

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 15, 2013

Dear Friends,

I am writing to let you know of an important change in the way in which we minister to the poor and needy in our neighborhood. As you know, we have a long tradition of taking up a monthly collection to fund the work of our two St. Vincent de Paul conferences. You know this because you are always incredibly generous in your support! But you may not know how those funds are distributed. The members of our two St. Vincent de Paul conferences (our "Vincentians") receive approximately 100 calls each month for help with rent, utility bills, groceries, furniture, and other needs. Our Vincentians schedule home visits, meet the requesting parties in their own homes and write vouchers to help with the particular needs. The home visit is a very important part of the Vincentian way of reaching out to those in need. So often, people in need spend a lot of time going from agency to agency, and from office to office in search of help. Vincentians reverse that dynamic, bringing the needed resources to the person, instead of requiring the person to come to them. It may be a small difference, but it's one way Vincentians make the act of helping a little easier on the person in need. And it's modeled on the way St. Vincent de Paul himself reached out to and lifted up the poor.

This system of home visits is extraordinarily effective at preventing homelessness, and it works very well if the person in need has a home. But as you know, many of the people who come to us for help are homeless: they live in shelters, in vehicles, stay temporarily with friends, and those who have no home address cannot be helped by the Vincentian system of home visits. That's exactly why eight years ago we partnered with Catholic Community Services to establish the Solanus Casey Center. The Solanus Casey Center, located at the corner of Terry Avenue and James, is a drop-in center where homeless persons who cannot be served by our St. Vincent de Paul conferences can come for information and financial assistance. In an average month, the Solanus Casey Center sees about 130 people, referring them to community resources and providing some modest financial assistance. At the moment, the Center devotes significant time and resources toward helping homeless people obtain ID cards -- something they need before they can gain access to shelters, temporary employment, or other resources.

This brings me to the purpose of this letter! After consulting with our two conferences of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, we have decided that one month each year, instead of taking up the usual collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society, we will take up a collection to support the work of the Solanus Casey Center. We believe that this is the best way to make sure that your generous contributions to help those in need go to all of our needy neighbors, including those who are homeless. So on the third Sunday of September, we will be taking up a collection to support the Solanus Casey Center in lieu of the usual St. Vincent de Paul collection. Our two St. Vincent de Paul Conferences will draw on other gifts and reserves to get them through this one month each year, so their home visits and distribution of vouchers will continue as usual and you can rest assured that the people they serve so well will not feel the impact of this change. If you have any questions about this change, please feel free to contact Patty Bowman, Director of Social Outreach, at 206-382-4515.

Thank you for your continued generosity to our brothers and sisters in need!

Father Michael G. Ryan

CREED (except Saturday 5:30pm)

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven.

[all bow]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[all stand upright]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WINTER SHELTER

"Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or see you thirsty and give you drink? When did we welcome you or clothe you?" The King will answer them: "I assure you, as often as you did it for the least of my brothers and sisters, you did it for me." Matthew 25:37-40

The 2013 One Night Count found 2,736 people sleeping outdoors on the streets of King County. St. James Cathedral partners with St. Martin de Porres Shelter to provide overflow sleeping space during the cold winter months. St. Martin de Porres, a program of Catholic Housing Services, has room for 212 homeless men. During the winter, St. Martin's is always full and has to turn away many people. From October through April, four nights a week, St. James provides a warm place to sleep in Cathedral Hall for 10-15 men. Nearly 100 parishioners volunteer at the Winter Shelter, now in its 22nd year of operation. Please consider joining our shelter team as an overnight host or breakfast cook.

Comments from our volunteers

"I feel that working at the Winter Shelter helps me put my faith in action."

"I truly felt a connection with this ministry...I left Monday morning with an energized heart."

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, October 1, 2013
Pastoral Outreach Center

12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00pm-3:45pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in need in our community? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to give of ourselves in a way that is essential to life itself. This year's Blood Drive is in memory of Frank Robl, a founding member of the Health and Healing Ministry. Frank died January 20, 2013 after a long battle with cancer.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Spring and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 9/15, 9/22, 9/29.

Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.

Symbols that Surround Us

THE ART OF SACRED SYMBOLS A WORKSHOP WITH DR. JOHAN VAN PARYS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2013 | 7:00PM | HOLY NAMES ROOM, PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER

We are surrounded by Christian symbols. We place them in our towns, our churches, our homes, and even hang them around our necks. These symbols speak of our faith and they are constant reminders of the hope that results from our belief in the Resurrection. Many people have lost the art of interpreting these symbols and thus have lost access to these daily reminders of our Christian faith, hope and love. In this workshop we will look at the origin of some of the most important Christian symbols, and the role they have played in our history. And we will discuss ways in which to return these symbols to their due place of importance in our lives. Do Christian symbols, imagery, and ritual gestures from the time of Jesus still have meaning to us today? What do the symbols mean? Why are they so important to the Church? And how can you use them to help you grow in faith?

JOHAN M. J. VAN PARYS, PH.D., a native of Belgium is director of liturgy and the sacred arts at the Basilica of Saint Mary in Minneapolis. He is the curator of the Basilica's Pope John XXIII art gallery and directs the archival efforts of the Basilica of Saint Mary. In addition, Johan teaches Pastoral Liturgy in the School of Theology of St. John's University, Collegeville, MN and he is the founding art director of www.EnVisionChurch.org, an on-line resource in liturgical art, architecture and spirituality. Johan has served as liturgical consultant to numerous dioceses and parishes, both in the USA and abroad. His publications include many articles ranging from art history to liturgical theology. His book, Symbols that Surround Us was published by Liguori Publications in 2012. He has lectured throughout the country on liturgy and art.

Build Hope

Build Hope

How will my gift Build Hope for the poor?

A portion of your donation to the Build Hope Collection funds the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. CCHD carries out Jesus' mission to bring glad tidings to the poor...to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free. (cf. Lk 4:18)

Your gift is an investment in the dignity of people living in poverty. The Build Hope collection supports community and economic development programs that bring poor and marginalized people together to solve local problems and improve their lives and neighborhoods. Economic development initiatives help develop new businesses, create new jobs and build assets that are owned by poor families and poor communities.

Your gift makes long-term changes in communities locally and nationally. Build Hope provides tools of self-sufficiency and self-determination to those affected by poverty. Resources focused on the root causes of poverty complement the work of our Church's direct-service agencies.

Build Hope is a visible sign of solidarity.

Your gift to the Build Hope collection provides educational opportunities for Catholics to learn about poverty, meet those affected by it and respond in faith.

Build Hope recently funded these local efforts: job training, home ownership programs; immigrant families, empowerment groups for homeless and women living in poverty...and more.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development allocates funds to community projects that promote its mission and vision – to support the efforts of low-income people seeking to change the social, political and economic conditions that perpetuate poverty – while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church.

How the Good News gets around

Build Hope supports podcasts of the daily readings, Catholic television and radio broadcasts, and Catholic use of ever-expanding social media. Your donation makes it possible for each of us to receive messages of faith and use them to deepen our faith and the faith of our family, friends and neighbors.

Your Build Hope donation, through the Catholic Communications Campaign, supports projects throughout our archdiocese and the world that use traditional media and new media as tools to proclaim the Good News and promote the New Evangelization.

The CCC Collection makes it possible for the church in the United States to maintain a 24/7 presence delivering messages of hope and faith through the many channels of modern communications.

And half of your donation designated for the Catholic Communication Campaign through Build Hope stays right here in the Archdiocese of Seattle to support such local communication efforts as our new archdiocesan magazine, NORTHWEST CATHOLIC, and the live broadcast of midnight Mass on Christmas Eve.

The Build Hope collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign is how the Good News gets around. Please support this important work in the upcoming Build Hope collection on Sept. 14–15.

Your support will truly Build Hope by making the Catholic Communication Campaign successful.
