Praying at Home

May 2011

During the month of May, we pray in a special way to Mary, the Mother of God. Why is May Mary's month? "Is it only its being brighter than most are must delight her?" Gerard Manley Hopkins asked. "Spring's universal bliss/Much, had much to say/To offering Mary May... This ecstasy all through mothering earth/Tells Mary her mirth till Christ's birth." The following are two favorite prayers of John Paul II.

Blessed John Paul II on Mary

O Mother, you know the sufferings and hopes of the Church and the world:
come to the aid of your children in the daily trials which life brings to each one,
and grant that, thanks to the efforts of all,
the darkness will not prevail over the light.
To you, Dawn of Salvation, we commit our journey through the new Millennium, so that with you as guide
all people may know Christ,
the light of the world and its only Saviour,
who reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit
for ever and ever. Amen.

Mother of the Redeemer,
with great joy we call you blessed.
In order to carry out His plan of salvation,
God the Father chose you before the creation of the world.
You believed in His love and obeyed His word.
The Son of God desired you for His Mother
when He became man to save the human race.
You received Him with ready obedience and undivided heart.
The Holy Spirit loved you as His mystical spouse and filled you with singular gifts.
You allowed yourself to be led by His hidden powerful action.
On the eve of the third Christian Millennium,
we entrust to you the Church which acknowledges you and invokes you as Mother.
To you, Mother of human family and of the nations,
we confidently entrust the whole humanity,
with its hopes and fears.
Do not let it lack the light of true wisdom.
Guide its steps in the ways of peace.
Enable all to meet Christ,
the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
Sustain us, O Virgin Mary, on our journey of faith and obtain for us the grace of eternal salvation.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother of God and our Mother, Mary!

A Meal Prayer

Blessed be you, tender and loving Lord!
For you gave given us the Blessed Virgin Mary,
who gave birth in time to Christ, our Savior.
Through her intercession, we ask you to bless our daily bread and drink, and to give us health and strength to do your work. We ask this through Jesus,
Son of God and Son of Mary. Amen.

A Morning Prayer

The Liturgy of the Hours, the prayer of the Church, is full of wonderful prayers for the morning.

As morning breaks, I look to you, O God,
to be my strength this day. Alleluia!

A Prayer for Workers

May 1 is the feast of St. Joseph the Worker.

God our Father,
work is your gift to us,
a call to reach new heights
by using our talents for the good of all.
Guide us as we work and teach us to live in the spirit that has made us your sons and daughters, in the love that has made us brothers and sisters.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
from The Liturgy of the Hours

Aspirations for May

Short prayers to memorize and pray throughout the day.

- My Mother, my hope.
- Mother of mercy, pray for us.
- O Mary, make me live in God, with God, and for God.

An Evening Prayer: the Magnificat

For centuries, Mary's canticle, the Magnificat (Luke 1: 46-55), has been associated with evening prayer.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my savior
for God has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel,
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children forever.

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for May

YOUTH MISSION TRIP

Burlington, WA

July 24-30, 2011

St. James Cathedral and St. Mary's Parish join hands with the Youth Migrant Project to provide an experience for our teens from incoming freshmen to outgoing seniors.

What is the Youth Migrant Project?

The Youth Migrant Project is a summer long experience that provides senior high youth (class of 2011 - class of 2014) a unique and challenging opportunity to live in community and be of service to migrant families in the Skagit Valley. Parish youth groups serve for a week at a time throughout June, July and August. Participant jobs include: assisting in the day care centers, visiting the migrant camps, working in the fields, and providing donations. A participant's day also includes prayer, community building, leisure activities, and education about the needs of the poor.

Why are we participating?

As parishioners of St. James know, "I am in your midst as one who serves". We lead by our example. Our youth have this incredible opportunity to actively participate in social justice and hands-on ministry. The Youth Migrant Project's goals include:

1. Discovering and living Jesus' call to a life of loving service.
2. Understanding the importance of respecting the rights and responsibilities of all people
3. Learning that one does not have to travel to a third world country to work for justice and against poverty.
4. Experiencing the richness of the Latino culture.
5. Gaining valuable experience in a controlled setting to prepare youth for future mission experiences.
6. Making new friends, developing and deepening an awareness of their faith, and experiencing the universality of the Catholic Church.

How can I help?

There will be many ways to help both the teens and their mission. Consider becoming a prayer partner for one of the teens, attending a Mass on their behalf, chaperoning or donating items to take to the migrant community. There will also be opportunities to donate financially to support the mission, a teen, or the migrant families. Information on chaperoning, please contact Christine Henderson at the contact information below.

Are you an interested teen?

If so, come with your parent or guardian to the Informational Meeting on Sunday, May 8th at 1:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Contact Christine Henderson for more information 253-973-1441 or chenderson@stjames-cathedral.org.

Caregiver Burnout

Saturday, May 14, 2011
Pastoral Outreach Center
10:00am—12:00pm

By popular demand, we are bringing STEVE EMMER, MSW, Director of Care Consultation, ElderHealth Northwest, back to discuss tips in dealing with caregiver burnout. There are both mental and physical challenges for taking care of those who cannot be independent. This includes taking care of family members, and also can apply to many of us in our everyday lives and employment. Please join us to learn more about how the caregivers can also take care of themselves.

You will learn the signs of burnout, both subtle and not so subtle, as well as tips on how to handle and prevent it. There will be ample time for questions as well.
