

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
to see your strength and your glory.

GLORIA

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
 You we praise with one accord;
 None in heav'n or earth is like you,
 Only you are Christ the Lord,
 With the Father, and the Spirit,
 Ever worshiped and adored.

WELCOME: If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS in the Cathedral are from the Saturday wedding of Joanne Rodrigo and Roel Belen; and also from the wedding of Lynn Yoshioka and Stephen Cavit.

LABOR DAY Monday, September 1 is Labor Day. There will be one Mass in the Cathedral at 9:00 am. The Cathedral will remain open for prayer until 5:00 pm. The parish office is closed on Labor Day.

REGISTRATION FOR CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION will be in Cathedral Hall on September 7 and 14 after the 10:00 am and 12 noon Masses. Children's Liturgy of the Word resumes on Sept. 7 at the noon Mass. Faith Formation classes begin on Sept. 28. Our theme for this new school year is: "Toward Jesus with St. Paul." We look forward to seeing you. Information, Lita McBride 206-654-4658. TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, September 10 at 7:00 pm. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

AN INTRODUCTION TO ST. PAUL As part of our ongoing celebration of the Year of St. Paul, the three week introductory series on St. Paul and his writings will be repeated on Tuesday evenings, September 9, 16 and 30 from 7:00-9:00 pm at Cathedral Place, second floor. This is a great opportunity to learn more about St. Paul and prepare for this year's bible studies on Corinthians and Romans. "I never knew Paul could be so interesting and insightful!" commented one of last year's participants. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Blessed Teresa of Calcutta, Woodinville; St. Rose of Viterbo, Longview; and St. John Chrysostom (Byzantine), Seattle.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

HELP CREATE A COMMUNITY OF COMPASSION Are you interested in joining other St. James parishioners to provide companionship and assistance to a person living with HIV/AIDS? To get involved, join Multifaith Works (115 16th Ave, Seattle) for a one-hour volunteer orientation on Saturday, September 6, 1:30-2:30 pm or Monday, September 22, 6:30-7:30 pm. Then, on Saturday October 4, plan on attending the volunteer training day that will be held here at St. James from 8:45-4:45 pm in Cathedral Hall. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Be ready for Sr. Helen Prejean's visit here on October 2 by reading her books. The bookstore has a good supply of Dead Man Walking and Death of Innocents. Also additional CDs of Jean Vanier's recent talk are available.

WOULD YOU CONSIDER BEING A RCIA SPONSOR? We continue to have many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable—a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and “kudos” in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

CABRINI MINISTRY TRAINING If your spiritual journey is leading you to grow deeper in faith and to become more active in ministry, and you desire training and guidance, Cabrini Ministry Training is just for you! CMT has been training lay ministers in the Catholic tradition for the last 18 years. CMT does this by providing training, guidance and ministerial support to those lay people who feel the special call to develop their skills and deepen their faith in service to God's people. Our training is available in English and Spanish. Plan to attend one of these Information Nights: September 8 at St. James (Cathedral Place) or St. Louise Parish in Bellevue (Parish Ministry Center) September 10. Both will be from 7:00 – 8:30 pm. These will be the last two Information Nights before class starts. Information, Tom Curran, 206-760-0583, Ext 4 or visit www.cabriniministry.org.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Each week during this Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

- Do not conform yourselves to this age,” Paul says in today's second reading. Where in your life do you find that “this age” we are living in comes into conflict with your faith? How do you resolve this conflict?
- Paul urges the Romans, “be transformed by the renewal of your mind.” How do you renew your mind? Is your mind engaged in your faith? Do you nurture your faith through spiritual reading and study, or by participating in one of the many ongoing learning opportunities offered at St. James?

Help Orphan Girls in India

Off the Floor and Onto the Ladder of Life
August 30-31, 2008

Shency

OFF THE FLOOR AND ONTO THE LADDER OF LIFE is the theme for this year's Mission Sunday appeal at St. James Cathedral. At the weekend liturgies, August 30 and 31, we will have the opportunity to hear about the work being done by the dedicated Salesian Sisters of Saint John Bosco at Home of Hope, a very poor orphanage in the south of India.

Our speaker is Paul Wilkes, author of Excellent Catholic Parishes: The Guide to Best Places and Practices and The Good Enough Catholic: A Guide for the Perplexed, as well as many other books. After a life-changing experience he will tell about, he and his wife “adopted” the orphanage and now frequently travel to India.

