We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

July 24, 2016

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!
St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's images of St. James the Greater.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today. Last week, we had visitors from Paxton, IL; Dallas, GA; Harlingen, TX, and Paisley, Scotland. The winner of our drawing was from Egg Harbor Township, NJ.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

IMAGES OF ST. JAMES

The Cathedral's primary image of Saint James was created by the Rambusch studios as part of the 1950 remodel of the building. It originally formed part of the reredos behind the altar, and was moved to its present location in 1994.

The image, carved from wood by Italian craftsmen, features traditional symbols of the saint. The scallop shell, staff, and gourd are reminders of the great shrine of Santiago de Compostela, where the relics of Saint James have been venerated for many centuries. In the Middle Ages, this shrine became one of the most popular pilgrimage places, alongside Rome and Jerusalem, and to this day hundreds of thousands of pilgrims make their way to the Cathedral of Santiago on foot, bicycle, or horseback. The walking stick and gourd for carrying the day's water were indispensable on the pilgrim way, and the scallop shell was the sign of the pilgrim who had completed the journey.

In addition to the carving above the north doors, the Cathedral has two other images of Saint James. The first window on the left as you enter the west doors of the Cathedral represents James — see if you can spot the traditional emblems of the Apostle. For many years, this window by Charles Connick was the only image of the Cathedral's patron. St. James also appears high above the doors on the west façade of the Cathedral, in the central niche, in a limestone carving dating from 1950.

Glory be to God in heaven,

Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;

You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,

WHEEL IS A GRASSROOTS ORGANIZING EFFORT of homeless/formerly-homeless women, well-regarded in Seattle. For the past 16 years they've operated a loving, low-barrier, night-time women's shelter, which is currently seeking a new home. Starting August 1, St James will allow use of Cathedral Hall for WHEEL, so that 50-60 women, along with 2 WHEEL staff, may have a safe and secure place to sleep. WHEEL will only be here at night, and will not interrupt the daily life of the Cathedral. Because of the Cathedral's commitment to the Winter Shelter, WHEEL is actively pursuing a new and permanent host site and will stay only until late September. If you are aware of a possible new site in or very near to Downtown for WHEEL, or if you have questions, contact Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515.

REPORT FROM ST VINCENT DE PAUL Your SVdP donations helped make it possible for our Cathedral Vincentians to do 151 home visits during the months of April, May and June and help 211 low (or no) income residents of St James Parish who struggle to pay for life's necessities, such as rent, electricity, beds, food, clothes and basic hygiene products. That averages over 50 home visits and 70 people helped each month. Even more parish residents call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) but must be turned away because we do not have enough volunteers or enough money. Do you have a few extra dollars you could spare to help poor residents of our parish? Or a few hours you could carve out of your busy life each month to visit our neighbors who are begging us for help? If so, please contact Christine Henderson, 253-973-1441 or christinehsvdp@gmail.com.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR MOTHERS OF YOUNG CHILDREN

Mondays, 10:00am to Noon

Mother Cabrini Room

Pastoral Outreach Center ~ 907 Columbia

(Enter through the courtyard gate at the corner 9th Avenue and Columbia.)

Our support group offers mothers of young children an opportunity to connect with and support each other through the journey of motherhood. Facilitated by Ansebe Bicoff-Smit, a child, couple, and family psychotherapist, the group explores topics such as child development, emotional attachment, positive parenting, transitioning into the role of being a mother, and reconnecting with one's partner. Moms have a chance to get out of the house, enjoy conversations with one another, share each other's laughter, and sometimes tears.

If you are not sure this group is for you, consider these statements:

1. I am new to Seattle and don't know a lot of people yet.
2. I lack social and emotional support in my life at this time.
3. I sometimes feel insecure about my ability to be a good mom.
4. I often feel stuck at home with my young child.
5. I have a hard time asking for help or support from others.
6. Sometimes I feel overwhelmed by the responsibility of being a parent.
7. I feel inundated by all the information about child rearing that is on the internet.
8. I find myself struggling with low energy and feel depressed at times.
9. My anxiety has increased since my baby's birth.
10. I rarely have time to take care of myself, and I have stopped participating in the activities I enjoyed before becoming a mom.
11. Disagreements between my partner and me have increased since we became parents.
12. I find it very difficult to trust others, even my partner, to care for my child.

All mothers are welcome.

--T. S. Eliot, Four Quartets

T. S. Eliot is one of the great poets of the 20th century – the author of The Waste Land and Murder in the Cathedral, as well as Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats, which was later transformed into the musical Cats. Eliot himself considered Four Quartets (1943) to be his finest work. The four great poems that make up Four Quartets are the culminating expression of Eliot's profoundly Christian spiritual vision. This four-week series will be led by Corinna Laughlin (Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and PhD in English Literature). Cathedral reader Scott Webster will read each of the poems. All are welcome! It is recommended, but not required, that participants read the designated poem in advance of each session.
