The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 21, 2018

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

January 14, 2018

Dear Friends,

I want to share with you the news that, for personal and family reasons, our Director of Music, Dr. Paul Thornock, has made the decision to step aside from his important responsibilities here at the Cathedral. During the too-short time he has been with us, Paul has done an amazing job. I don't need to tell you how beautifully the Cathedral Choir of St. James and the Women of St. James Schola have been singing under his gifted direction. Paul has also graced many a liturgy with his impressive skills as organist and accompanist. Our young people's choirs under the direction of Stacey Sunde have also prospered with Paul's unfailing support.

I know you will want to join me in expressing gratitude to Paul for a job well done and in wishing him and his family every blessing now and in the days ahead.

I am grateful to the staff of the music department, Joseph Adam, Stacey Sunde, and Marjorie Bunday, for the leadership they will be giving as we go forward. Your prayerful support will mean a lot to them – and to me.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Ryan

CREED (except at 10)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son
 is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER James hears the call of the Lord. Doorstop of the Ceremonial Bronze Doors. Ulrich Henn, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by Lisa and Michael Forbes in grateful appreciation of the Seattle Police department for their daily sacrifices and protection of our Cathedral. If you would like to offer flowers, contact Jane Mueller, 206-654-4650 or e-mail jmueller@stjames-cathedral.org.

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO is up and running after the 10:00 Mass in Cathedral Hall. Proceeds for January will go to the Mental Health and Wellness Ministry.

JUBILATE YOUNG WOMEN'S ENSEMBLE WITH JOSEPH ADAM, CATHEDRAL ORGANIST On Friday, January 26 at 8:00pm, Jubilate Young Women's Ensemble, conducted by Stacey Sunde, is joined by cathedral organist Joseph Adam in a program of chant-based works, including Dupré's Fifteen Pieces, Op. 18 and movements from Couperin's Messe des Couvents. Information and passes, www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME Talk with fellow parishioners about the possibility of sharing rides to Mass and other parish events as a way of reducing your carbon footprint. You can take this a step further by organizing occasional walk-to-church weekends.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Paul in Seattle and on the Swinomish Reservation, and the Mission Church of St. Paul in Westport.

COUNT US IN – FRIDAY, JANUARY 26 All Home, a Seattle/King County agency that focuses on homelessness, is now accepting volunteers for Count Us In 2018, the annual count of people experiencing homelessness. Volunteers will be asked to conduct a visual count of individuals experiencing homelessness across King County. Teams are comprised of community volunteers and expert guides (individuals currently/previously experiencing homelessness). Volunteers are expected to have a cell phone, and to walk approximately 2-3 miles if necessary. To volunteer, go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/KingCountyPIT2018>. When you register, indicate you are affiliated with Patrick Barredo. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

SURVIVING SUICIDE Sunday, January 28, 1:30pm, Pastoral Outreach Center. If you have lost a loved one to suicide – you are a survivor of suicide. A survivor can be a spouse or partner, child, sibling, friend. Common feelings include shock, anger, guilt, depression, confusion and shame. Laura Takacs MPH, LICSW, clinical director of Virginia Mason's Separation and Loss Services, will be addressing the grief cycle associated with traumatic loss. Information, Nancy Granger, 206-382-4269, ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org.

CAPPELLA ROMANA CONCERT–MACHAUT: MESSE DE NOSTRE DAME. Friday, February 2 at 8:00pm. Following his Cappella Romana début at St. James Cathedral leading powerful chants from Santiago de Compostela, international early music star Marcel Pérès from Paris directs the earliest known Mass setting by a single composer, Guillaume de Machaut (1300–1377), with chants for Candlemas. There will be a pre-concert talk at 7:00pm in Room 1E-W of Cathedral Place. Information and passes, www.cappellaromana.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Father Ryan's homily on Epiphany Sunday spoke of the "stars" we have to guide us, including "the poor, the overlooked" who light the way for us along Christ's path of "humility, meekness, patience, poverty of spirit, love." Three days later, we visited a young man with all those qualities. He spoke softly of how he had learned to "survive" while homeless in the past and, now facing eviction that likely cannot be avoided, is willing to live without shelter himself if someone "who needs it more" can get a bed in a warm, dry place. As he graciously thanked us for the financial help we gave and for taking time to listen, he told us he is Muslim. We were not expecting that, but getting to see a shining star up close is, of course, always a surprise. Your support helps so many in our parish – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com.

