WELCOME—AND WELCOME BACK! If you are a visitor or a newcomer, we want you to know how welcome you are at St. James Cathedral. You're invited to visit a welcome table at the coffee hours in Cathedral Hall. You'll have a chance to ask questions and find out more about St. James Cathedral. If you're a Catholic who's been away from the Church, there's an opportunity to talk to a member of our "Welcome Back" team in an informal setting at the "Come Home Café" in Cathedral Hall.

CHORAL MUSIC AT 10:00 Each Sunday during Lent, the Cathedral Choir and Soloists will sing music from the Lenten portion of Handel's Messiah.

NEW IN THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE We have a wide variety of great Lenten reading in stock. Also, if you are a Catholic who may be returning to the practice of your faith, visit our "Catholics Come Home" section for a great selection of books on the faith and guides to understanding and participating in the Mass.

NEW ON THE WEBSITE Relive Great Music for Great Cathedrals by visiting the album online. Father Ryan's Ash Wednesday homily is available. And we have a new page geared towards Catholics who are "coming home" to the practice of their faith. Also: St. James is now on Facebook! Follow the link on the main page to become a fan. www.stjames-cathedral.org

LENTEN HOLY HOUR Each Friday during Lent, we will have a Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 12 Noon. Holy Hour includes the Liturgy of the Hours, meditations, rosary, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

CONFESSION TIMES In addition to our regular confessions on Saturday afternoons (4-5pm), this Lent we are offering two additional opportunities to celebrate this important sacrament: Tuesdays, 7:45-8:10am, and 5:00-5:25pm. Please also mark your calendar for the Day of Reconciliation, Saturday, March 20, when confessions will be heard from 10:00am to 5:00pm.

YOUNG ADULTS (21-30-SOMETHING) "FIRST-THURSDAY" SOCIAL We will go back to one of our favorite locations for our first Thursday in March social gathering... On Thursday, March 4 we will meet at The Capitol Club, 414 East Pine, Seattle, at 7:00pm. Menu is "Tapas Style" with flavors from the Mediterranean. Enjoy great food in a comfortable environment. Serving casual class to the Hill since 1996, the Capitol Club is a favorite of those who enjoy a fun evening out. Information youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Joseph in Chehalis, Vancouver, and Pe Ell.

OPERATION RICE BOWL Jesus' transfiguration was a moment of hope for the disciples, giving them the strength to endure the future sacrifices they would make as they formed the early Church. As we continue our journey with Catholic Relief Services' Operation Rice Bowl, let us be mindful that our Lenten sacrifices help to give hope to our brothers and sisters in need. This week, Rice Bowl focuses on Bolivia, where many work in farming and agriculture. Thanks to CRS programs in Bolivia, farmers are forming cooperatives, learning to diversify their crops, increasing their crop yield, and preserving the environment. For more information on Bolivia, refer to your Rice Bowl calendar or visit CRS online at <http://orb.crs.org/countries/bolivia/>

JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

Lent is a particularly special time for the Elect who have been journeying towards baptism, Eucharist and confirmation at the Easter Vigil. As part of their preparation, the Church celebrates anointing with the oil of the Catechumen, blessings and exorcisms. Beginning next weekend, we will join in prayer for our Elect as they participate in the ancient ceremonies called the Scrutinies that symbolize the spiritual purification taking place in their lives as they prepare for baptism. Through these Scrutinies, blessings and anointings, the Elect are encouraged to reflect more deeply on their own spiritual challenges and weaknesses. At the same time, these rites offer powerful prayers of faith, hope and strength on their behalf, calling upon God's grace and mercy to penetrate their entire lives. Please continue to keep them in your prayers.

LENTEN PRAYER PARTNERS FOR THE ELECT It is not too late to "adopt" one of our Elect as they prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. You are asked to pray everyday for him/her asking for God's blessings and guidance. Also, notes and cards will be collected during Holy Week to be given to the Elect before Easter. Prayer cards are available at the place of prayer located in the north aisle of the west nave of the Cathedral (where you can also learn more about each of them in our Book of the Elect), in the bookstore, and in Cathedral Hall during Sunday morning hospitality. You can also meet our Elect by going to our parish website: www.stjames-cathedral.org Your prayers make a difference!!! Information Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

