

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

July 25, 2010

Dear Friends,

I am writing this early in the week and already I am hearing some long-range weather forecasts that are predicting rain. Well, if it comes, we will deal with it but I don't think it's going to. When you read this you'll know whether my optimism was warranted! In any case, I know we'll have a great celebration. And I know you'll want to join me in thanking Trent Mummery and Stephen Pace, and their team of more than fifty (!) volunteers, for making this great event possible.

We're doing a very low-key fundraiser today. The kneelers on the chairs in the Cathedral are now 16 years old and the padding on them is pretty much non-existent. (If you sit in the chairs you don't need me to tell you this!) It's going to cost approximately $22,000 to reupholster 600 kneelers – about $40 per kneeler. If you're in a position to help, we would be most grateful!

It is wonderful to be able to celebrate the feast of St. James with all of you. It was on this day 22 years ago that I was installed as Cathedral pastor by Archbishop Hunthausen, and celebrated the Feast of St. James with this community for the first time. In some ways, that seems like a long, long time ago to me; in other ways, it feels like yesterday! Over these years you have let me lead you in prayer and Eucharist and you have let me be your teacher and your companion on the great journey of faith. People sometimes ask me what my greatest joys are as a priest. I tell them that my greatest joy is being able to gather with all of you Sunday after Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist in our magnificent Cathedral. There are many other joys of priestly ministry, but this one surpasses them all. How grateful I am to be a part of this wonderful community of faith. Happy Feast Day!

Father Michael G. Ryan

ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR THE FEAST OF Saint James, Apostle

OUT OF RESPECT FOR THE LITURGY, PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES.

IMAGES OF ST. JAMES Several images of our patron are featured in the liturgy today. Carried in the entrance procession is a 16th-century reliquary bust of Saint James, the gift of a generous parishioner. The icon of St. James by Cathedral iconographer Joan Brand-Landkamer includes vignettes of the many scriptural references to St. James. And in the concluding procession at the 10:00am and Noon Masses, an 18-foot puppet of St. James by parishioner Kitty Kavanaugh makes an appearance. The puppet is modeled on large-scale puppets used during the festivities in Santiago de Compostela today.

PRELUDE (Saturday & 8:00) “Andante sostenuto” from Symphonie gothique Widor
(10:00 & Noon) “Scherzo” from Symphony No. 2 Vieme

| 1 For thy blest saints, a noble throng,
Who fell by fire and sword,
Or early died, or flourished long,
We praise thy Name, O Lord. | 3 He stood with thee beside the dead;
He climbed the mount with thee,
And saw the glory round thy head,
One of the chosen three. |
| 2 For James who left his father’s side,
Not ling’ring by the sea;
He heard what could not be denied,
Thy summons, “Follow me.” | 4 He knelt beneath the olive shade,
He drank thy cup of pain;
And slain by Herod’s flashing blade
He saw thy face again. |
| 5 Lord, may we learn to drink the cup,
And meek and firm be found,
When thou shalt come to take us up
Where thine elect are crowned. | |

Even before we call on Your name
To ask You, O God.
When we seek the words to glorify You,
You hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love,
Surpassing all we know.
Even with darkness sealing us in,
We breathe Your name.
And through all the days that follow so fast,
We trust in You;
Endless Your grace, O endless Your grace,
Beyond all mortal dream.

The Way of St. James

Proulx

JAMES, JAMES: beloved of God.
JAMES, JAMES: first of the apostles to share the cup of suffering and death of our Lord Jesus Christ.
JAMES, JAMES: martyred by Herod, taken to heaven.
Thus the pilgrim-church was blessed and made to flourish.
HOLY JAMES: Martyr of Jerusalem,
the first of the apostles chosen for glorious martyrdom.

LORD, LORD: curb our vain impatience.
 Grant us grace for our own suffering
 so as to glorify your name as we follow the Way of James.
 May we now wear the scallop-shell of quiet on our pilgrim path,
 Holding the staff of steady faith all our days.
 JAMES, JAMES: beloved of God, pray for us.

Let us sing with great rejoicing, on this day when JAMES, Apostle,

 Tasting heavenly joys forever in the courts of the angels.

By Herod decapitated, and therefore crowned by Christ,
 JAMES has been made rich in the heavenly homeland,

And so, his feast celebrating, his hymns singing,
 Let us offer up in veneration sweet praises to the Lord

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Belfast, N. Ireland, Barrigada, Guam, Anchorage, AK, and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Berea, OH.

