Office Hours: Monday through Friday, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm

WELCOME If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are—whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

HOSPITALITY ON PALM SUNDAY Because the Mass will be longer than usual, there will be no coffee hour following the 10:00 Mass today. Our regular coffee hour will resume the Sunday after Easter.

EASTER FLOWERS If you would like to help beautify the cathedral for Easter Masses, please use the specially marked pew envelopes, or the one in your envelope packet, and place your contribution in the collection basket along with your regular Sunday contribution.

BLOOD DRIVE THANK YOU 43 people came to the Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday March 11 to donate blood at the third annual St. James Cathedral Blood Drive. The Health and Healing Ministry would like to thank all of you who made the effort to be there and participate, and gratefully acknowledge your Lenten donation of the gift of life. The Puget Sound Blood Center was very pleased with the turnout. The Blood Drive is becoming a new tradition for St. James Cathedral

GOVERNOR SIGNS EXECUTIVE ORDER AT ST. JAMES

In a signing ceremony at the Pastoral Outreach Center Governor Chris Gregoire established the New Americans Policy Council supporting immigrant integration into Washington state communities. What do we know about the economic and social results of integrating immigrants and their children in our state? Migration Policy Institute (MPI) offers fact sheets and articles on the most current immigration and integration data. To view the document she signed or to access MPI's new interactive data hub visit us at www.stjames-cathedral.org/esl

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Lucille Morin.

JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

Our Elect are now entering their final week of preparation for the Easter Vigil, where they will be baptized, confirmed and receive Eucharist for the first time as one with us in the faith. They will participate with us in our Holy Week liturgies, being dismissed for the last time on Holy Thursday evening. They will also participate in a daylong retreat on Holy Saturday in their final preparation rites prior to the celebration of the Vigil of all vigils! You are encouraged to join us at the Easter Vigil to celebrate this most important day of their lives where we, the baptized, will also renew our baptismal promises as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord.

PRAYER CARDS FOR THE ELECT Thank you for keeping our Elect in your prayers during this season of Lent. Now is the time to turn in your personalized cards or notes for our Elect that will be distributed to them on Holy Saturday. You can drop off your cards in the baskets located at the place of prayer in the Cathedral, in the Hall during hospitality on Sunday mornings, or in the Bookstore during its regular hours. The cards need to be turned in no later than Holy Thursday evening. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514.

I SAW ETERNITY THE OTHER NIGHT You're invited to gather for a special evening celebrating the metaphysical poets, Thursday, March 27, at 7:00 pm in the Mother Mary Rose Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center. A booklet of selected poems is available free in the Cathedral Bookstore, or download them at the Cathedral website, www.stjames-cathedral.org. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284.

SUMMER MISSION TRIP FOR YOUTH This July, youth from St. James and several other local Catholic churches will be participating in the Archdiocese's Youth Migrant Project. Teens will volunteer in daycare centers and migrant camps during the day and have the opportunity for fun and reflection in the evening. The trip is open to all incoming 8th graders through graduating 12th graders and will run from July 6-11. Applications are due by March 23. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640.

HELP FLOOD VICTIMS IN LEWIS COUNTY After the high winds and heavy rains caused flooding and devastation throughout several southwest counties in early December, St. James parishioners and our St. Vincent de Paul conferences generously responded with thousands of dollars in donations. Now there is another opportunity to continue providing much needed help. On Saturday, March 29, an ecumenical group of volunteers from the area will head down to the Boistfort Valley, west of Chehalis, to help with clean up and rebuilding efforts. Construction experience is a plus but not necessary. Anyone with a willing heart will find plenty of work to do. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640.

CATHOLIC 101: SACRAMENTS OF HEALING AND VOCATION Join us on Tuesdays, April 1, 8, 15, and 29, 1:00-3:00 or 7:00-9:00, Cathedral Place-second floor for an ongoing look at the newly published US Catechism for Adults. Helen Oesterle reviews the foundations of our Catholic faith from our American Catholic experience and facilitates lively conversations among the participants. (Focus on April 1: Sacrament of Penance & Reconciliation) Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514 hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

VOLUNTEER CHORE SERVICE ORIENTATION VCS helps connect parishioners with people who need chore services and companionship. Volunteers help to ensure that elders and individuals with disabilities and/or long-term illnesses can remain in their homes among familiar surroundings rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in this rewarding ministry, please sign up for the Orientation to be held on the 2nd Floor of Cathedral Place at 4:00 pm on Sunday, April 6. Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640.

