

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This Order of Celebration is provided to help you participate actively in the Mass. It includes many of the sung portions of the Mass. You can find the text for the spoken responses of the Mass at Nos. 229-250 in the red Worship hymnal.

ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

BLESSING OF NEW STATIONS AND WAY OF THE CROSS
WITH CATHEDRAL CHILDREN (Noon)

OUT OF RESPECT FOR THE LITURGY WE ARE ABOUT TO CELEBRATE, PLEASE TURN OFF YOUR CELLULAR PHONE.

A NOTE ON THE CHANTS: This First Sunday of Lent is unusual in the Church's liturgy in that it draws on just one psalm, Psalm 91, for all the propers of the Mass — the introit, the gradual, the tract, the offertory, and the communion. Psalm 91, a prayer for God's protection and for the gift of new life, is particularly associated with the catechumenate. As we sing the refrain again and again during this Mass, we pray for those in our midst, and throughout the entire Church, who seek "life long and full" in the saving waters of baptism.

On behalf of the thousands whose lives are touched by this campaign, thank you for your generosity.

NEW IN THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE We have a wide variety of great Lenten reading in stock. JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

Beginning this week, our newly Elect are wearing brown robes while attending Mass and other liturgies during Lent. This helps them to know, in a concrete way, that they have entered a new and significant stage in their final preparations for Easter. It also anticipates another change that will take place when they emerge from the baptismal waters at the Easter Vigil and change to white robes. Seek them out in our midst and, if possible, introduce yourself to them after Mass. Let them know you are praying for them and looking forward to Easter when they will join us at the Eucharistic table.

LENTEN PRAYER PARTNERS FOR THE ELECT

This is the time to "adopt" one of our Elect as they prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. You are asked to pray every day for him/her asking for God's blessings and guidance. Also, notes and cards will be collected during Holy Week to be given to the Elect before Easter. Prayer cards are available at the place of prayer located in the north aisle of the west nave of the Cathedral (where you can also learn more about each of them in our Book of the Elect), in the bookstore, and in Cathedral Hall during Sunday morning hospitality. You can also meet our Elect by going to our parish website: www.stjames-cathedral.org Your prayers make a difference!!! Information Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

"LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY": A REVIEW OF THE LORD'S PRAYER (A Lenten Bible Study) Tuesdays, February 23, March 2, 9, 16 & 23, 1:00-3:00 PM or 7:00-9:00 PM, Cathedral Place, second floor. Join us as we reflect upon the rich teachings and insights of the Catholic Church, as articulated in the Catechism, on this great prayer that Jesus gave us. No Bible experience needed! Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

OPERATION RICE BOWL

In Luke's story of the temptation of Jesus we see how we can be tempted by wealth, power, and esteem. Lent calls us to focus on our faith life by living it in deeper ways. As we begin our journey with Catholic Relief Services' Operation Rice Bowl, let us pray and sacrifice so that through our faith life we can make a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters in need.

This week, Rice Bowl focuses on the country of Lesotho in southern Africa, where AIDS is a major threat to life. CRS programs in Lesotho focus on orphans, education, training, nutrition, and healthcare. For more information about Lesotho, refer to your Rice Bowl calendar or visit CRS online at <http://orb.crs.org/countries/lesotho/>

The Way of the Cross

St. James Cathedral has been given a new set of Stations of the Cross, which will hang in the Cathedral each year during the season of Lent. The stations are the work of Joan Brand-Landkamer.

Joan Brand-Landkamer began work on these stations many years ago, completing them in the fall of 2009. She used “found objects” from the beach near her home in Ocean Shores—wood, rope, and wire—to create a contemporary interpretation of the centuries-old devotion of the Stations of the Cross.

Joan’s previous work for the Cathedral, an extensive set of icons, drew on the tradition of Russian and Ethiopian iconography. The Stations are quite different, and were inspired by the work of Georges Rouault, the 20th-century French artist, and in particular his series of engravings entitled Miserere. In Joan’s words, “I stood on the shoulders of Rouault, the master.”