NEW IN THE BOOKSTORE Beautiful statues of St. Francis for your garden or backyard—in stock for a limited time only! We also have plenty of great reading for the summertime, and a variety of books related to our patron, James, and the camino to his shrine at Santiago de Compostela.

SUMMER CHOIR AND YOU! You are needed in this year's St. James Summer Choir. Anyone—everyone—is welcome to join in this Cathedral tradition. You do not have to be a gifted singer, just someone who loves to join with others to support the congregation and to sing praises at one or all Sunday Noon Masses in August. Rehearsals are the Sundays of August at 11:15am in Cathedral Place, Choir Room. Information www.stjames-cathedral.org/music, 206-382-4874.

HUNTHAUSEN GOLF TOURNAMENT AND AUCTION

Please consider being a part of this year's Golf Tournament and Auction, on Monday, September 20, at the Inglewood Golf and Country Club in Kenmore. There are many ways to be involved in this fun day, which raises thousands of dollars to support the Cathedral's outreach ministries to the poor and needy in our midst. Visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/golf to find out more. We are in special need of items for our silent auction—do you have something fun or beautiful you'd like to share? Gift certificates are welcome! Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL SHORTFALL! We have met the goal the Archbishop set for us, but we are still $40,000 short of our parish goal. This will seriously and negatively impact our 2010-2011 budget. If you have not yet made a pledge or gift to the Appeal, and are in a position to do so, please consider making a gift today by visiting www.seattlearch.org/aca. A gift of $365 ($1 per day!) will make a huge difference. Your support is crucial to allow St. James to meet its financial obligations. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or email mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. James in Vancouver, St. Joachim Mission on the Lummi Indian Reservation, and St. Ignatius Chapel at Seattle University.

The Pilgrim Way of St. James

THE MEDIEVAL CAMINO IN WORDS AND PICTURES—PART 3 OF 3

JULY, 2010

Clothilde of Paris

Clothilde is imaginary, but during the Middle Ages countless pilgrims like her set out from all over Europe to walk to Santiago de Compostela in Spain.