COMPACT DISCS FOR THE HOMEBOUND The audio ministry to the homebound is currently making the change from cassette tapes to CD's. This change may be an economic hardship for some. Thus, if you would like to donate a new CD player or one you are no longer using we would welcome your help! At present we need eight CD players. Information, John Simpson 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

Every year during Lent Catholic Relief Services highlights several of the countries in which it works, but did you know that Operation Rice Bowl also benefits our local community? One quarter of the funds raised from Rice Bowl are designated for programs that assist those in need in our community. The Archdiocese of Seattle distributes the money through a grant process to support hunger and poverty alleviation efforts throughout western Washington.

By dividing the donations in this way, CRS affirms the importance of our global responsibility as Christians to assist those in need both around the corner and around the world. We are called to see the face of the suffering Christ in the faces of our suffering neighbors. Giving with Operation Rice Bowl helps to ease the pain of those in need and strengthen our communities.

As a reminder, Rice Bowl donations will be collected at the 6:00 pm Holy Thursday Mass.

WELCOME, PARENTS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN We support all of our parishioners who are attending Mass with young children and we welcome those children into our midst. If you find that your child needs a quiet place away from the stimulation of the Mass, please feel free to step into the west vestibule or the cathedral chapel, where we have provided a sound system so that you can continue to participate in the Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship.

Please note that babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!), are regular recipients of the Cathedral's highly acclaimed journal In Your Midst, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates (and become eligible for Cathedral scholarship money). In addition, if you are a registered parishioner and use envelopes, or are on the direct deposit program, we will mail you a quarterly report of your contributions to the parish. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. Please drop the completed card in the collection basket or put it in the mail. If you're not sure whether you're registered at St. James, call the parish office at 206-622-3559.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS AT THE ALTAR Floral offerings are a venerable custom in the Church, and a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for an answered prayer. Information Kay Kaiser, 206-654-4650, kkaiser@stjames-cathedral.org.

NEED PASTORAL CARE? The Cathedral provides a variety of such ministries. Whether you are sick or homebound and in need of communion, whether you would like a tape of Sunday's Mass, or if you need the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, we can help! Information John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZE Each Friday at 6:30 pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week.

ARCHBISHOP HUNTHAUSEN LIBRARY Visit your friendly and accessible Archbishop Hunthausen Library in Cathedral Hall during the Sunday coffee hours. We have a good selection of old favorites and recent releases.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend Alexander J. Brunett. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.

TRE ORE

GOOD FRIDAY    MARCH 21    NOON—3:00pm

St. James Cathedral observes the traditional Good Friday devotion of TRE ORE (“Three Hours”) with music and homilies focused on the words of Christ from the cross.

This year, Father Patrick Howell, SJ, will preach on the Seven Last Words of Christ.

Father Michael G. Ryan will preside. The Cathedral’s Young Women’s Ensemble Jubilate! and members of the Cathedral Chamber Orchestra perform Pergolesi’s Stabat Mater. James Savage, conductor, Clint Kraus, organ.

FATHER PATRICK HOWELL SJ serves as Vice President for Mission and Ministry at Seattle University. Previously, he was dean of the innovative School of Theology and Ministry. For many years Father Howell has contributed significantly to pastoral outreach to people with mental illness and their families.

He entered the Jesuits in 1961 after graduating from Gonzaga University, Spokane. He did further studies at Boston College and the Gregorian University in Rome, and he earned a Doctorate in Ministry from the Catholic University of America in 1985. Prior to receiving his doctorate he was principal of Gonzaga Prep (Spokane). He was a co-founder in 1985 of the new Institute for Theological Studies, a creative, joint venture with the Archdiocese of Seattle for the formation of Catholic lay leadership.

Father Howell is well-known for his regular column on the religion page of the Seattle Times. He has written two major books Reducing the Storm to a Whisper: the Story of a Breakdown and A Spiritguide through Times of Darkness.

Putting God First

Week Five: The Christian Steward

Scripture

Then Jesus told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God." (Luke 12:15-21)

from the Bishops' Pastoral

The life of a Christian steward, lived in imitation of the life of Christ, is challenging, even difficult in many ways; but both here and hereafter it is charged with intense joy. Like Paul, the good steward is able to say, "I am filled with encouragement, I am overflowing with joy all the more because of all our affliction" (2 Cor 7:4). Women and men who seek to live in this way learn that "all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8:28). It is part of their personal experience that God is "rich in mercy [and] we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them" (Eph 2:4, 10). They readily cry out from the heart: "Rejoice in the Lord always! I shall say it again: Rejoice!" (Phil 4:4). They look forward in hope to hearing the Master's words addressed to those who have lived as disciples faithful in their practice of stewardship should: "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world" (Mt 25:34).

