

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Easter Sunday, 2012

Dear Friends,

It is a joy to be able to welcome you to St. James Cathedral on this Easter of 2012. I welcome you in the name of our Archbishop, J. Peter Sartain, as well as in my own.

Of all the times we gather as Christian believers, none is more important than Easter — the greatest of all our feasts. Easter celebrates the Mystery that is the very foundation of our Christian faith, for, as St. Paul wrote, "If Christ has not risen, our faith is in vain." (1 Cor. 15:14)

But Christ has risen and your presence here in the Cathedral both affirms and celebrates that most startling and enduring of all realities! While we do not see him, we know he lives and that he is in our midst breathing life and hope into us, walking alongside us on our pilgrimage of faith, our journey toward the Kingdom.

I have no way of knowing what is in your heart as you come here on this Easter Sunday. For some, I am sure, there is joy and a keen sense of hope for the future as spring with its promise of new life bursts forth all around us; for others there may be the burden of pain that comes from a serious illness, or a family crisis, or losing a job, or the death of a loved one. For others, this may be the Easter that you've decided to become more serious and intentional about the practice of your Catholic faith—or at least to explore that possibility.

I simply want you to know that whether you have come here today in joy or sadness, hope or uncertainty, you are welcome. And I sincerely hope that you will find here at St. James Cathedral something that will comfort you, challenge you, and lift you up. We live in a world that, while incredibly beautiful, is also seriously flawed. Death and life are never very far away from us, are they? But Easter boldly proclaims that death is not the end of the story. Easter proclaims for all to hear that Life gets the last word, not death!

My prayer today is that you will be renewed in faith and hope as you join in worship here at St. James Cathedral.

If you are a visitor, please know that we warmly welcome you. May you find here something today that will touch your heart, awaken your spirit, and make you want to return to this holy place again. And if you are part of the parish family of St. James, I take this opportunity to thank you for all the ways you make the Risen Lord Jesus present in this parish and in this city day after day: through your prayer, your faith, and your love that overflows in generous and unselfish service, especially to the poor.

May the blessings of the Risen Lord Jesus be yours in abundance.

WE ARE THE CATHEDRAL FOR THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE and its Archbishop, the Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our Cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.

CHOIRS Eight Cathedral choirs, including four adult choirs and four children's choirs, and the Cathedral's organists provide a rich range of musical offerings at the Cathedral liturgies as well as at special concerts. In addition, four Resident Ensembles offer sacred music concerts throughout the year.

Each summer, the Schola Cantorum Choir Camp draws children from around the region for a week of learning and music-making.

RCIA SPONSORS Sponsors walk with those who are becoming part of the Catholic Church, providing companionship and prayerful support.

WEDDINGS Couples preparing for the sacrament of marriage are provided with in-depth preparation, including one-on-one interviews, and gatherings with other engaged couples.

About St. James Cathedral

St. James Cathedral is the Cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and the parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Dedicated in 1907, the Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral during its early years. More recently, in 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent Ceremonial Bronze Doors at the west entrance by German artist Ulrich Henn (1999). Henn also created the stunning tabernacle for the reservation of the Blessed Sacrament (2003). Mr. Henn's only other works in this country are the bronze gates of the Washington National Cathedral in the nation's capital. St. James Cathedral also has a large and important collection of stained glass by American artist Charles Connick (1917-1919) and three splendid windows by German stained glass artist Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen (1994), who served on the faculty of the renowned Pilchuck School. The Cathedral's Mary Shrine, designed by Susan Jones (1994), has received national and international architectural awards, and the Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable fifteenth-century Italian Renaissance painting by Neri di Bicci (1456).