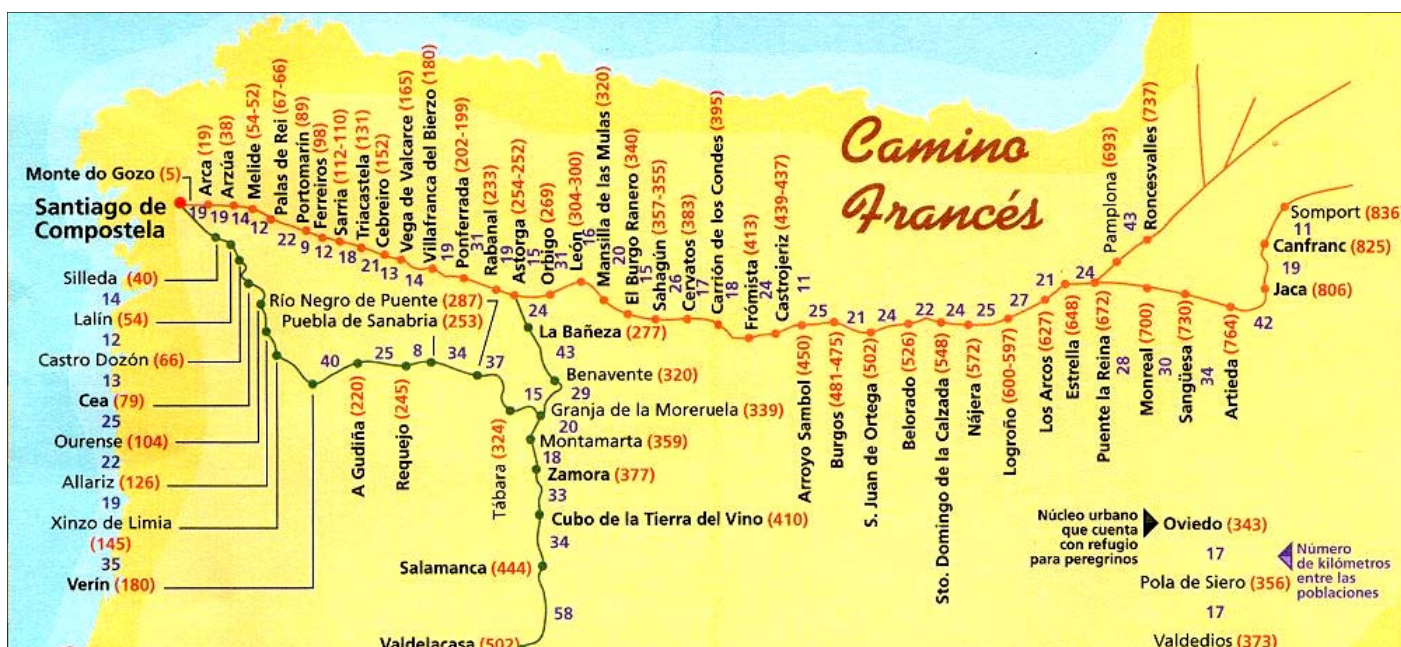

This year, 2010, is a Holy Year: that's because the Feast of St. James, July 25, falls on a Sunday (something that won't happen again until 2021!). St. James is our patron saint, and we prepare to celebrate our patronal feast later this month by learning more about the ancient Pilgrim Way of St. James in Spain, and making our own "pilgrimage" to pray with St. James. Today an imaginary pilgrim from the 14th century tells us more about the Camino. MEET MORE CAMINO CHARACTERS AT WWW.STJAMES-CATHEDRAL.ORG!

A pilgrim Tells Her Story

My name is Clothilde. I am very busy with my work as a shopkeeper in Paris, France, but I am going on pilgrimage. I am going because I love God and a pilgrimage is like one long prayer. I also think it will be a great adventure. I am traveling with some friends from my neighborhood.

There are three great pilgrimage places that most people want to go to: Jerusalem, Rome, and Santiago de Compostela. I would like to go to Jerusalem, but it is so far, and so dangerous, and also expensive. I would go to Rome, but you have to travel through many mountains to get there. So we are going to Spain. We started out at the Church of Saint James in Paris (St. Jacques, we call him, but in Spain he is called Santiago) where the priest blessed our pilgrim cloaks, walking sticks, bags, and the broad-brimmed hats that will protect us from sun and rain.

The route we are taking will lead us from Paris to Tours, to Bordeaux, to St. Jean Pied-de-Port, where pilgrims from all over France gather before heading over the border of Spain. Then, our journey will lead us along the northern coast of Spain, through towns like Pamplona, Burgos, Sahagun, Leon, Astorga, Ponferrada, Melida, and, finally, Santiago de Compostela. We will stay in Spain for a week or two, then start on our way back again.

Wealthy people travel on horseback, or even by boat, but we are going to walk. Fortunately, my friend has a copy of the guidebook Pope Calixtus wrote about the Camino (that means “way” in Spanish). We read it every day to see what we should expect. It is a helpful book because it warns you what rivers not to drink from (some of them will make you sick) and it also tells you the best places to stay. It tells you which churches to visit and points out the most beautiful places along the way. There is one mountain so high that when you get to the top, the guidebook says, you feel like you can touch the sky with your hand. This is a Holy Year, and the Camino is beautiful—but crowded!

Walking the Camino of Santiago is an amazing experience for all of us. We get lots of visitors in Paris, of course, but nothing like this, where you hear people speaking hundreds of languages and dialects, dressed in all kinds of outlandish costumes; some rich, some poor; some noble, and even royal families, but mostly ordinary people like us. We can’t wait to get to Santiago de Compostela to receive our scallop shells, which we will wear for the rest of our lives to show that we have been all the way to the shrine of the Apostle James.

The Medieval Camino in Pictures

❶ The scallop shell is the symbol of pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. This shell was worn by a pilgrim who made the Camino more than 1,000 years ago. ❷ The scallop shell is also used as a waymarker for pilgrims. (This photo was taken by Dr. Wendy Shore, who walked the Camino earlier this year.) The shell appears along the Camino, pointing the pilgrim in the direction of Santiago de Compostela. ❸ This famous carving from the Benedictine Monastery of Santo Domingo de Silos in Spain illustrates the Gospel account of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Jesus is shown as a pilgrim, with a scallop shell on the bag at his waist. ❹ Some parts of the Camino are ancient—this road was built by the Romans (photo by Dr. Wendy Shore). ❺ This is a copy of the Liber Sancti Jacobi, The Book of Saint James, which is attributed to Pope Calixtus II. Its detailed account of the beauties and dangers pilgrims will encounter on their way to Santiago de Compostela make it one of the earliest tourist guidebooks!

My feet hurt.
Are we there yet?