LITURGY Sunday, March 7 at St. Peter's in Beacon Hill from 1:30-5:30 PM. Participants will explore the seven sacraments and their symbols, ritual actions, and effects. They will understand sacramentals and their use. The class will look at all aspects of Eucharist Liturgy: its relationship to the Paschal Mystery; the Liturgical Year and the Lectionary cycle; its structure; why it is the "source and summit" in the life of the Christian. If possible, please bring your Bible and copy of the Catechism to the class. Cost: $5 per class. (Co-sponsored by St. James Cathedral with the South Seattle Deanery) Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

Praying at Home

March 2010

On praying together

March 24, 2010 marks the 30th anniversary of the assassination of Archbishop Romero of El Salvador. This month, we let him speak to us about praying the Mass:

How beautiful is the Mass, especially when celebrated in a cathedral filled like ours on Sundays, or even when celebrated simply in village chapels with people full of faith, who know that Christ, the King of Glory, Eternal Priest, is gathering together all that we bring him from the week: sorrows, failures, hopes, plans, joys, sadness, pain! How many things each one of you, brothers and sisters, brings to your Sunday Mass! And the Eternal Priest gathers them in his hands and by means of the human priest who celebrates lifts them up to the Father as the product of the people's labor. United to my sacrifice present on this altar, the people are made godlike, and now leave the cathedral to keep on working, to keep on struggling, to keep on suffering, but ever united with the Eternal Priest, who remains present in the eucharist so that we can meet him the next Sunday also.

Archbishop Oscar Romero, May 28, 1978

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for March

GENERAL INTENTION: That the world economy may be managed according to the principles of justice and equity, taking account of the real needs of peoples, especially the poorest.

MISSION INTENTION: That the Churches in Africa may be signs and instruments of reconciliation and justice in every part of that continent.

A Lenten Meal Prayer

During Lent, our fasting and abstinence make us mindful of the millions in our world who suffer from hunger and malnutrition. Why not make your Lenten "Rice Bowl" the centerpiece of your table, and use the Rice Bowl Prayer for a Lenten grace before meals?

God of all people,
Hear us as we join in prayer
with our brothers and sisters in need.
Bless our Lenten fasting, learning, and giving.
May your generous love for your people be our guide
as we reach out to all who live with hunger and poverty. Amen.

Prayer to Jesus Crucified

This traditional prayer before a crucifix is well-suited to the season of Lent.

My good and dear Jesus,
I kneel before you, asking you most earnestly to engrave upon my heart
a deep and lively faith, hope, and charity,
with true repentance for my sins,
and a firm resolve to make amends.
As I reflect upon your five wounds,
and dwell upon them with deep compassion and grief,
I recall, good Jesus, the words the prophet David spoke long ago concerning yourself:
they have pierced my hands and my feet,
they have counted all my bones!

Catholics Come Home

This Lent, the Archdiocese of Seattle is sponsoring a series of TV ads which invite non-practicing Catholics to "come home" and become part of a faith community once again. This prayer by Thomas Merton speaks powerfully of the faith journey:

MY LORD GOD,
I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
Nor do I really know myself,
and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please you
does in fact please you.
And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing.
I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.
And I know that if I do this
you will lead me by the right road
though I may know nothing about it.
Therefore will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for you are ever with me,
and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

Praying with Mary

The Stabat Mater (At the Cross her station keeping) is a prayer to the sorrowful Mother, attributed to Jacopone da Todi (1230-1306). In this prayer, we ask to share Mary's suffering, love, and compassion.

O thou Mother! fount of love!
Touch my spirit from above;
Make my heart with thine accord.

Make me feel as thou hast felt;
Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ our Lord.

Holy Mother! pierce me through;
In my heart each wound renew
Of my Saviour crucified.

Let me share with thee His pain,
Who for all my sins was slain,
Who for me in torments died.

Night Prayers

In the season of Lent, our examination of conscience at the end of the day is especially powerful. We look at our lives in the light of the Gospel, and ask for the grace to see where we need to grow and change. This short examination of conscience is from the Rite of Penance.

Where is my life really leading me?
What use have I made of time, of health and strength, of the gifts God has given me to be used like the talents in the Gospel?
Am I concerned for the good and prosperity of the human community in which I live, or do I spend my life caring only for myself? Have I been patient in accepting the sorrows and disappointments of life? Have I gone against my conscience out of fear or hypocrisy?