Stewardship: A Disciple's Response
U. S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

We cannot set out on a life of Christian stewardship without the help of the Holy Spirit. "Disciples... need a flash of insight—a certain way of seeing—by which they view the world and their relationship to it in a fresh, new light." The life of the Christian disciple is full of trials but "both here and hereafter it is charged with intense joy." The Blessed Virgin Mary is the perfect teacher of "the meaning of discipleship and stewardship in their fullest sense." In the end, what remains is the question: "Do we also wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ?"

Questions for Reflection

1. "The life of a Christian steward, lived in imitation of the life of Christ, is challenging, even difficult in many ways; but both here and hereafter it is charged with intense joy." In your life as a Christian disciple, have you had moments of "intense joy"?
2. Christian stewardship always begins with an acknowledgement of the source of our riches. In the Magnificat, Mary says, "The Mighty One has done great things for me." What great things has God done for you? Pray the Hail Mary slowly, reflecting on her willingness to do the will of God. How ready and willing are you to do the will of God?
3. We are asked to "serve one another through love" as well as through duty. Are there places in your life where love and duty come together? What do you love to do? How can you apply this to this parish that you love?
4. Respond to the following passage. When have you experienced the "flash of insight" described here? "In the lives of disciples something else must come before the practice of stewardship. They need a flash of insight—a certain way of seeing—by which they view the world and their relationship to it in a fresh, new light. The world is charged with the grandeur of God, Gerard Manley Hopkins exclaims; more than anything else, it may be this glimpse of the divine grandeur in all that is that sets people on the path of Christian stewardship."

This Lent, nearly 80 Cathedral parishioners participated in Putting God First, a five-week course of study, prayer, and faith sharing based on the U. S. Catholic Bishops' now-classic 1992 Pastoral Letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. # News from the Cathedral Kitchen

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

March 2008

Dear Friends,

It's now been nine months since the "Family Kitchen" became the "Cathedral Kitchen," and we thought you—our parishioners and friends—might appreciate a short progress report.

THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS

We were able to celebrate both Thanksgiving and Christmas with especially wonderful meals thanks to the generosity of many! We had two seatings on Thanksgiving Day and at our annual Christmas dinner in December, allowing us to accommodate nearly 300 guests each time. It was harder to accommodate all the volunteers. It's wonderful that people want to give back during the holidays, but we hope they'll volunteer another time, because people are hungry every day of the year! Volunteer Reeny Olsen summed up her experience of volunteering in the Cathedral Kitchen on Thanksgiving: "Every day is Thanksgiving at Cathedral Kitchen! Here the truth of God's bounty is reaffirmed daily in the people, the feast, and the sacred space. The place hums with joy and thanksgiving."

NEW FORMAT FOR DINNER

Our ever-increasing number of dinner guests has caused us to restructure our meal program. In the past, we could count on approximately 125 guests at the beginning of the month with a gradual increase to about 230 by the end of the month. On January 14, our guests numbered 230, with the expectation that the number would continue to increase throughout the month, making it difficult to prepare an adequate number of meals. On January 21, we revised our program to serve 150 meals per day; tickets are issued to the first 150 guests. The revised meal program provides our cooks with a consistent number for menu planning and creates a more relaxed, less stressful atmosphere for our guests.

VOLUNTEERING AT THE KITCHEN

Our volunteer list continues to grow! At the present time we have approximately 100 volunteers that start the day by "gleaning" (collecting food from various grocery stores and food banks) and end the day mopping the hall. We also have 8 co-cooks that work on various schedules. Co-cooks usually work in pairs with the head cook planning and preparing the meal. We are always looking for more volunteers for gleaning groceries early in the morning, prepping the food, co-cooking, and doing other types of kitchen-related activities. Come join the Cathedral Kitchen where we are a "family" who bonds together to love and serve others—"filling hearts with food and gladness."

St. James Cathedral Schola Cantorum Choir Camp 2008

August 11-15

Led by the region's finest Catholic music educators, this week-long camp for young singers ages 6-14 (treble voices) provides excellent training in liturgical music. Students learn how to sing, and develop and grow their skills in music fundamentals including rhythm and pitch.