There at Home of Hope (Prathyasha Bhavan) over 70 orphan girls, the poorest of the poor, are currently sleeping on a hard, dirty, insect-infested concrete floor, because there is no other place for them to lay their heads each night. We will have the opportunity to help them build a new building.

These girls, aged 5 to 23, have been physically, morally and sexually exploited and abused. Many have lived on the streets in terrible poverty. But now in the loving care of the Salesian sisters, they have a safe, stable life. No girl in need is ever turned away at Home of Hope – that's why they are sleeping on the floor!

You can find more about this wonderful orphanage on the website www.homeofhopeindia.org or in the brochure that will be handed out at Masses this weekend.

Each $1,000 we raise will be memorialized with the name of our parish on a plaque on the “Fountain of Hope” when the building is built. And, in the future, you can visit Home of Hope anytime, either alone, with a group, or with your family. You can see first hand the good work that is going on and actually be part of it.

Blood Center physicians offer 24-hour consultation to the medical community on transfusion and transplantation medicine issues, and provide valuable education aimed at improving patient care.

Who needs blood?

Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.

Dead Man Walking: The Journey Continues

An Evening with SISTER HELEN PREJEAN, CSJ
Thursday, October 2, 2008 at 7:30pm
Cathedral Hall, St. James Cathedral, Seattle

"Is God vengeful, demanding a death for a death?
Or is God compassionate, luring souls into love so great that no one can be considered 'enemy'?"

Sister Helen Prejean

SISTER HELEN PREJEAN was born on April 21, 1939, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She joined the Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille in 1957. Sister Helen began her prison ministry in 1981 when she dedicated her life to the poor of New Orleans. While living in the St. Thomas housing project, she became pen pals with Patrick Sonnier, the convicted killer of two teenagers, sentenced to die in the electric chair of Louisiana's Angola State Prison. Upon Sonnier's request, Sister Helen repeatedly visited him as his spiritual advisor. In doing so, her eyes were opened to the Louisiana execution process. Sister Helen turned her experiences into a book that not only made the 1994 American Library Associates Notable Book List, it was also nominated for a 1993 Pulitzer Prize. Dead Man Walking: An Eyewitness Account of the Death Penalty in the United States was number one on the New York Times Best Seller List for 31 weeks. It also was an international best seller and has been translated into ten different languages.

Just FAITH

Our Catholic faith and biblical tradition extend an extraordinary invitation to become agents of God's compassion and healing in a wounded world. The Gospel is both a comfort and a promise for the poor and, at the same time, a call to those of us who are not poor to be linked with God's vision of justice and reconciliation.

What is JustFaith?

- JustFaith is a conversion-based process that provides an environment in which participants can grow in their commitment to care for the vulnerable and to become advocates for justice.
- JustFaith offers an opportunity for participants to experience a spiritual journey into compassion.
- JustFaith provides a lively and challenging format to read, view, discuss, pray, experience, and be formed by the Catholic social justice tradition.

Why JustFaith?

- Most of us long to be generous and compassionate people. JustFaith offers an opportunity to strengthen and deepen our compassion in fidelity to the Gospel.
- Engaging in the Church's social mission is, without argument, one of the most challenging messages of our Gospel tradition. JustFaith recognizes the difficulty of the call to compassion, and provides a wide range of compelling resources to communicate this tradition.

How does JustFaith work?

- JustFaith employs a variety of media and formats – prayer, retreats, books, videos, discussion in a small group of 12-15 people, and hands-on experiences. The intent is to provide a tapestry of learning and formation opportunities that explore and enliven the justice traditions of the Church. No experience is necessary. People benefit from JustFaith if they have been involved in social ministry for a long time or if they are newly interested.
- JustFaith involves a substantial commitment, to the process and to the group. The process involves 30 weekly sessions, two retreats, and four hands-on experiences. In addition, participants are expected to do two to three hours of reading per week. The program asks a lot. Just as the Gospels do.
- JustFaith offers participants the privilege of becoming community and sharing their faith as they journey through the program. Participants should come ready for conversion!

Think it's too much?

- It's like taking a college course or a year-long adult education class.
- It's similar to what we ask of our RCIA participants.
- It asks a lot for 8 months – but it's only 8 months.
- It will be one of the most rewarding things you'll ever do!

The program will be held on Wednesday evenings, beginning on September 10, 2008 and running through May 2009.

Contact Jennifer Ibach at 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.
