to get to work, or perhaps your children are already under your feet. It's often a stressed, hurried time. Why not begin your day, the moment you awake, by making the sign of the cross, giving it all the richness of its meaning? If you are in a public setting where you cannot make the sign of the cross, you can "sign" your heart, in a secret sign of recognition of your Lord. That is always possible, to everyone, in every circumstance.

Jean-Marie Cardinal Lustiger

Morning Prayer

God our Savior, hear our morning prayer:
help us to follow the light and live the truth.
In you we have been born again
as sons and daughters of light:
may we be your witnesses before all the world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the Liturgy of the Hours

Praying for Priests

On August 4, we observe the memorial of St. John Vianney, who died 150 years ago this year. St. John Vianney was a simple, faithful man who was almost expelled from seminary for his poor Latin! When he was finally ordained, he was appointed the pastor of Ars, a small village in the south of France, and the people there were gradually transformed by his faithful witness and by his long hours of prayer on their behalf. Pope Benedict XVI has declared this 150th anniversary of the saint's death to be the Year of the Priest (June 19, 2009 – June 19, 2010). He has also named St. John Vianney—long the patron saint of parish priests—the patron saint of all priests. In this special year of prayer, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has provided the following prayer for the use of the faithful:

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry.
We pray that Mary will guide your priests
to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,
Mary's most chaste spouse.
May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
May your priests be holy,
filled with the fire of your love
seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.
Saint John Vianney, pray for us.

A Traditional Meal Prayer

Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts which we are about to receive from thy bounty;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for August

Each month, the Holy Father asks us to pray with him by remembering his intentions in our prayer. These are Pope Benedict XVI's special intentions for the month of August.

General Intention: That people worldwide may become more mindful of the plights of millions of refugees and displaced persons, and that tangible solutions be found to address their often tragic situations.

Mission Intention: That those Christians who are discriminated against and persecuted in many countries because of the name of Christ may have their human rights, equality, and religious freedom recognized in order to be able to live and profess their own faith freely.

A Prayer for Evening

Almighty God, we give you thanks for bringing us safely to this evening hour.
May this lifting up of our hands in prayer
be a sacrifice pleasing in your sight.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the Liturgy of the Hours

A Prayer before the Tabernacle

Lord Jesus, on my knees,
turning toward you, being for you,
in front of the tabernacle,
I understand:
I could not choose any other road,
any happier road,
even if by appearances
another road seemed more glorious,
for you, eternal friend,
the only friend of my life,
would not be present there.

Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan
Written under house arrest in Vietnam, 1980.

Praying to Mary

We turn to you for protection,
holy Mother of God.
Listen to our prayers
and help us in our needs.
Save us from every danger,
glorious and blessed Virgin.

An ancient prayer to Mary
