Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.*

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are from Elizabeth Falzone in celebration of the life of her cousin David Giaimo. Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken, 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is up and running! Your friendly Cathedral baristas will be serving espresso drinks after the 10:00 Mass. During the month of October, all proceeds will benefit the Children's Religious Education Program. If you are interested in becoming a Cathedral barista, please call Sean and Katherine Berry at 206-571-6868. Training is provided!

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION (CFF) sessions began last Sunday, and will continue every Sunday thereafter. We welcome families to this new CFF school year! Please come with your children into Cathedral Place, 2nd floor, corner of Terry and Columbia. (Children may not be dropped off on the street.) Staff will accompany 5th to 12th grade youth to their classrooms.

YOUNG ADULTS (21 - THIRTY-SOMETHING) "FIRST-THURSDAY" SOCIAL... We will meet at our favorite location: Capitol Club at 414 East Pine, Seattle on Thursday, October 7 at 7:00pm. It is not only for the fun and camaraderie – we gather for food, beverages, and good conversation in an atmosphere of sharing your thoughts about faith and what it means to live as a Catholic in our society. PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary; and the parishes of St. Francis of Assisi in Friday Harbor and Seahurst; and Holy Rosary in Seattle, Tacoma, and Edmonds.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

"There can be no compromise with the standard Jesus set and continually calls us to: the measure of love is to love without measure."

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

October is Respect Life Month. Each year, the Church asks us to pray for a greater respect for human life, from conception to natural death, during the month of October. Each Thursday during the month of October, we'll pray a special Rosary for Life following the 5:30pm evening Mass. All are welcome!

For more information on the Church's teaching on the "seamless garment" of life issues, visit www.stjames-cathedral.org.

THE YOUTH MUSIC PROGRAM is now registering students for the fall semester. Students in grade 1-4 may participate at any time, without audition, in one of our two training choirs which rehearse from 4:30-6:00 pm every Thursday. Exceptionally talented young singers may audition for the advanced Schola Cantorum which rehearses Thursdays from 4:30-6:30pm. Scholarships are available. Information, 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org.

If you find that your child needs a quiet place away from the stimulation of the Mass, please feel free to step into the west vestibule or the cathedral chapel, where we have provided a sound system so that you can continue to participate in the Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship. Please note that babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

I AM IN YOUR MIDST AS ONE WHO SERVES Volunteer Opportunities at St. James

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR HOSPITALITY Looking for a "few good people" to assist in setting up, greeting participants, and putting things away for our weekly RCIA gathering. The time commitment is once a month from 6:00-9:30 PM. It is a great way to meet new people and support an important parish ministry. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

WINTER SHELTER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED With difficult economic times in our nation, we are seeing even more people facing the crisis of homelessness. Starting this weekend, St. James will again be hosting its winter shelter. We have an urgent need for overnight hosts on Monday nights. We are also in need of toiletries donations, especially disposable razors, shaving cream and mouthwash. Information, Suzanne Lee, 206-654-4640 or slee@stjames-cathedral.org

A Consistent Ethic of Life

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH | No. 1 of 5

October 3, 2010

October is Respect Life Month! Each week during the coming month, a page in the bulletin will explore different aspects of Church teaching on a wide range of life issues: abortion, war, the death penalty, and euthanasia. This week, we look at the roots of the Church's teaching about the consistent ethic of life.

What does the Church say about the consistent ethic of life?

Whatever is opposed to life itself, such as any type of murder, genocide, abortion, euthanasia or willful self-destruction, whatever violates the integrity of the human person, such as mutilation, torments inflicted on body or mind, attempts to coerce the will itself; whatever insults human dignity, such as subhuman living conditions, arbitrary imprisonment, deportation, slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children; as well as disgraceful working conditions, where men are treated as mere tools for profit, rather than as free and responsible persons; all these things and others of their like are infamies indeed. They poison human society, but they do more harm to those who practice them than those who suffer from the injury. Moreover, they are supreme dishonor to the Creator.

Gaudium et Spes 27 | The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World of the Second Vatican Council

Reflection

I am convinced that the pro-life position of the Church must be developed in terms of a comprehensive and consistent ethic of life.... The substance of a Catholic position on a consistent ethic of life is rooted in a religious vision. But the citizenry of the United States is radically pluralistic in moral and religious conviction. So we face the challenge of stating our case, which is shaped in terms of our faith and our religious convictions, in non-religious terms which others of different faith convictions might find morally persuasive.... We should maintain and clearly articulate our religious convictions but also maintain our civil courtesy. We should be vigorous in stating a case and attentive in hearing another's case; we should test everyone's logic but not his or her motives.

Talking Points

Talking points are intended to promote discussion of contemporary issues with friends, neighbors, and fellow workers.

When you hear someone accuse the Catholic Church that it only opposes abortion, you might say something like: "The Church is especially concerned about abortion as well as euthanasia because many in our society claim they have a legal right to end life before birth and when someone is thought to be terminally ill. Life is the source of all other inalienable rights of individuals. We believe that all life is sacred because it is a gift from God. Based on this principle, the Catholic Church also opposes the death penalty, the destruction of the environment, and any act of war directly aimed at innocents."

When you hear someone dismiss people who are suffering from poverty, you might say something like: "I think every human being has an inherent dignity and we should support changes in our society so that no person has to suffer from hunger or lack of sufficient housing. Like the Declaration of Independence said, we have certain inalienable rights. Every person has a fundamental right to life — the right that makes all other rights possible."

Your Community Blood Center

Puget Sound Blood Center is an independent, volunteer-supported, nonprofit community resource. It is a key link in the healthcare network, providing blood, tissue and specialized laboratory services in Western Washington and across the Northwest. Blood Center physicians offer 24-hour consultation to the medical community on transfusion and transplantation medicine issues, and provide valuable education aimed at improving patient care.

Who needs blood?

Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.

Help save a life—sign up to donate!