SKYLINE OPEN HOUSE: SAVE THE DATE Skyline, a 62+ retirement community across the street from St. James, will be hosting an exclusive Open House for Cathedral parishioners following Noon Mass on Sunday, February 11 from 1:30 – 3pm. One and two bedroom independent living apartment homes will be available to tour. Come enjoy a beverage and appetizer as you learn about the benefits and amenities of Skyline. RSVP to 206-405-4100 or email fjahan@skylineseattle.org.

HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS ADVOCACY DAY The St. James Housing Advocacy Committee invites you to join us in Olympia on Thursday, February 1, 2018. Grief Support Group

Wednesdays, January 31—March 14, 2018
6:30pm-8:00pm, Gallagher Center (enter on Columbia St.)
St. James Cathedral

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 7-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels

UNITY

Contemplative Prayer with music from Taizé

Friday, February 2, 2018 | 6:30pm

St. James Cathedral

*Your right hand, O Lord, glorious in power
Exodus 15:6*

On Friday, February 2 at 6:30 pm, at the conclusion of the international Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, Christians of many denominations gather at St. James Cathedral in downtown Seattle for an hour of prayer, song, and silence in the tradition of Taizé. Local leaders from many denominations will attend the service.

*God of all, we pray as one,
that we may be one, just as the Lord Jesus prayed we may be one in Him.
Your son Jesus compels us
to be reconciled to one another.
May our spirits be joined to your Holy Spirit,
that we may witness to the visible unity of your Church. May we all recognize that we are truly one.*

Lenten Evenings of Reflection

MONDAY EVENINGS, 7-9PM
PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER, ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

February 19: Laurie Cassidy

BUILDING THE CITY OF GOD DESPITE INTERNALIZED OPPRESSION

Frightening current events give an urgency to building the City of God! For Jesus the Kingdom of God is not the result of our strategic planning, building or accomplishment. We will explore how American cultural norms can reduce discipleship into a "spiritual way" of accomplishing more and being more productive on behalf of building the Kingdom of God.

Laurie Cassidy's most recent book is The Scandal of White Complicity in U.S. Hyper-Incarceration: A Non-Violent Spirituality of White Resistance. Her teaching and research explore how Christian mysticism can be a resource for personal and social transformation.

February 26: Melissa Weiksner

PRAYING ABOUT ADDICTION WITH THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Rare is the person who has not been impacted by a loved one with addiction and needs our prayers. But how to pray for them? We will use the Stations of the Cross as a vehicle for praying for those suffering -- directly or indirectly -- from the epidemic disease of opioid addiction.

Melissa Weiksner has been using her daughter's story to educate about how addiction can impact any family. She is the author of Heroin's Puppet - Amy (and her disease) and It's Not Gunna Be an Addiction. She most recently worked at the Center for Adolescent Substance Abuse Research at Boston Children's Hospital.

March 5:

Sr. Alexandra Kovats CARING FOR ALL THAT GOD HAS CREATED

In this prayshop (serving as both retreat and workshop), Sr. Alexandra Kovats will explore Laudato Si', Pope Francis' encyclical on care for our common home.

If we are called to protect the lives of the poor and the vulnerable, how do we extend that care to our planet, as an integral part of our faith?

Alexandra Kovats, CSJP has served as adjunct professor at the School of Theology and Ministry at Seattle University since 1989. She travels extensively to facilitate retreats, and is executive director of GreenHearth Collective, a nonprofit that focuses on urban ecology and spirituality.

March 12:

Jesus Huerta TRANSFORMATION THROUGH SOLIDARITY

We are called to love our neighbor. But, like the scholar, we may find ourselves wondering, "Who is my neighbor?" Through the CRS Rice Bowl, we encounter our global neighbors as our sisters and brothers, and are transformed by their lives.

As Relationship Manager for Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Jesús Huerta is responsible for managing CRS' relationships with their partners in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Montana and Idaho. Jesús takes the lead in the promotion of CRS Rice Bowl and with clergy outreach along the West Coast.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