Rouault originally created the drawings that make up Miserere during World War I, but for various reasons their publication was delayed until 1947. The series speaks powerfully of human suffering and betrayal, and includes a number of images of the suffering Christ, juxtaposed with images of suffering humanity: corrupt judges and politicians, fools, prostitutes and prisoners. “Form, colour, harmony... oasis or mirage for the eyes, the heart, or the spirit,” wrote Rouault in his preface to the volume; “Jesus on the cross will tell you better than I.”

Rouault’s drawings are dark, intense, emotional, thoroughly modern and thoroughly Catholic. Art critic Anthony Blunt wrote of Miserere, “That he is a fervent Catholic is obvious from some of his works and certainly deducible from all of them, even from the least evidently religious. But he is a Catholic reacting to the peculiar conditions of the 20th century.... When he paints the crucified Christ it is not as a remote event in the past or as a traditional symbol, but as the expression of a faith which he believes can still move mountains.” Rouault himself said, “My only ambition is to be able someday to paint a Christ so moving that those who see him will be converted.”

Though Rouault never created a series of Stations of the Cross, his introspective style and focus on the suffering Christ blends perfectly with the traditional devotion, which challenges our complacency and calls us to action.

An etching by Georges Rouault, above, inspired Station XII

Two cruel faces from Georges Rouault’s Miserere are echoed in Station XI, Jesus is Nailed to the Cross.

WHAT ARE THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS?

The Stations of the Cross are one of the favorite devotions of the Catholic faithful. The Stations are a spiritual pilgrimage, as the faithful walk alongside Jesus on his last journey to Calvary. The Stations originated in Jerusalem, where as early as the fourth century pilgrims were walking in the footsteps of the Lord, pausing to pray at the various places mentioned in the passion narratives. In the late Middle Ages, when pilgrimage to the Holy Land became more and more difficult, people found ways to make that holy pilgrimage at home. The Stations varied widely in number, from as few as five to as many as twenty. Not until the 18th century, under the influence of the Franciscans, did the Stations take the form we know today, with fourteen stations, recalling scriptural and traditional episodes on the road to Calvary.

Letter From Haiti: Thank You All

Recently, a senior communications officer for Catholic Relief Services, Caroline Brennan, wrote from Haiti to report on the progress of earthquake recovery efforts. Below is part of her letter. The financial support to CRS has been incredible with over $1,000,000 coming from the people of western Washington.

We are all shouldering the loss in some way here, but I hope you can take pride in some of the burden you've helped to lift. As of today, February 4, alongside our Church and Caritas partners, we have been able to achieve the following:

- Distribution of food to 264,200 people, and non-food items to 25,000 people.
- Provision of medical care and treatment to a total of 4,126 people, and hygiene kits to 10,000 people.
- Support of medical materials and supplies, volunteer doctors and nurses, food, water and other support to expand emergency medical care at St. Francois de Sales Hospital.
- Establishment of three functioning operating rooms—conducting an average of 12 severe surgical cases per day—as well as a laboratory, X-ray room and blood bank at St. Francois de Sales Hospital.
- Resumption of health care at 12 highly populated areas in Port-au-Prince and Leogane.
- Launching of public health campaign carried out through megaphone and radio.
- Installation of four water storage and purification units in various areas of the city, and water and sanitation assessments in another 14 locations.
- Creation of designs to build a latrine at St. Francois de Sales Hospital, and an initial strategy for drainage, showers and sanitation at camps and temporary settlements.
- Guidelines for sanitation and hygiene kits.
- Initial standards and guidelines for emergency shelter kits and transitional shelters, technical standards for assessing habitability of buildings, and standards for debris-cleaning and cash-for-work activities.

People line up to receive food bags filled with lentils, soy, fortified bulgur and vegetable oil provided by USAID's Food For Peace program at the Petionville Golf Club in Haiti. Photo by Sara A. Fajardo/CRS

It is going to be a long road to recovery, and our teams of water engineers, architects, doctors, logisticians, counselors and managers are mapping out the transitional and long-term programming that fits with the needs and context for people to rebuild their lives. We'll be sure to share those updates and stories with you.

In the meantime, thank you for making this possible and please keep the people of Haiti in your thoughts and prayers.

A saying is popular in Haiti that you can hear on the streets and in camps: "Nou bite men nou pap tonbe. We may stumble but we will not fall."

Indeed, with your support, few things have rung so true. ✧
