JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

This week we celebrate the third and final Scrutiny with the Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus. Death is our greatest fear and this story reminds us that God's power and mercy are greater than ANY fear, sin or pain that we have in our lives. The Elect are asked to think about what needs to die in their lives in order for them to receive the new life being offered to them in baptism. For some, the question of whether they even want to come out of the tomb is important, whether they are willing to risk coming out into the light of Christ to see what awaits them. This week they will also be presented with The Lord's Prayer, which teaches us that God loves as a loving father and will "give us ...our daily bread" and "lead us from temptation." As they approach these last days of preparation before baptism, keep them in your prayers.

PRAYER CARDS FOR THE ELECT Thank you for keeping our Elect in your prayers during this season of Lent. Now is the time to turn in your personalized cards or notes for our Elect that will be distributed to them on Holy Saturday. You can drop off your cards in the baskets located at the place of prayer in the Cathedral, in the Hall during hospitality on Sunday mornings, or in the Bookstore during its regular hours. Cards need to be turned in no later than Holy Thursday evening. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin April 9 on Wednesday evenings. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM is a program which encourages us all to be good stewards of our health by participating in physical exercise. Our goal is to log enough miles to reach Jerusalem by Easter. (Right now we're treading water off the coast of Lisbon!) While many do this by walking, we are finding that some parishioners are swimming, biking, treadmilling, elliptical training and weight-training too. More importantly, though, during the journey we are encouraged to reflect on our own call to discipleship and see how best we might join with the disciples of Jesus as they walked with him as "followers of the way." If you have miles to log or would like more information, we'd like to hear from you! Information, Sr. Claudette Conrad, cconrad@stjames-cathedral.org.

VOLUNTEER WITH SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul invites you to join them in their ministry to the poor and suffering on First Hill, Capitol Hill and Downtown. Based on Christ's model of compassion, members conduct one-on-one visits to our neighbors in their homes and assist with rent, food, clothing, furniture, utilities & other necessities. Members also strive to bring hope & God's abundant love to those they serve. Information, Melissa Sanders, 206-328-6595, mlsanders25@gmail.com or Jijo Jose, 425-260-3476, jijo_jose@hotmail.com.

I SAW ETERNITY THE OTHER NIGHT You're invited to gather for a special evening celebrating the metaphysical poets, Thursday, March 27, at 7:00pm in the Mother Mary Rose Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center. A booklet of selected poems is available free in the Cathedral Bookstore, or download them at the Cathedral website, www.stjames-cathedral.org. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284.

SUMMER MISSION TRIP FOR YOUTH This July, youth from St. James and several other local Catholic churches will be participating in the Archdiocese's Youth Migrant Project. Teens will volunteer in daycare centers and migrant camps during the day and have the opportunity for fun and reflection in the evening. The trip is open to all incoming 8th graders through graduating 12th graders and will run from July 6-11th. Applications are due by March 23rd. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640.

BABYSITTING available each Sunday during the 10:00 and 12:00 Masses in the Pastoral Outreach Center, Mother Cabrini Room. Enter through the courtyard at Ninth and Columbia.

Being diagnosed with HIV and AIDS can be devastating. Through its programs in places like Cameroon, Catholic Relief Services helps people around the world to gain access to anti-retroviral medications and other treatments. They also help participants to meet others living with HIV/AIDS. This new support system helps people to face the future with renewed confidence. In addition to receiving help, participants can also be trained to educate others about HIV/AIDS and its prevention.

Jesus celebrates the gift of life by restoring it to his friend Lazarus. CRS health initiatives seek to preserve this gift and inspire local volunteers to work for the health of their communities. Our participation in Operation Rice Bowl helps CRS restore a feeling of hope for millions living with HIV and AIDS across the globe.

Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral Iconographer.

Monday, March 10, 2008
7:30 pm

During this beautiful service of readings, reflection, and song, we will open ourselves to experience the gift of God's gracious and loving forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance. It has long been a tradition in the Church to confess one's sins before celebrating the great feast of Easter. This will be the ideal time to do so.

Putting God First

Week Four: Stewards of the Church

Scripture

For we do not preach ourselves but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves for the sake of Jesus... But we hold this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing power may be of God and not from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not constrained; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our body.

2 Corinthians 4:5-10

from the Bishops' Pastoral

What do Christians bring to the Eucharistic celebration and join there with Jesus' offering? Their lives as Christian disciples; their personal vocations and the stewardship they have exercised regarding them; their individual contributions to the great work of restoring all things in Christ. Disciples give thanks to God for gifts received and strive to share them with others. That is why, as Vatican II says of the Eucharist, "if this celebration is to be sincere and thorough, it must lead to various works of charity and mutual help, as well as to missionary activity and to different forms of Christian witness" (Presbyterorum Ordinis, no. 6). More than that, the Eucharist is the sign and agent of that heavenly communion in which we shall together share... It is not only the promise but the commencement of the heavenly banquet where human lives are perfectly fulfilled. We have Jesus' word for it: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" (Jn 6:51). The glory and the boast of Christian stewards lie in mirroring, however poorly, the stewardship of Jesus Christ, who gave and still gives all he has and is, in order to be faithful to God's will and carry through to completion his redemptive stewardship of human beings and their world.

Stewardship: A Disciple's Response
U. S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

We are all stewards of the Church. "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit," St. Paul writes. Our participation in the building up of the Church takes different forms. But every Christian is called in our own place and our own time to evangelize—to spread the good news—and to stand in solidarity with the poor of our world. We are called to work for a world of peace and justice. We are also stewards of the Eucharist. We are to bring to the Eucharistic celebration our whole heart and mind.

Moses Leads the Israelites
Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen

Questions for Reflection

1. How is praying in community, whether at the Cathedral or in another community setting, different than when you are alone? What do you "get" out of participating in the Mass? What is your favorite part of the Mass? When are you most moved?
2. Respond to the following passage. How is being part of a faith community different from seeking God on one's own? "Community is all-important in our Christian faith. We are not isolated individuals who come to church because we happen to have a relationship with God, and it is not true to say my faith is between God and me. No, like the Chosen People of old, God saves us in community." (Father Michael G. Ryan)
3. We all have both negative and positive associations with the word "evangelization." When have you had a positive experience of spreading the Gospel "good news"?
4. Respond to this passage. What do you make of Pope John Paul II's use of the word "authenticity"? "We cannot delude ourselves: by our mutual love and, in particular, by our concern for those in need we will be recognized as true followers of Christ. This will be the criterion by which the authenticity of our Eucharistic celebrations is judged." (Pope John Paul II, Mane Nobiscum Domine)

This Lent, 80 Cathedral parishioners are participating in Putting God First, a five-week course of study, prayer, and faith sharing based on the U. S. Catholic Bishops' now-classic 1992 Pastoral Letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. Your Community Blood Center

Puget Sound Blood Center is an independent, volunteer-supported, nonprofit community resource. It is a key link in the healthcare network, providing blood, tissue and specialized laboratory services in Western Washington and across the Northwest. Blood Center physicians offer 24-hour consultation to the medical community on transfusion and transplantation medicine issues, and provide valuable education aimed at improving patient care.

Who needs blood?

Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.

The perfect gift for Lent!

Sign up at coffee hours on 2/24, 3/2 and 3/9. Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.
